H. B. 1399 CHAPTER 1368

AN ACT TO PERMIT ELECTIONS ON THE QUESTION OF THE SALE OF WINE IN THE RURAL TOWNSHIPS OF HALIFAX COUNTY IN WHICH THERE ARE NO INCORPORATED CITIES AND TOWNS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That Chapter 824 of the Session Laws of 1947, as amended, is hereby amended by adding after Section 10 thereof, a new Section to be numbered "Section 11", to read as follows:

"Section 11 (a). For the purpose of determining whether or not wine shall be sold in any rural township of Halifax County in which there is no incorporated city or town, an election shall be called within such rural township when the conditions of this Section are complied with.

"(b) Upon the presentation to it of a petition signed by fifteen per cent (15%) of the registered voters of any rural township in Halifax County in which there is no incorporated city or town, who were registered and entitled to vote for Governor in the last general election, and a resolution signed by the majority of the members of the Halifax County Alcoholic Beverage Control Board requesting that an election be held for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of said township the question of whether or not wine shall legally be sold therein, the Halifax County Board of Elections shall call an election for the purpose of submitting said question or questions to the voters of said rural township or townships.

"(c) No petition filed pursuant to the provisions of this Section shall be considered by the Halifax County Board of Elections unless said petition shall state upon its face that at the election requested by those signing the petition, there shall be submitted to the voters the question of the legal sale of wine, nor shall any petition be considered unless it states that the signers thereof are, and were, registered voters of the rural township in which the election is requested, and as such registered voters, were entitled to participate in the last general election held within said township in Halifax County for Governor. The signatures on said petition shall be in the genuine handwriting of the signers and said petitions shall show opposite the name of each signer, the correct precinct in which the petitioner last voted. Failure to comply with any of the provisions herein shall disqualify the name of said petitioner.

"(d) The Halifax County Board of Elections shall, upon request, prepare and furnish petition forms to any person wishing to circulate a petition calling for an election on wine within any rural township in Halifax County not having an incorporated city or town within said township. The board of elections having had a request for petition forms, shall date such forms and the petition must be completed and returned to the board of elections within ninety (90) days from date of delivery to petitioner, or petitioners, if there be more than one. Failure to return such petition in ninety (90) days to the Halifax County Board of Elections shall render the same void. It shall also be the duty of said board of elections, upon release of petition forms, to give public notice by publication of such notice, once a week for two weeks, immediately following the delivery of such petition, in one or more newspapers as may be designated by the board of elections, and which in its discretion and opinion would most likely give public notice within said rural township that such petition or petitions are being circulated within said rural township for the purpose of having an election called and held on the question of the legal sale of wine within said township. Whenever a petition or petitions within said rural township is returned and presented to the Halifax County Board of Elections, pursuant to and complying with the provisions of this Section, said board of elections shall within thirty (30) days, call the election petitioned for.

"(e) Thirty (30) days public notice shall be given of any election called pursuant to the provisions of this Section prior to the opening of the registration books for the same, and such elections shall be held under the same law and regulations as are provided for the election of members of the General Assembly, except that no absentee ballot shall be voted in said election.

"(f) Thirty (30) days public notice shall be given within the petitioning rural township of any election called pursuant to the provisions of this Section prior to the opening of the registration books for the same, and such election shall be held under the same law and regulations as are provided for the election of members of the General Assembly, except that no absentee ballots shall be voted in said election.

"(g) No election shall be held pursuant to the provisions of this Section in any rural township in Halifax County within sixty (60) days of the holding of any general, special or primary election in Halifax County.

"(h) Whenever an election is held pursuant to the provisions of this Section in any rural township in Halifax County, no other election pursuant to the provisions of this Section, shall be held within such rural township within two (2) years of the holding of the preceding election pursuant to the provisions of this Section.

"(i) If such election as herein provided for, is called to determine whether or not wine shall be sold within any one or more of the rural townships of Halifax County in which there is no incorporated city or town, the Halifax County Board of Elections, in addition to printing on said ballot the instructions and otherwise complying with the provisions of the law applicable to the ballots to be used in said election, shall submit the proposition to be voted upon and cause the same to be printed upon the ballot, as follows:

☐ For the legal sale of wine.

☐ Against the legal sale of wine.

"(j) If a majority of the votes cast in such election shall be 'for the legal sale of wine', then the sale of wine by lawfully authorized persons, firms or corporations, may continue as now permitted by law, and the Board of Commissioners of Halifax County shall issue to applicants entitled to the same, licenses to sell wine as defined in G. S. Sections 18-64 and G. S. Sections 18-99, as provided in Chapter 18 of General Statutes, until such time as the permits of such persons, firms or corporations may be revoked or otherwise prohibited under the power and authority now vested in said State, and/or Halifax County Alcoholic Beverages Control Boards, as now provided by law under the terms and provisions of G. S. Sections 18-116.1, G. S. 18-116.2, G. S. 18-116.3, G. S. 18-116.4 and G. S. 18-116.5.

If a majority of votes cast in any election held pursuant to provisions of the Section shall be 'against the legal sale of wine', then the sale or possession for the purpose of sale of such beverage thirty (30) days after said election shall constitute a misdemeanor, the punishment for which shall be in the discretion of the court, as hereinbefore provided.

"(k) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to repeal the provisions of G. S. 18-128, under which Section the purchase or possession of wine for sacramental purposes by any organized church, or ordained minister of the gospel is permitted.

"(m) That the costs and expense incidental to the conduct of any election held under this Section shall be borne out of the profits and funds of the Halifax County Alcoholic Beverages Control Board and paid by said board to the Halifax County Board of Elections, or the persons entitled to receive the same."

Sec. 2. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act be, and the same are hereby, repealed; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to repeal or impair in any manner, or in any particular, or to any extent whatsoever the power and authority granted to any local or State governing control and enforcement boards within Halifax County, under the terms and provisions of G. S. 18-116.1, G. S. 18-116.2, G. S. 18-116.3, G. S. 18-116.4, and G. S. 18-116.5, but the power and authority thereby vested by law in said Halifax County and State Boards shall remain in full force and effect.

Sec. 3. This Act shall be in full force and effect ninety (90) days after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 26th day of May, 1955.

S. 55-164.1, G. S. 55-164.2, G. S. 55-164.3, is hereby rewritten, and there is hereby inserted in the General Statutes a new Chapter to read as follows:

CHAPTER 55
BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT

ARTICLE 1. General Provisions.

Sec. 55.1. Title.—This Chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Business Corporation Act.

Sec. 55.2. Definitions.—As used in this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(1) "Accrued dividends" means, with reference to cumulative preferred shares, the amount by which the aggregate cumulative dividend preferences pertaining to a share of such class for the entire period during which the share was outstanding and cumulative, exceeds all the dividends actually paid thereon. For the purpose of this definition, a dividend is deemed paid if it has been declared and funds for its payment have been set aside.

(2) "Assets" means those properties and rights, other than treasury shares, which in accordance with generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice, are recognized as being properly entered upon the books and balance sheets of business enterprises in terms of a monetary value.

(3) "Charter" includes the original articles of incorporation, together with all amendments thereto and articles of merger or consolidation, and also includes what have heretofore been designated by law as certificates of incorporation, agreements of merger or of consolidation, or charters. When any provisions of this Chapter require a certified copy of a foreign corporation's "charter" to be filed, the corporation may file either certified copies of its articles and all amendments or a certified copy of its integrated articles or a certified copy of a restatement of its articles.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(4) "Corporation" means a corporation for profit or having a capital stock which may have been or may be created and organized under this Chapter or any other general or any special Act of this State. "Foreign corporation" means any other corporation for profit.

(5) "Dividend credit" means the aggregate of all yearly dividend credits. "Yearly dividend credit" means with respect to non-cumulative preferred shares, the amount by which the full dividend preference of such a share, to the extent that such preference is earned by the corporation with respect to such a share in a particular fiscal year, exceeds the dividends paid on said share for that year; provided, that no dividend credit shall accrue unless, and only to the extent that, there exists an earned surplus at the end of such fiscal year. Computations of earnings allocable to classes of shares made in good faith by the board of directors in accordance with generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice or made or adopted by them on the bases represented by an independent public accountant or by a certified public accountant or by a firm of such accountants as being in accordance with generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice shall be conclusive. For the purpose of this definition, a dividend is deemed paid if it has been declared and funds for its payment have been set aside.

(6) "Dominant shareholder" means a shareholder of a particular corporation, domestic or foreign, who by virtue of his share holdings has legal power, either directly or indirectly or through another corporation or series of other corporations, domestic or foreign, to elect a majority of the directors of the said particular corporation.

(7) "Liabilities" means all those debts and claims which either are known to impose a fixed obligation of payment or, if contingent, have sufficient possibility of becoming fixed as to require, in accordance with generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice, an estimate of their probable amount. Unaccrued obligations under short or long term leases not in default are not, in absence of special circumstances, required to be included as liabilities. Liabilities do not include stated capital or the amount of accrued dividends and dividend credits with respect to shares entitled to preferential dividends except to the extent that dividends have been declared but are unpaid.

(8) "Net assets" means the amount of a corporation's assets in excess of its liabilities.

(9) "Parent corporation," and "subsidiary corporation." "Parent corporation" means a corporation which is a dominant shareholder, as herein defined. A corporation through which, by virtue of its share holdings alone, a parent corporation has power to exercise the control which makes the latter a parent corporation is itself a parent corporation. A corporation with respect to which another corporation is a parent corporation is a "subsidiary corporation".

(10) "Preferred share" means a share of a class, whether or not designated by the term "preferred," entitling its holder to receive dividends before dividends are paid to shares of another class.

Sec. 55-3. Applicability of this Chapter.—(a) The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to every corporation for profit, and, so far as appropriate, to every corporation not for profit having a capital stock, now existing or hereafter formed, and to the outstanding and future securities thereof, unless the corporation is expressly excepted from the operation hereof or unless there is other specific statutory provision particularly applicable to the corporation or inconsistent with some provisions of this Chapter, in which case that other provision prevails.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this Section, no corporation having a capital stock and formed for religious, charitable, nonprofit, social, or literary purposes shall hereafter be formed under this Chapter.

(c) The existence of corporations formed or existing on the date this Chapter takes effect shall not be affected by the enactment of this Chapter nor by any change in the requirements for the formation of corporations nor by any amendment or repeal of the laws under which they were formed or created, and, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Chapter, the repeal of a prior Act by this Chapter shall not affect any liability or penalty incurred, under the provisions of such Act, prior to the repeal thereof.

ARTICLE 2. Execution and Filing of Certain Corporate Documents.

Sec. 55-4. Execution of corporate documents for filing; filing, recording and effectiveness.—(a) Whenever the provisions of this Chapter require any document relating to a corporation to be executed and filed in accordance with this Section, unless otherwise specifically stated in this Chapter:

(1) There shall be an original executed document and also one conformed copy.

(2) The said original document shall, if required to be executed by the corporation, be signed by the president or a vice president and also by the secretary or an assistant secretary, with or without the corporate seal. In the case of a banking corporation, a cashier or an assistant cashier may act in lieu of a secretary or assistant secretary. If required to be executed by designated individuals, each of them shall sign.

(3) Except where the provisions of this Chapter specifically require acknowledgment, the said original document shall be verified by each of the individuals signing, whether in a representative capacity or otherwise, by a statement under oath, made before and certified by an official who is authorized under the laws of this State to take acknowledgments, declaring that he signed the said document, that the statements therein are true, and, in the case of an individual who signed in a representative capacity, declaring the capacity in which he signed and that he was authorized so to sign.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(4) The conformed copy may either extend its conformation with the original document through all the verifications (or acknowledgments, as the case may be) or may in lieu of such extension contain the legend, after the name of the signers substantially as follows: "Original duly verified (acknowledged) by all signers."

(5) The original document so signed and verified (or acknowledged, as the case may be), together with the conformed copy, shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. Unless he finds that it does not conform to law, the Secretary of State shall, when the proper taxes and fees have been tendered, endorse upon the original the word "Filed" and the hour, day, month, and year of the filing thereof and shall file the same in his office. The Secretary of State, shall thereupon immediately compare the copy with the original and if he finds that they are identical he shall make upon the conformed copy the same endorsement which appears on the original and shall attach to the copy a certificate stating that attached thereto is a true copy of the document, designated by an appropriate title, filed in his office and showing the date of such filing. He shall thereupon return the copy so certified to the corporation or its representative.

(6) The copy, certified as aforesaid, shall, within sixty days after the receipt by the corporation or its representative be delivered to the Clerk of Superior Court of the county wherein the corporation has its registered office, and, when the proper fees shall have been tendered, it shall be recorded and properly indexed in a book to be known as the Record of Incorporations. Promptly after the recordation, the clerk shall note the fact of recordation on the said copy and return it to the corporation or its representative.

(b) Any such document required to be filed shall be completely effective when filed by the Secretary of State and the transaction to be effectuated thereby shall thereupon be deemed as completely consummated as if all the required recording had been perfected and, unless otherwise provided in this Chapter with respect to some specific document, the failure to deliver it for recording in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court shall only subject the corporation to a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) to be collected by the Secretary of State.

(c) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, whenever so requested and upon tender of the proper fees, to certify as aforesaid any true copy of any such document on file in his office or, if such be the request, to make or cause to be made typewritten or photostatic copies of such documents and to certify the same as aforesaid.

ARTICLE 3. Formation, Name and Registered Office.

Sec. 55-5. Purposes.—Corporations for profit may be organized under this Chapter for any lawful purposes. Where by law special provisions are made for the organization of designated classes of corporations such corporations shall be formed under those provisions and not hereunder.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

Sec. 55-6. Incorporators.—Three or more natural persons, whether or not residents of this State, of the age of 21 years or more may act as incorporators of a corporation by signing and acknowledging articles of incorporation, which shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4. The acknowledgment shall be before an officer duly authorized under the laws of this State to take the proof or acknowledgment of deeds.

Sec. 55-7. Articles of Incorporation.—The articles of incorporation shall set forth: (a) The name of the corporation. (b) The period of duration, which may be perpetual. (c) The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized. (d) With respect to the shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue:

(1) If the shares are to have a par value, the number of such shares and the par value of each share,

(2) If the shares are to be without par value, the number of such shares,

(3) If the shares are to be of both kinds mentioned in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (d) of this Section, particulars in accordance with those paragraphs,

(4) If the shares are to be divided into classes, or into series within a class of preferred or special shares, the Articles of incorporation shall also set forth either:

a. A designation of each class, with a designation of each series if there are to be series fixed by the articles of incorporation within a class, and a statement of the preferences, limitations and relative rights of the shares of each class or series, insofar as such preferences, limitations, and rights are to be fixed in the articles of incorporation; or

b. A designation of each class and a statement authorizing the board of directors to fix the preferences, limitations and relative rights of each class, or to establish series within a class and to determine the variations between series, insofar as the same are not to be fixed in the articles of incorporation; or

c. A designation of each class, without the further designation or statements provided for in sub-paragraphs a and b of this paragraph (4).

To the extent that the preferences, limitations, and relative rights of each class, and provisions for series within a class, are not set out in the articles of incorporation, the same may be fixed by the shareholders or directors in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-42.

(e) The minimum amount of consideration for its shares to be received by the corporation before it shall commence business. (f) Any provision limiting or denying to shareholders the preemptive right to acquire additional or treasury shares of the corporation. (g) Any provision, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision which under this Chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws. No provisions shall make fully paid shares assessable. (h) The address, including street and number, if any, of its initial registered office, which shall be in this State, and the name of its initial registered agent at such address. (i) The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors (who may be classified in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-26) and the names and addresses, including street and number, if any, of the persons who are to serve as directors until the first meeting of shareholders or until their successors be elected and qualify. (j) The name and address, including street and number, if any, of each incorporator.

It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this Chapter.

Sec. 55-8. Corporate existence: filing of articles of incorporation; effect.—Upon the filing of the articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State the corporate existence shall begin, and a copy of the articles certified by the Secretary of State shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated under this Chapter, except as against this State in a proceeding to annul or revoke the articles of incorporation. Corporate existence is not impaired by the acquisition of all the shares by one person.

Sec. 55-9. Requirement before commencing business.—A corporation shall not transact any business or incur any indebtedness, except such as shall be incidental to its organization or to obtaining subscription to or payment for its shares, until a certified copy of the articles of incorporation has been filed and recorded in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4 and until there has been received the amount stated in the articles of incorporation as being the minimum amount of consideration to be received for its shares before commencing business.

Sec. 55-10. Exercise of corporate franchises not granted.—The Attorney General may upon his own information or upon complaint of a private party bring an action in the name of the State to restrain any person from exercising corporate franchises not granted.

Sec. 55-11. Organization meeting of directors.—After the filing of the articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State an organization meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall be held, either within or without this State, at the call of a majority of the directors, for the purpose of adopting bylaws, electing officers and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. The directors calling the meeting shall give at least three days notice thereof by mail to each director so named, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting, unless notice is waived as hereinafter provided.

(b) The corporate name shall not contain any word or phrase which is likely to mislead the public or which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its charter.

(c) The corporate name shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation or of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved to some other person in the manner prescribed in this Section.

(d) The exclusive right to a corporate name not prohibited by this Section may be reserved for a period of 90 days by:

(5) Any person intending to organize a foreign corporation and intending to have such corporation make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this State.

The same name shall not be reserved for two or more consecutive 90-day periods by the same applicant or for the use and benefit of the same applicant; nor shall such consecutive reservations be made of names so similar as to fall within the prohibition of this Section.

(e) Any person or corporation acquiring the good will of a domestic corporation or of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State may, on furnishing the Secretary of State satisfactory evidence of such acquisition, reserve the exclusive right to the corporate name of the said corporation for a period of ten years.

(f) The reservation of name, pursuant to subsections (d) and (e) of this Section, shall be made by filing with the Secretary of State a verified application therefor and the Secretary of State shall, upon tender of the fee hereinafter prescribed, reserve the name exclusively for the applicant unless he finds that the name is not available under the provisions of this Section.

(g) The exclusive right to a specified corporate name reserved hereunder, may, on tender of the fee hereinafter prescribed, be transferred to any other person or corporation by filing in the office of the Secretary of State a notice of such transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

(h) The use by a corporation of a name in violation of this Section may be enjoined notwithstanding the filing of its articles by the Secretary of State.

Sec. 55-13. Registered office and registered agent.—(a) Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this State:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its place of business.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this State whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State, having a business office identical with such registered office.

(b) If any corporation has, prior to the effective date of this Chapter, filed with the Secretary of State a statement designating a principal office in this State, and agent in charge thereof, and has continued to maintain the same, it shall not be required to, but it may, designate a new registered office and agent as provided in G. S. 55-14.

Sec. 55-14. Change of registered office or registered agent.—(a) A corporation may change its registered office or its registered agent or both. To effectuate such change a statement shall be executed by the corporation and filed, in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4, setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation;

(2) The address, including street and number, if any, of its then registered office;

(3) If the address of its registered office be changed, the address, including street and number, if any, to which the registered office is to be changed;

(4) The name of its then registered agent;

(5) If its registered agent be changed, the name of its successor registered agent;

(6) That the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.

(7) That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

(b) If the change in the registered office is to another county, a copy of such statement certified by the Secretary of State shall be recorded both in the old county and in the new county, and there shall also be recorded in the new county, in the manner prescribed by G. S. 55-4, a similarly certified copy of the corporation's charter.

(c) If the statement purporting to effectuate such changes is recorded in some but not in all the offices wherein recording is required by this Section, persons asserting claims against the corporation may treat as the registered agent or registered office of the corporation either the one newly designated in the statement or the pre-existing one.

(d) Any registered agent of a corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the Secretary of State, who shall forthwith mail a copy thereof to the corporation at its registered office, or, in the case of a foreign corporation, to the address of the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the Secretary of State. If the corporation fails to record said resignation in the county where it has its registered office, any process served upon the agent shall, despite his resignation, be as effective as if he had not resigned, but the agent in such case shall be under no duty to the corporation with respect to such process.

Sec. 55-15. Service of process on corporation.—(a) Service upon the registered agent appointed by a corporation of any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation shall be binding upon the corporation.

(b) Whenever a corporation shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this State, or whenever its registered agent cannot with due diligence be found at the registered office, then the Secretary of State shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the Secretary of State of any such process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with him, or with any clerk having charge of the corporation department of his office, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the Secretary of State, he shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. Any such corporation so served shall be in court for all purposes from and after the date of such service on the Secretary of State.

(c) The Secretary of State shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon him under this Section, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

(d) Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

Sec. 55-16. Bylaws.—(a) The initial bylaws may be adopted by the board of directors at its organization meeting. Thereafter bylaws may be adopted, amended or repealed either by the shareholders or by the board of directors, but

(1) No bylaw adopted or amended by the shareholders shall be altered or repealed by the board of directors;

(2) No bylaw shall be adopted by the directors which shall require more than a majority of the voting shares for a quorum at a meeting of shareholders or more than a majority of the votes cast to constitute action by the shareholders, except where higher percentages are required by law;

(3) No bylaw authorizing compensation of officers measured by the amount of a corporation's income or volume of business shall be valid after five years from its adoption unless renewed by the vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares regardless of limitation on voting rights.

(4) The charter or a bylaw adopted by the shareholders may limit or eliminate the power of the board of directors to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws or any specific bylaw.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(b) Any bylaw made by the board of directors shall be adopted by an affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then holding office and any bylaw made by the shareholders shall, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (3) of subsection (a) of this Section, be adopted by the affirmative vote of the shareholders entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power of the corporation. However, the charter or the bylaws may, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of this Section, require more than the aforesaid majorities on the part of the directors or of the shareholders, as the case may be.

(c) The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation, including the transfer of its shares, not inconsistent with the law or the charter.

ARTICLE 4. Powers and Management.

Sec. 55-17. General powers.—(a) Each corporation shall have power:

(1) To have perpetual succession by its corporate name unless a limited period of duration is stated in its charter.

(2) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.

(3) To have a corporate seal which may be altered at will, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed or affixed or in any other manner reproduced.

(4) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation, and define their duties and fix their compensation.

(5) To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its charter or with the laws of this State, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(6) To make contributions or gifts to corporations, trusts, community chests, funds, foundations, or associations organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, literary, scientific, or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, when such contributions or gifts are authorized or approved by its board of directors.

(7) In time of war or engagement of the Nation's Armed Forces in hostile military operations, to transact any lawful business in aid of the United States in connection therewith.

(8) To invest its funds not currently needed in its business.

(9) To cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise.

(b) In connection with carrying out the purposes stated in its charter, and subject to any limitation prescribed by this Chapter or by its charter, every corporation shall also have power:

(1) To acquire, by purchase, lease, gift, will or otherwise, and to own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with, real and personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(2) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(3) To enter into contracts of guaranty or suretyship or make other financial arrangements for the benefit of its personnel or customers or suppliers.

(4) To procure for its benefit insurance on the life of any employee, including any officer, whose death might cause financial loss to the corporation, and to this end the corporation is deemed to have an insurable interest in its employees and officers.

(5) To acquire, by purchase, subscription, gift, will or otherwise, and to own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

(6) To enter into any arrangement with others for the sharing of profits or union of interest with respect to any transaction, operation or venture which the corporation has power to conduct by itself, even if such arrangement involves sharing or delegation of control of such transaction, operation or venture with or to others.

(7) To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge or other form of security upon all or any of its property, franchises and income.

(8) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest its funds from time to time, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(9) To conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this Chapter anywhere in the world.

(10) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

(c) It shall not be necessary to set forth in the charter any of the powers enumerated in this Section.

Sec. 55-18. Defense of ultra vires.—(a) No act of a corporation and no conveyance or transfer of real or personal property to or by a corporation shall be invalid by reason of the fact that the corporation was without capacity or power to do such act or to make or receive such conveyance or transfer, but such lack of capacity or power may be asserted:

(1) In an action by a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the doing of any act or the transfer of real or personnel property by or to the corporation, but in any such action the plaintiff shall sustain the burden of proof that he has not at any time prior thereto assented to the act or transfer in question and that in bringing the action he is not acting in collusion with officials of the corporation. If the unauthorized acts or transfer sought to be enjoined are being, or are to be, performed or made pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court may, if all of the parties to the contract are parties to the action and if deemed equitable, set aside and enjoin the performance of such contract, and in so doing may allow to the corporation or to the other parties to the contract, as the case may be, compensation for the loss or damage sustained by either of them which may result from the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of such contract, but anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of the contract shall not be awarded by the court as loss or damage sustained.

(2) In an action by the corporation or by its receiver, trustee or other legal representative, or by its shareholders in a derivative suit, against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation.

(3) In an action by the Attorney General, as provided in this Chapter, to dissolve the corporation, or in an action by the Attorney General to enjoin the corporation from the transaction of unauthorized business, or in a proceeding by the Secretary of State to revoke a certificate of authority of a foreign corporation pursuant to G. S. 55-151.

(b) This Section applies to acts, conveyances and transfers done or made by a foreign corporation in this State and to all conveyances to or by a foreign corporation of real property situated in this State, but if the foreign corporation is itself disqualified by this Chapter from maintaining an action in this State no action may be brought in this State under paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of this Section.

Sec. 55-19. Invalidity of certain exculpatory and indemnification provisions.—(a) Except as indemnification of a director or officer of a corporation is permitted by G. S. 55-20 and G. S. 55-21, no provision, hereafter made or adopted, whether contained in the charter, the bylaws, a resolution, a contract or otherwise, whereby the corporation purports to exempt or indemnify any director or officer of a corporation with respect to any liability or litigation expenses arising out of his activities as director or officer shall be valid.

(b) As used in this Section and in G. S. 55-20 and G. S. 55-21, the term "officer" includes any dominant shareholder engaged to perform services for the corporation, whether as employee or independent contractor.

Sec. 55-20. Indemnification of directors and officers in actions by outsiders.—When because of his duties or activities as director or officer of a corporation a present or former director or officer, alone or with others, is prosecuted in a criminal action or is sued in an action or proceeding not brought by the corporation nor brought by any party seeking derivatively to enforce a liability of such director or officer to the corporation, such director or officer shall be entitled to indemnification or reimbursement by the corporation for any expenses, including attorneys' fees, or any liabilities which he may have incurred in consequence of such action or proceeding, under the following conditions:

(1) If such director or officer is wholly successful in his defense on the merits, he shall be entitled to reimbursement from the corporation of all his reasonable expenses of defense, including attorneys' fees.

(2) If such officer or director is wholly successful otherwise than solely on the merits, the corporation may pay or agree to pay to him such expenses of defense, including attorneys' fees, as the board of directors in good faith shall deem reasonable, regardless of any adverse interest of any or all of the directors.

(3) If such director or officer is not wholly successful or is unsuccessful in his defense, the corporation may pay or agree to pay, in whole or in part, said expenses of defense and the amount of any judgment, money decree, fine, penalty or settlement for which he may have become liable, if a plan for such payment is sent to the holders of all shares entitled to vote, with notice of a shareholders' meeting, whether annual or special, to be held to take action thereon and if at such meeting a plan is approved by the holders of a majority of such shares, exclusive of the shares held directly or indirectly by any directors or officers to be benefitted by the plan if approved.

Sec. 55-21. Indemnity for litigation expenses in corporate action. (a) When a present or former director or officer of a corporation is sued, alone or with others, in the courts of this State, in any action seeking to establish his liability to the corporation arising out of his alleged dereliction of duty to the corporation, he shall in turn be entitled to indemnification or reimbursement from the corporation for so much of his expenses of defense, including attorneys' fees, as the judge, upon motion for indemnification or reimbursement, duly made in such action in his discretion finds to be reasonable, but only if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) He is successful in whole or in part in the action against him or in any settlement thereof; and

(2) The court finds that his conduct fairly and equitably merits such relief.

(b) When such action is brought in another state and the result thereof is such as would have entitled the defendant officer or director to make a motion in the cause for indemnification or reimbursement of his expenses of defense under subsection (a) of this Section if the action had been brought in this State, but no such relief is available in the state in which the action is actually brought, the defendant officer or director may bring a separate action against the corporation in this State for such indemnification or reimbursement as he might have recovered had the suit against him been brought in this State. Notice of said action for indemnification or reimbursement shall be sent, in such form as the court may approve and at the corporation's expense, to the party or parties plaintiff in the prior action who shall be entitled to be heard.

(c) Whenever indemnification or reimbursement as permitted in this Section is sought, the court may in its discretion order notice of the claim thereof to be sent to the shareholders in such manner and in such form as it may approve, at the expense of the corporation. All shareholders so notified may be heard in opposition to the relief requested.

Sec. 55-22. Loans and guaranties.—(a) A corporation shall not, directly or indirectly, make any loan of money or property to, or guarantee or otherwise secure the obligation of:

(1) Any directors or officers of the corporation; or

(2) Any corporation of which the officers and directors of the lending or securing corporation own more than fifty per cent (50%) of the outstanding securities of any class; or

(3) Any dominant shareholder or any other corporation of which said shareholder is a dominant shareholder, unless that corporation is a subsidiary of the lending or securing corporation; or

(4) Any person upon the security of the shares of any corporation mentioned in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection; except with the consent of all the shareholders, or with the consent of the holders of a majority of all the shares outstanding, regardless of limitation on voting rights, other than the shares held by the adversely interested party. A sale on credit in the ordinary course of business is not a loan within the meaning of this Section.

(b) The provisions of this Section do not apply to loans, guaranties, or other forms of security extended by banks, industrial banks, building and loan associations, land and loan associations, credit unions or insurance companies, or to loans permitted under any statute regulating any special class of corporations.

Sec. 55-23. Omitted.

Sec. 55-24. Board of directors.—(a) Subject to the provisions of the charter, the bylaws or agreement between the shareholders otherwise lawful, the business and affairs of a corporation shall be managed by a board of directors.

(b) No limitation upon the authority which the directors would have in the absence of such limitation, whether contained in the charter or the bylaws or otherwise, shall be effective against other persons without actual knowledge of such limitation.

(c) The directors need not be residents of this State or shareholders of the corporation unless the charter or the bylaws so require. The charter or the bylaws may prescribe other qualifications for directors.

Sec. 55-25. Number, election and term of directors.—(a) The number constituting the board of directors of a corporation shall be not less than three. The number shall be determined by the charter or bylaws, except that the number constituting the first board of directors shall be determined by the articles of incorporation. In the absence of a bylaw determining the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that stated in the charter.

(b) The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time only by amendment to the charter or to the bylaws adopted by the shareholders, but no such decrease shall be made when the number of shares voting against the proposal for decrease would be sufficient to elect a director if such shares could be voted cumulatively at an annual election. Whenever a class or a series of shares is entitled to elect one or more directors under authority granted by the charter, the provisions of this paragraph apply to the vote of that class or series for such election and not to the vote of the outstanding shares as a whole.

(c) The first board of directors shall consist of those named in the articles of incorporation. Thereafter directors shall be elected at the first meeting of the shareholders held for that purpose and at each subsequent annual meeting.

(d) Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

(e) If any shareholder so demands election of directors by the shareholders shall be by ballot, unless the charter or the bylaws otherwise provide.

Sec. 55-26. Classification of directors.—When the board of directors shall consist of nine or more members, in lieu of electing the whole number of directors annually, it may be provided in the charter or in the bylaws adopted by the shareholders that the directors be divided into either two or three classes, each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible, the term of office of directors of the first class to expire at the first annual meeting of shareholders after their election, that of the second class to expire at the second annual meeting after their election, and that of the third class, if any, to expire at the third annual meeting after their election. At each annual meeting after such classification the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the second succeeding annual meeting, if there be two classes, or until the third succeeding annual meeting, if there be three classes. No classification of directors shall, unless made in the charter, be effective prior to the first annual meeting of shareholders. Corporations having a lawfully classified board of directors when this Chapter goes into effect may continue their existing classification even though not conforming to this Section.

Sec. 55-27. Vacancies and removal of directors.—(a) A vacancy in the boards of directors exists:

(1) Upon the death or removal of any director, or upon his resignation, which may, if in writing, include terms making it effective at a future date or upon the occurrence of a future event, or

(2) If the authorized number of directors is increased, or

(3) If, at any annual, regular, or special meeting of shareholders at which any director is elected, the shareholders fail to elect the full authorized number of directors to be voted for at that meeting, or

(4) If a vacancy is declared as provided in subsection (b) of this Section.

(b) The board of directors may declare vacant the office of a director

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(1) Who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court, or finally convicted of felony, or adjudged a bankrupt.

(c) Unless the charter or the bylaws otherwise provide, vacancies may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors even though less than a quorum or by a sole remaining director. If a vacancy occurs with respect to a director who had been elected by the votes of a particular class of shares voting as a class, the vacancy shall be filled by the remaining directors or the remaining sole director elected by that class. A vacancy created by an increase in the authorized number of directors shall be filled only by election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose.

(d) The shareholders, or a class thereof if directors are elected by classes of shareholders, may elect a director at any time to fill any vacancy not filled by the directors. In the case of a resignation of a director tendered to take effect at a future time, the board of directors or the shareholders may, at any time after such tender, elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

(e) A reduction of the authorized number of directors does not of itself remove any director prior to the expiration of his term of office.

(f) Unless the charter or the bylaws otherwise provide, the entire board of directors or any individual director may be removed from office with or without cause by a vote of shareholders holding a majority of the outstanding shares, entitled to vote at an election of directors. However, unless the entire board is removed, an individual director shall not be removed when the number of shares voting against the proposal for removal would be sufficient to elect a director if such shares could be voted cumulatively at an annual election. If any or all directors are so removed, new directors may be elected at the same meeting. Whenever a class or series of shares is entitled to elect one or more directors under authority granted by the charter the provisions of this subsection apply to the vote of that class or series as to those directors and not to the vote of the outstanding shares as a whole.

(g) The Superior Court of the county where the registered office or the principal place of business in this State is located may, at the suit of shareholders holding at least five per cent (5%) of the number of outstanding shares with or without voting rights, remove from office any director in case of fraudulent or dishonest acts or gross abuse of authority or discretion in the discharge of his duties to the corporation, and may bar from re-election any director so removed for a period prescribed by the court. The corporation shall be made a party to such actions.

Sec. 55-28. Directors' meetings.—(a) Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this State.

(b) Unless the bylaws otherwise provide, special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president or by any two directors.

(c) Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held with or without notice, as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meetings of the board of directors shall be held upon such notice as is provided in the bylaws, or in the absence of any such provision, upon notice sent by any usual means of communication not less than five days before the meeting. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting unless required by the bylaws. Notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given if the time and place are fixed at the meeting adjourning and if the period of adjournment does not exceed ten days in any one adjournment.

(d) A majority of the number of directors fixed by the charter or bylaws, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the charter or the bylaws. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the charter or the bylaws.

Sec. 55-29. Informal or irregular action by directors or committees.—(a) Action taken by a majority of the directors or members of a committee without a meeting is nevertheless board or committee action if:

(1) Written consent to the action in question is signed by all the directors or members of the committee, as the case may be, and filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board or committee, whether done before or after the action so taken, or if

(2) All the shareholders know of the action in question and make no prompt objection thereto, or if

(3) The directors or committee members are accustomed to take informal action and this custom is known to all the shareholders and if all the directors or committee members, as the case may be, know of the action in question and no director or committee member makes prompt objection thereto.

(b) If a meeting of directors otherwise valid is held without proper call or notice, action taken at such meeting otherwise valid is deemed ratified by a director who did not attend unless promptly after having knowledge of the action taken and of the impropriety in question he files with the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation his written objection to the holding of the meeting or to any specific action so taken.

Sec. 55-30. Director's adverse interest.—(a) A corporation may, by action of its board of directors or otherwise, compensate its directors for their services as directors, salaried officers or otherwise.

(b) No corporate transaction in which a director has an adverse interest is either void or voidable, if:

(1) With knowledge on the part of the other directors of such adverse interest, the transaction is approved in good faith by a majority, not less than two, of the disinterested directors present even though less than a quorum, irrespective of the participation of the adversely interested director in the approval, or if

(2) After full disclosure of all the material facts to all the shareholders, the transaction is specifically approved by the vote of a majority or by the written consent of all of the voting shares other than those owned or controlled by the adversely interested directors, or if

(3) The adversely interested party proves that the transaction was just and reasonable to the corporation at the time when entered into or approved. In the case of compensation paid or voted for services of a director as director or as officer or as employee the standard of what is "just and reasonable" is what would be paid for such services at arm's length under competitive conditions.

Sec. 55-31. Executive Committee.—If the charter or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the number of directors fixed by the bylaws, or in the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, then of the number stated in the charter, may designate two or more directors to constitute an executive committee, which committee, to the extent provided in such resolution or in the charter or the bylaws of the corporation shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the board of directors in the management of the corporation; but the designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility or liability imposed upon it or him by law.

Sec. 55-32. Liability of directors in certain cases.—(a) The liabilities imposed by this Section are in addition to any other liabilities imposed by law upon directors of a corporation.

(b) Directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the declaration of any dividend or other distribution of the assets of a corporation to its shareholders contrary to the provisions of this Chapter or contrary to any lawful restrictions contained in the charter, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of such dividend which is paid or the value of such assets which are distributed in excess of the amount which could have been lawfully paid or distributed.

(c) Directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the purchase or redemption of its own shares contrary to the provisions of the Chapter shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of consideration paid for such shares which is in excess of the maximum amount which could have been lawfully paid.

(d) The liability of directors for violation of subsections (b) and (c) of this Section shall not exceed the debts, obligations and liabilities existing at the time of the violation which are not thereafter paid and discharged, plus any loss sustained from the violation by holders of shares outstanding at the time of the violation other than the shares receiving the payment in question.

(e) The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to any distribution of assets of a corporation to its shareholders during the liquidation of the corporation without the payment and discharge of, or making adequate provision for, all known or reasonably ascertainable debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the value of such assets which are distributed, to the extent that such debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation are not thereafter paid and discharged.

(f) The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the making of any loan or guaranty or other form of security in violation of G. S. 55-22 shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the repayment or return of the money or value loaned, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent (6%) a year until paid, or for any liability of the corporation upon the guaranty.

(g) If a corporation shall commence business before it has received the minimum amount of consideration for the issuance of shares, as stated in the articles of incorporation, the directors who assent thereto shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for such part of said minimum as shall not have been received before commencing business, but such liability shall be terminated when the corporation has actually received the said minimum consideration.

(h) A director of a corporation who is present at a meeting of its board of directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his contrary vote is recorded or his dissent is otherwise entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action. If action taken by an executive committee is not thereafter formally considered by the board, a director may dissent from such action by filing his written objection with the secretary of the corporation with reasonable promptness after learning of such action.

(i) A director shall not be liable under Sections (b), (c) or (e) of this Section if he relied and acted in good faith and reasonably upon financial statements of the corporation represented to him to be correct and to be based upon generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice by the president or the officer of such corporation having charge of its books of account, or certified by an independent public accountant or by a certified public accountant or firm of such accountants to fairly reflect the financial condition of such corporation.

(j) Any director who is held liable upon and pays a claim asserted against him under or pursuant to this Section for the payment of a dividend or other distribution of assets of a corporation shall be entitled to reimbursement or exoneration from the shareholders who accepted or received any such dividend or assets, knowing such dividend or distribution to have been made in violation of this Section, in proportion to the amounts received.

(k) Any director against whom a claim shall be asserted under or pursuant to this Section shall be entitled to contribution from the other directors who voted for or assented to the action upon which the claim is asserted and in any action against him shall, on motion, be entitled to have such directors made parties defendant.

(l) Except where the properties of a corporation are being administered in liquidation, or under court supervision for the benefit of creditors, or in the event that the official administering such properties refuses to bring an action for violation of this Section, any creditor damaged by a violation of this Section may in one action obtain judgment against the corporation and enforce the liability of one or more of the directors to the corporation imposed by this Section to the extent necessary to satisfy his claim, or he may in a separate action obtain such judgment and then enforce such liability.

(m) No action shall be brought against the directors for liability under this Section after three years from the time when the cause of action was discovered or ought to have been discovered.

Sec. 55-33. Jurisdiction over and service on nonresident director.—(a) Every nonresident of this State who shall become a director of a domestic corporation shall by becoming such director be subjected to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State in all actions or proceedings brought therein by, or on behalf of, or against said corporation in which said director is a necessary or proper party, or in any action or proceeding by shareholders or creditors against said director for violation of his duty as director. Every nonresident who is a director of a domestic corporation when this Act becomes effective shall be likewise so subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State unless he shall within sixty days of the effective date of this Act resign his office and file in the office of the Secretary of State a notice of such resignation.

(b) Every nonresident by serving as a director of a domestic corporation at any time after sixty days from the effective date of this Chapter shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State in any action or proceeding for violation of his duty while in office.

(c) Every resident of this State who shall become a director of a domestic corporation and thereafter removes his residence from this State shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State in all actions or proceedings brought therein by, or on behalf of, or against said corporation in which said director is a necessary or proper party, or in any action or proceeding by shareholders or creditors against said director for violation of his duty as a director.

(d) In all actions or proceedings wherein a director or former director is made a party, and cannot with due diligence be found within the State, service of process, notice or demand on said director or former director shall be made by mailing or otherwise delivering duplicate copies thereof to the Secretary of State, who shall be deemed to have been constituted the process agent of such director or former director by the act of such director in becoming a director or continuing as director for the period provided in subsection (a) of this Section. When such copies are to be delivered to the Secretary of State the procedure to be followed shall be, as against such director or former director, substantially the same as that set forth in G. S. 55-146 relating to service on foreign corporations by serving the Secretary of State, and service made pursuant to such procedure shall have the same legal force and validity as if the service had been made personally in this State.

Sec. 55-34. Officers.—(a) The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents as may be prescribed by the bylaws, a secretary, and a treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the board of directors at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Such other officers and assistant officers and agents as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the board of directors or chosen in such other manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary.

(b) All officers and agents of the corporation, as between themselves and the corporation, shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the corporation as may be provided either specifically or generally in the bylaws, or as may be determined by action of the board of directors not inconsistent with the bylaws.

(c) The president has authority to institute or defend legal proceedings when the directors are deadlocked.

(d) Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed.

Sec. 55-35. Duty of directors and officers to corporation.—Officers and directors shall be deemed to stand in a fiduciary relation to the corporation and to its shareholders and shall discharge the duties of their respective positions in good faith, and with that diligence and care which ordinarily prudent men would exercise under similar circumstances in like positions.

Sec. 55-36. Execution of corporate instruments; authority and proof. —(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the bylaws or charter, any deed, mortgage, contract, note, evidence of indebtedness, proxy, or other instrument in writing, or any assignment or indorsement thereof, whether heretofore or hereafter executed, when signed in the ordinary course of business on behalf of a corporation by its president or a vice president and attested or counter-signed by its secretary or an assistant secretary, (or, in the case of a bank, attested or countersigned by its secretary, assistant secretary, cashier, or assistant cashier), not acting in dual capacity, shall with respect to the rights of innocent third parties, be as valid as if executed pursuant to authorization from the board of directors, unless the instrument reveals on its face a potential breach of fiduciary obligation. The foregoing shall not apply to parties who had actual knowledge of lack of authority or of a breach of fiduciary obligation or to the execution of corporate securities which are required, by corporate regulations or resolutions formally adopted, to be signed or countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar who has agreed to act in that capacity.

(b) Any instrument purporting to create a security interest in personal property of a corporation, is sufficiently executed on behalf of the corporation if heretofore or hereafter signed in his official capacity by the president, a vice president, the secretary, an assistant secretary, the treasurer, or an assistant treasurer. Any instrument so executed shall, with respect to the rights of innocent holders, be as valid as if authorized by the board of directors and upon acknowledgment may be ordered to registration as provided by law.

(c) Deeds, mortgages, contracts, notes, evidences of indebtedness and other instruments purporting to be executed, heretofore or hereafter, by a corporation, foreign or domestic, and bearing a seal which purports to be the corporate seal, setting forth the name of the corporation engraved, lithographed, printed, stamped, impressed upon, or otherwise affixed to the instrument, are prima facie evidence that the seal is the duly adopted corporate seal of the corporation, that it has been affixed as such by a person duly authorized so to do, that such instrument was duly executed and signed by persons who were officers or agents of the corporation acting by authority duly given by the board of directors, that any such instrument is the act of the corporation, and shall be admissible in evidence without further proof of execution.

(d) The provisions of the foregoing subsections of this Section shall apply to all instruments therein mentioned executed on behalf of foreign corporations when their authorization, admissibility in evidence or legal effect is challenged in any action or other proceeding in this State.

(e) Nothing in this Section shall be deemed to exclude the power of any corporate representatives to bind the corporation pursuant to express, implied or apparent authority, ratification, estoppel or otherwise.

(f) Nothing in this Section shall relieve corporate officers from liability to the corporation or from any other liability that they may have incurred from any violation of their actual authority.

(g) The Home Owners Loan Corporation or any corporation, the majority of whose stock is owned by the United States Government, may convey lands or other property which is transferable by deed which is duly executed by either an officer, manager, or agent of said corporation, sealed with the common seal and has attached thereto a signed and attested resolution, under seal, of the board of directors of said corporation authorizing the said officer, manager or agent to execute, sign, seal, and attest deeds, conveyances or other instruments. This Section shall be deemed to have been complied with if an attested resolution is recorded separately in the office of the register of deeds in the county where the land lies, which said resolution shall be applicable to all deeds executed subsequently thereto and pursuant to its authority. All deeds, conveyances or other instruments which have been heretofore or shall be hereafter so executed shall, if otherwise sufficient, be valid and shall have the effect to pass the title to the real or personal property described therein.

Sec. 55-37. Books and records.—(a) Each corporation shall:

(1) Keep correct and complete books and records of account, and

(2) Keep minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, its board of directors, and executive committee, if any,

(3) Keep in this State at its registered office or principal place of business or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar a record of its shareholders, giving the names and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of the shares held by each, and

(4) Cause a true statement of its assets and liabilities as of the close of each fiscal year and of the results of its operations and of changes in surplus for such fiscal year, all in reasonable detail, including the statement required by G. S. 55-44(b) when applicable, to be made and filed at its registered office or principal place of business in this State, within four months after the end of such fiscal year, and thereat kept available for a period of at least ten years for inspection on request by any shareholder of record, and shall mail or otherwise deliver a copy of the latest such statement to any shareholder upon his written request therefor.

(b) Any shareholder may apply for a writ of mandamus to compel a corporation and its officers and directors to comply with this Section.

Sec. 55-38. Examination and production of books, records and information.—(a) For the purpose of this Section, a qualified shareholder is a person, natural or corporate, who shall have been a shareholder of record in a corporation, domestic or foreign, for at least six months immediately preceding his demand or who shall be the holder of record of at least five per cent (5%) of its outstanding shares of any class, and the term shareholder includes a holder of a voting trust certificate to the extent of the shares represented by said certificate.

(b) A qualified shareholder, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, shall have the right, in person, or by attorney, accountant or other agent, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose, to examine at the place where they are kept and make extracts from, the books and records of account, minutes and record of shareholders of a domestic corporation or those of a foreign corporation actually or customarily kept by it within this State. A qualified shareholder in a parent corporation shall have the aforesaid rights with respect to the books, records and minutes of a domestic subsidiary corporation or those of a foreign subsidiary corporation actually or customarily kept by it within this State. A shareholder's rights under this subsection may be enforced by an action in the nature of mandamus.

(c) Two or more shareholders whose aggregate holdings equal the percentage of holdings required of a qualified shareholder may join in exercising their rights.

(d) Any officer or agent or corporation refusing to mail a statement as required by G. S. 55-37 or refusing to allow a qualified shareholder to examine and make extracts from the aforesaid books and records of account, minutes and record of shareholders, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to such shareholder in a penalty of ten per cent (10%) of the value of the shares owned by such shareholder, but not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00), in addition to any other damages or remedy afforded him by law, but the court may decrease the amount of such penalty on a finding of mitigating circumstances. It shall be a defense to any action for penalties under this Section that the person suing therefor has at any time sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders of such corporation or any other corporation or has aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders for any such purpose, or has improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of the books and records of account, or minutes, or record of shareholders of such corporation or any other corporation.

(e) Any person, firm, or corporation who sells, offers for sale, or procures for the purpose of sale any list of shareholders of a corporation, or who uses information obtained pursuant to the provisions of G. S. 55-38 for any purposes other than those incident to ownership of the shares as to which such information was obtained, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, upon proof of proper purpose by a shareholder of a domestic or foreign corporation, irrespective of the period of time during which such shareholder shall have been a shareholder of record and irrespective of the number of shares held by him:

(1) The Superior Court of the county wherein a domestic corporation has its registered office or its principal office may compel the production, for examination by such a shareholder, of the books, documents and records of the corporation, whether or not the same are usually kept within or without the State, and

(2) The Superior Court of the county wherein a foreign corporation keeps any books, documents and records may compel the production, for examination by such a shareholder, of those books, documents and records that are customarily kept in this State by that corporation, even though they may not be within the State at that time.

(g) In any action or proceeding to which a domestic or foreign corporation is party, any court of record in this State may, upon notice fixed by the court, and after hearing and proper cause shown, and upon such terms as prescribed by the court, order any or all of the pertinent books, documents and records of such corporation, or transcripts from or duly authenticated copies thereof, to be brought within this State, and kept therein at such place and for such time and for such purposes as may be designated in such order.

(h) Any corporation refusing to comply with any final order made by a court pursuant to subsections (f) and (g) of this Section shall, if a domestic corporation, be subject to involuntary dissolution under G. S. 55-122 and, if a foreign corporation, shall be subject to revocation of its certificate of authority; and the offending directors and officers of such domestic or foreign corporation shall be subject to be punished for contempt of court for disobedience of such order.

Sec. 55-39. Omitted.

ARTICLE 5. Corporate Finance.

Sec. 55-40. Authorized shares and restrictions thereon.—(a) A corporation shall have power to create and issue the number of shares fixed in its charter. Such shares may be divided into one or more classes, any or all of which may consist of shares with or without par value, with such designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter, as shall be fixed in the charter or, as permitted by G. S. 55-42, in resolutions adopted by the shareholders or directors. The charter or said resolutions may limit or deny the voting rights of the shares of any class to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter.

Without limiting the foregoing authority, a corporation may, in accordance with its charter or the aforesaid resolutions, issue shares of preferred or special classes:

(1) Subject to the right of the corporation to redeem at its option any such shares at the price fixed for the redemption thereof.

(2) Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, non-cumulative or partially cumulative dividends.

(3) Having preference over any other class or classes of shares as to the payment of dividends.

(4) Having preference in the assets of the corporation over any other class or classes of shares upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation of the corporation.

(5) Convertible into shares of any class or into shares of any series of the same or any other class, except into a class of shares or into other securities having prior or superior rights and preferences as to dividends, income or distribution of assets upon liquidation. The provisions setting forth the rights of conversion may include any statement, not repugnant to law, for the protection of such rights against dilution or otherwise.

(b) Unless the provisions of the charter or of resolutions fixing the characteristics of shares, whether heretofore or hereafter issued, clearly indicate otherwise:

(1) If preferred shares cumulative as to dividends are entitled to preferential payments on liquidation or dissolution, the amount of accrued dividends, as defined in this Chapter, shall be included in the amount of said preferential payment.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(2) Shares entitled to preferences in payments of dividends or on liquidation or dissolution are not entitled to participate in said payments beyond the amount of their stated preferences.

(c) For the purpose of this and the following subsection, shares entitled to preferential dividends which are not fully cumulative are hereby designated as non-cumulative preferred shares, and shares subordinate thereto as to dividends are hereby designated as junior shares.

Notwithstanding any provision in the charter or in any resolution to the contrary, non-cumulative preferred shares of a class which has not been issued either wholly or in part until after this Chapter becomes effective shall be entitled to a dividend credit, as defined in this Chapter, and until such dividend credit is fully discharged no dividend shall be paid to any junior shares.

(d) Unless the provisions of the charter or of resolutions fixing the rights of shares clearly indicate otherwise:

(1) Provisions relative to non-cumulative preferred shares already outstanding when this Chapter becomes effective shall be interpreted as having the legal effect set forth in subsection (c) of this Section.

(2) If non-cumulative shares, whether issued before or after the enactment of this Chapter, are entitled to preferential payments on liquidation or dissolution, the amount of any then existing dividend credit shall be added to the said preferential payment.

(e) Except in cases falling within G. S. 55-52 (b) (5), no shares shall be hereafter authorized which purport to be redeemable at the election of the holder or which at the election of the holder purport to change his status to that of a creditor either at a designated time or upon a designated contingency. Nothing herein shall invalidate mandatory sinking fund requirements for the application of net earnings to the redemption of shares. This subsection shall not apply to building and loan associations or to land and loan associations.

Sec. 55-41. Issuance of shares of preferred or special classes in series. —If so provided in the charter or in resolutions that are in accordance with G. S. 55-42, the shares of any preferred or special class may be divided into and issued in series. If the shares of any such class are to be issued in series, then each series shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series and classes. Any or all of the series of any such class and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series may be fixed and determined by the charter or by resolutions that are in accordance with G. S. 55-42, but all shares of the same class shall be identical except as to the following relative rights and preferences, as to which there may be variations between different series within a class:

(1) The rate of dividend.

(2) The price at and the terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(3) The amount payable upon shares in event of involuntary liquidation.

(4) The amount payable upon shares in event of voluntary liquidation.

(5) Sinking fund provisions for the redemption or purchase of shares.

(6) The terms and conditions on which shares may be converted, if the shares of any series are issued with the privilege of conversion.

Sec. 55-42. Determination by shareholders and directors of classification of shares.—(a) If the charter states that the shares are to be divided into classes but does not itself fix and does not expressly authorize the directors to fix the preferences, limitations and relative rights of the shares of each class, the same may, to the extent not fixed by the charter, be fixed by a resolution adopted at a shareholders' meeting by the vote of a majority of the shares of each class outstanding, whether or not such shares are otherwise entitled to vote. Such classes of shares may also by such resolution be divided into series within a class of preferred or special shares. Whenever a class is divided into series and the charter does not fix between the series the variations permitted by this Chapter and does not expressly authorize the directors to fix the same, the same may also be fixed by such resolution.

(b) If the charter or a resolution adopted at a shareholders' meeting by the vote prescribed by subsection (a) of this Section expressly vests authority in the board of directors so to do, then, to the extent that the charter or shareholders' resolution does not fix the preferences, limitations or relative rights of any classes into which the shares are therein stated to be divided or to the extent that the charter or shareholders' resolution have not established series or have not fixed between series the variations permitted by this Chapter, the board of directors shall have the authority to fix the same by resolution adopted by the board.

(c) No provisions fixed by the shareholders or directors under this Section purporting to confer upon any class of shares a priority with respect to dividends or distributions upon liquidation or dissolution over any then outstanding class of shares itself entitled to similar priority over other shares shall be valid.

(d) Nothing herein shall authorize resort to this Section to effectuate any change in the preferences, limitations and relative rights, though fixed as permitted in this Section, of any shares after their issuance.

(e) Prior to the issuance of any shares of a class or series of which the preferences, limitations or relative rights have been fixed by the shareholders or directors as permitted in this Section, a statement of those preferences, limitations and relative rights, entitled Statement of Classification of Shares of (name of corporation), shall be executed by the corporation and filed in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4, setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The resolution or resolutions of the shareholders or board of directors relating to the fixing of the preferences, limitations and relative rights of the classes, or to the fixing of variations between series within a class.

(3) As to any shareholders' resolution, a statement showing the number of shares of each class outstanding, the number of such shares present or represented at the meeting which adopted the resolution and the number of shares of each class voted for and against the resolution.

(4) The date of the adoption of the foregoing resolution or resolutions.

Sec. 55-43. Subscriptions for shares.—(a) A pre-incorporation subscription is a promise or contract to take shares in a corporation to be organized and to pay the agreed price thereof to the corporation or to others for its benefit. A post-incorporation subscription is a contract made with an existing corporation to purchase its shares, whether on original issue or as treasury shares, regardless of whether the status of the purchaser as shareholder is created at the time of making the contract or later.

(b) No pre-incorporation or post-incorporation subscription is valid unless in writing, signed and delivered by the subscriber.

(c) A valid pre-incorporation subscription shall be irrevocable for six months, unless the terms of the subscription otherwise provide, or unless all of the subscribers consent to its revocation. At any time while a pre-incorporation subscription is irrevocable or remains unrevoked, it may be accepted by the corporation and, if otherwise conforming to law, shall thereupon become enforceable.

(d) The increase of stated capital effected by a subscription is determined by G. S. 55-47.

(e) No pre-incorporation or post-incorporation subscription for shares shall contain provisions or be obtained upon oral or written representations that the payment of the shares subscribed is to be made out of subsequent earnings of the corporation or, except in a subscription by an employee, that the corporation (other than an investment company in cases within G. S. 55-52 (b) (5) or a building and loan association) will subsequently re-purchase the shares, or that the subscribed shares are entitled to any advantage or preference over other shares of the same class or series. Any such provision or representation, or any oral condition purporting to qualify a written subscription, shall not be a defense against enforcement of the subscription or be grounds for rescission or for any other remedy against the corporation by the subscriber, but any promoter or agent of the corporation making or participating in making any such representation shall be liable to any subscriber for any loss resulting from reliance thereon, and any officer or director of a corporation who accepts a subscription which contains such provisions or which he knows was induced by such representations shall be similarly liable.

(f) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, it shall be no defense to the enforcement of a pre-incorporation subscription that no notice was given to the subscriber of his right to participate in selecting the first board of directors named in the charter, in adopting the first by-laws or in otherwise perfecting the organization.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in the subscription agreement, all subscriptions for shares shall be paid at such time, or in such installments and at such times, as shall be determined by the board of directors. Any call made by the board of directors, pursuant to such determination, for payment on subscriptions shall be uniform as to all shares of the same class or as to all shares of the same series, as the case may be.

(h) Regardless of whether the status of the purchaser as holder of the number of shares called for by the subscription has been created upon making the contract of subscription, either party thereto is entitled, upon default by the other and upon tender of his own performance or circumstances excusing such tender, to receive payment of the subscription price or delivery of the share certificate, as the case may be; and the election of the aggrieved party to assert such right shall, despite any alternative remedy by way of damages, entitle the parties to the same remedies as if the purchaser were the holder of said shares.

(i) In case of default in the payment of any balance, installment or call when such payment is due, the corporation may:

(1) Bring action to collect any sum so due, without prejudice to any subsequent action to collect subsequent installments or calls. Until full payment is made the corporation shall have a lien on the subscribed shares, notwithstanding any judgment against the subscriber for the unpaid balance, and until sale of the shares pursuant to the judgment the lien is not lost by any preliminary or final execution upon said shares.

(2) Bring action against the subscriber for damages for breach of the contract of subscription. If this remedy is pursued, title to any shares which may have passed to the subscriber under the subscription agreement reverts to the corporation upon entry of the judgment in favor of the corporation.

(3) Rescind the subscription and keep as liquidated damages all prior payments up to ten per cent (10%) of the subscription price and in such event the corporation shall remit to the subscriber forthwith any excess of such prior payments beyond said ten per cent (10%).

(j) A subscription, whether unpaid or partly or fully paid, may be rescinded by the subscriber on the ground of fraud unless it is shown that any creditor or investor became such in actual reliance upon such subscription and would be prejudiced thereby, but this subsection shall not apply to representations of the kind designated in subsection (e) of this Section.

(k) The board of directors shall have authority, unless otherwise restricted by the charter or bylaws, to determine in good faith whether and upon what terms the obligation of any subcriber shall be released, settled or compromised. The release of a subscription which has been accepted by the corporation is the equivalent of a purchase by the corporation of the shares in question and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities set forth in G. S. 55-32, G. S. 55-52 and G. S. 55-54 relating to such a purchase.

(1) No provision in any subscription shall, as against creditors, entitle the subscriber to the status of creditor with respect to any amount theretofore or thereafter paid under the terms of the subscription.

Sec. 55-44. Conversion rights and option.—(a) Subject to any limitations or restrictions contained in this Chapter or in the charter, a corporation may, by action of its board of directors:

(1) In connection with the issuance of its bonds, debentures, notes or other obligations, grant to the holders thereof the right to convert them into shares, and

(2) Either in connection with the issuance of shares or other securities or independently thereof, grant options to purchase any of its shares.

(b) Every corporation shall include in its statement of assets and liabilities required by G. S. 55-37 a statement of the then current conversion ratio of any outstanding securities and a statement of the number of shares covered by any outstanding options and the price at which the options are exercisable.

(c) The instrument evidencing the security entitled to said conversion rights shall set forth, in full or by summary, the provisions and conditions of such rights, or shall be a share certificate complying with provisions of G. S. 55-57.

(d) A corporation may issue stock purchase warrants, subscription warrants, or other evidences of option rights, setting forth the terms, provisions and conditions thereof.

(e) Option rights may be transferable or nontransferable or separable or inseparable from the shares, obligations or other securities of the corporation.

(f) At the time of granting conversion or option rights the corporation shall reserve and continue to reserve sufficient authorized shares to meet the exercise thereof but the failure of the corporation to do so shall not impair the right to claim damages from the corporation.

(g) The granting of rights to convert into or to exercise rights to acquire shares which are subject to pre-emptive rights must be authorized by such action of the shareholders as would be required to release pre-emptive rights under the provisions of this Chapter, and such authorization shall operate as such release.

(h) Obligations or shares shall not be converted into shares having a greater aggregate par value than the face amount of the obligation so converted or than the par value of the shares so converted or than the stated capital represented by any no-par shares so converted, unless provision is made for the difference by a transfer from surplus to stated capital.

Sec. 55-45. Sale of shares and options to employees.—(a) Unless otherwise provided in the charter, a corporation may provide for and carry out a plan for the sale of its unissued or treasury shares to its employees or to the employees of its subsidiary corporations or to a trustee on their behalf. Such plan shall be adopted at a special or annual meeting by vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, but no option for such shares shall be granted and no contract of sale nor any sale of shares, except such sale as occurs in performance or exercise of a valid contract or option, shall be valid if made pursuant to such plan later than two years after its adoption by the shareholders. Such plan may include provisions, among others, for: the kind and amount of consideration, payment in installments or at one time; aiding any such employees in paying for such shares by compensation for services, by loans, or otherwise; granting of options, which shall be non-transferable except by operation of law; the fixing of eligibility for participation in the plan; the class and price of shares to be sold under the plan; the number of shares which may be purchased, the method of payment therefor, the reservation of title until full payment; the effect of termination of employment; an option or obligation on the part of the corporation to repurchase the shares; and the time limits and termination of the plan. The term "employees" as used in this Section includes officers in the full-time employment of the corporation, but nothing in this Section is intended to permit financial aid to such officers in violation of G. S. 55-22.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in the charter, an option to purchase shares otherwise than under a plan as provided in subsection (a) of this Section may be granted by action of the board of directors to a person for the purpose of securing or retaining his services as employee, if the option is exercisable at a price not less than one hundred fifty per cent (150%) of the market price of the shares at the time the option is granted, or without limitation as to price if the action of the board is authorized by a special resolution adopted by vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, excluding any shares held by said employee.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of other subsections of this Section, no corporation shall issue shares that are unlimited as to dividends, or, except in accordance with subsection (b) of this Section, grant options for such shares, to any class of persons, whether such class be designated as employees or as managerial personnel, or by any other similar terms or combinations thereof, or otherwise, when it is planned that ten per cent (10%) or more of the shares then being issued or optioned are to go, directly or indirectly, to directors or to dominant shareholders, unless:

(1) The shares are issued or the options are granted with the consent of the holders of two-thirds of the shares that are unlimited as to dividends, excluding the shares owned by said directors or dominant shareholders, or

(2) The shares are issued after making a pre-emptive offer thereof to the holders of the shares of that class.

(d) In any actions by, against, or in behalf of a corporation to challenge the validity of any stock option granted to any employee, the situs of the option is deemed to be at the registered office of the corporation, and such action may be brought as an action quasi in rem with service of process by publication or outside the State as provided by law. Such action may also be brought as an action in personam. If two or more grantees of stock options are necessary or proper parties, they may be joined in accordance with the provisions of law applicable to class actions.

Sec. 55-46. Consideration for shares.—(a) Shares of a corporation, including treasury shares, shall not be issued or disposed of by it for any kind of consideration except:

(1) Money or property, tangible or intangible, actually received by the corporation, or

(2) Labor or services actually rendered to the corporation or for its benefit in its organization or reorganization, or

(3) Shares, securities or other obligations of the corporation actually surrendered, cancelled or reduced, or

(4) In satisfaction of accrued dividends or dividend credits that have arisen with respect to preferred shares, or

(5) Amounts transferred from surplus to stated capital.

(b) Neither promissory notes nor other obligations of a subscriber or purchaser, including any indorsement or guaranty of an obligation of the corporation, nor any agreement to perform future services, shall constitute payment or part payment to a corporation for its shares.

(c) Subject to the further restrictions set forth in this Section and to the provisions of G. S. 55-53:

(1) Shares having par value, other than treasury shares, shall not be issued for a consideration less than their par value, except that they may be issued as fully paid at such discount from their par value as does not exceed reasonable expense and compensation incurred in the sale or underwriting of such shares.

(2) Shares without par value and treasury shares may be issued or disposed of for such consideration, expressed in dollars, as the board of directors may determine.

(d) That part of the surplus of a corporation which is transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares as a share dividend shall be deemed to be protanto consideration for the issuance of such shares.

(e) In the event of a conversion or exchange of shares with or without par value into or for the same or into or for a different number of shares with or without par value, whether of the same or a different class or classes, the consideration for the shares so issued in exchange or conversion shall be deemed to be:

(1) The stated capital then represented by the shares so exchanged or converted irrespective of the actual value of such shares, and

(2) That part of surplus, if any, transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares for the shares so exchanged or converted, and

(3) Any additional consideration paid to the corporation upon the issuance of shares for the shares so exchanged or converted.

(f) When shares are issued or disposed of by a corporation, in transactions other than those mentioned in G. S. 55-46(e) for any consideration other than money or satisfaction of dividend accruals or dividend credits, the board of directors shall state by resolution their determination of the fair value to the corporation of such consideration unless the amount of the consideration is determined by the provisions of this Section. In the absence of fraud or bad faith, the judgment of the directors as to the value of the consideration received for shares shall be conclusive. When the consideration for the issuance of shares is the satisfaction of any liquidated indebtedness of the corporation or of any accrued dividends or dividend credits that have arisen with respect to preferred shares, the fair value of the consideration so received may be determined to be the face amount of the indebtedness or of the accrued dividends or dividend credits so satisfied, and no inference of fraud or bad faith arises from such determination.

(g) Shares issued or disposed of for the kind and amount of consideration prescribed by this Section shall be deemed fully paid and nonassessable.

Sec. 55-47. Determination of stated capital.—(a) As used in this Section with respect to shares, the term "issued" refers to all shares that have been subscribed and whose subscribers have the status of shareholders, even though the shares have not been paid in full, and even though no certificate therefor has been issued, but does not include the reissue of treasury shares.

(b) A corporation shall have a stated capital, which except as reduced in accordance with this Chapter, shall be an amount in dollars equal to the sum of:

(1) The aggregate par value of all shares having par value which have been issued from time to time, and

(2) The entire amount of the agreed consideration received or to be received by the corporation for all shares without par value which have been issued from time to time, except such portion thereof as the board of directors prior to or at the time of issuance of such shares designates as paid-in surplus, and

(3) Such amounts, not included in paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection as are transferred from surplus to stated capital upon declaration of a share dividend, and

(4) Such amounts as are transferred from surplus to stated capital represented by shares without par value by resolution of the board of directors without declaration of a share dividend.

(c) If par value shares are issued for a consideration in excess of their par value, the excess shall be credited to paid-in surplus; if issued at a discount as permitted by G. S. 55-46(c) the amount of the discount may be entered on the books as a debit and be separately shown in financial statements, in accordance with generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice or good business practice.

(d) Whenever the status of shareholder is created by the acceptance of a pre-incorporation subscription or the making of a post-incorporation subscription contract, the corporation shall thereupon credit to its stated capital account such sum as would be so credited upon full payment for the shares in question, and any unpaid balance shall be debited to a separate account designated as balance on unpaid shares or otherwise appropriately designated.

(e) The stated capital of a corporation may be increased from time to time, upon declaration of a share dividend or by resolution of the board of directors directing that all or a part of the surplus be transferred to stated capital. The board of directors may direct that the amount of surplus transferred without declaration of a share dividend shall be allocated as stated capital in respect of any designated class of shares without par value.

(f) When any number of its shares with or without par value are changed, exchanged, converted, subdivided or consolidated for or into any number of shares, with or without par value, any shares thereby surrendered to the corporation shall be deemed to be canceled even if no formal steps to that effect are taken, and, subject to any adjustment to be made if additional consideration is to be paid:

(1) If the stated capital represented by the shares so canceled is the same as that of the shares issued therefor, the aggregate stated capital of the corporation is not changed;

(2) If the stated capital represented by the canceled shares is greater than that represented by the shares issued therefor, no reduction of stated capital is legally effective unless proceedings are taken in accordance with this Chapter to reduce the stated capital;

(3) If the stated capital represented by the shares so canceled is less than that represented by the shares issued therefor, the stated capital of the corporation shall be deemed increased accordingly and adjustment of accounts appropriate thereto shall be made.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section, if shares are issued in cancellation or satisfaction of dividend accruals or of dividend credits that have arisen with respect to preferred shares, the board of directors shall determine the amount of stated capital to be represented by the shares so issued, which amount shall be not less than the par value, if any, of the shares so issued, and either:

(1) The stated capital of the corporation may remain the same by debiting against the stated capital represented by any then outstanding shares without par value an amount equal to the stated capital represented by the shares so issued, and no proceedings for the reduction of stated capital are thereby required, or

(2) The stated capital of the corporation may be increased by a transfer from any surplus to stated capital of an amount equal to the stated capital represented by the shares being so issued, and if there is no surplus the aforesaid amount may be transferred to stated capital even though a deficit is thereby created or increased, or

(3) The stated capital of the corporation may be reduced, in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-48, so as to create a surplus from which an amount can be transferred to stated capital with respect to the shares so issued.

Sec. 55-48. Reduction of stated capital.—(a) Whenever, as a result of an amendment of the charter reducing the par value of outstanding shares or of a merger effected in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, the stated capital of the corporation is reduced, no further proceedings are necessary to consummate a reduction of stated capital.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subsection (d) of this Section, the stated capital of a corporation may be reduced by a resolution of the shareholders determining that the stated capital represented by the shares without par value, or any class of such shares, be reduced as stated in the said resolution. The said resolution shall be adopted by the shareholders by such vote and at such meeting and pursuant to such notice thereof, as would be required under G. S. 55-100 for an amendment of the charter if the shares being so reduced were shares having par value.

(c) Subject to the provisions of subsection (d) of this Section, the stated capital of a corporation may be reduced, pursuant to action taken by the board of directors to that effect, without assent of the shareholders:

(1) By the cancellation of any shares purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired by the corporation except shares acquired through exchange of shares or conversion of convertible shares, and thereby the stated capital of the corporation shall be reduced by the amount of stated capital represented by the shares so cancelled; or

(2) By the exchange of shares or conversion of convertible shares for or into shares representing an amount of stated capital less than that represented by the shares surrendered upon such exchange or conversion, in which event the stated capital of the corporation shall be deemed reduced by the difference; or

(3) By the release of shares subject to the limitations of G. S. 55-43(k), other than treasury shares, from subscription, in which event the stated capital of the corporation shall be deemed reduced by the amount of stated capital represented by the released shares.

(d) To effectuate a reduction of stated capital pursuant to subsections (b) and (c) of this Section there shall be executed and filed, in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4, a Certificate of Reduction of Capital, which shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) A statement that the purpose of the certificate is to consummate a reduction of stated capital and a statement of the manner in which such reduction is being effected.

(3) The number of issued shares, itemized by classes and series, if any, and the amount of stated capital represented thereby, before the reduction.

(4) The number of issued shares, itemized by classes and series, if any, and the amount of stated capital represented thereby, after the reduction.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(5) The total amount by which the stated capital is being reduced by virtue of this certificate.

(6) Either a statement that no action by the shareholders is necessary to effect the foregoing reduction or a statement showing the number of shares outstanding, the number of shares entitled to vote on the reduction, and the number of shares voted for and against the reduction.

(e) If it is desired to take concurrent action to amend the charter and also to effect the reduction of stated capital, whether effected through such an amendment as indicated in subsection (a) of this Section or effected otherwise as indicated in subsections (b) and (c) of this Section, the statement to be executed by the corporation and filed, in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4, may be designated as Articles of Amendment and Certificate of Reduction of Stated Capital.

(f) Distributions made to shareholders after a reduction of stated capital and made as authorized in this Chapter give rise to no cause of action in favor of creditors, regardless of whether their claims arose before or after the reduction.

Sec. 55-49. Surplus, net profits and valuation of assets.—(a) Surplus is the excess of a corporation's net assets, as defined in this Chapter, over its stated capital. Such surplus consists of earned surplus or capital surplus or both, and shall be so classified on the books.

(b) Except where provisions of this Chapter specifically require a different standard or impose additional limitations, the assets of a corporation may, for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of dividends or of distributions or withdrawals of corporate assets to or for the shareholders, be carried on the books in accordance with generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice applicable to the kind of business conducted by the corporation.

(c) For the purpose of determining the lawfulness of dividends or of the purchase or redemption of shares, treasury shares shall not be counted as assets.

(d) Earned surplus is the portion of the surplus of a corporation equal to the balance of its net profits, income, gains and losses, including gains and losses realized from the disposition or destruction of fixed assets (but not including unrealized appreciation in the value of any assets), from the date of incorporation or from the latest date when a deficit was eliminated by an application of its capital surplus as permitted by subsection (i) of this Section, after deducting subsequent distributions to shareholders and transfers to stated capital and to capital surplus to the extent that such distributions and transfers are made out of earned surplus, all computed in accordance with generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice applicable to the kind of business conducted by the corporation.

(e) Capital surplus is the entire surplus of the corporation other than its earned surplus, and includes, without being limited to, paid-in surplus, surplus arising from reduction of stated capital and surplus arising from a revaluation of assets made in good faith upon demonstrably adequate bases of revaluation. Capital surplus may be classified on a corporation's books and statements according to its derivation.

(f) A surplus arising from the sale of treasury shares at a price in excess of the cost of their acquisition or from the retirement of treasury shares acquired at a price less than the amount of capital reduction to be effected by their retirement is not earned surplus and shall be accounted for as capital surplus or as some classification thereof.

(g) In computing earned surplus or net profits, deduction shall be made for such obsolescence, depletion, depreciation, losses, bad debts and other items as accords with generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice.

(h) No transfer shall be made from earned surplus to capital surplus without the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares that are unlimited as to dividends, except as such transfer is incidental to a share dividend.

(i) A corporation may, by resolution of its board of directors, apply any part or all of its capital surplus to the reduction or elimination of any deficit in the earned surplus account but if there are outstanding shares entitled to preferential dividends, such action must be approved by the vote of a majority of such shares.

(j) A corporation may, by resolution of its board of directors, create or add to a reserve or reserves out of its earned surplus or current net profits for any proper purpose set forth in the resolution, and may abolish or diminish any such reserve upon determination by the board of directors that such reserve is no longer necessary or that it is in excess of the amount required for the purpose for which it was created; but no such reserve shall, except in accordance with generally accepted principles of sound accounting practice applicable to the kind of business conducted by such corporation, diminish the amount of earned surplus or net profits available for dividends.

(k) Whenever two or more corporations are consolidated or merged or whenever a corporation purchases all of the assets of another corporation as a going concern and pays all or substantially all the purchase price by the issuance of shares of the purchasing corporation, or whenever a corporation is reorganized, the earned surplus appearing on the books of the constituent or merged or purchased corporation or corporations or on the books of a corporation prior to reorganization may, to the extent that it is not capitalized, be entered as earned surplus on the books of the resultant or purchasing or reorganized corporation.

(l) Where a parent corporation acquires and owns a majority of the shares of a subsidiary corporation or where a group of parent corporations in pursuit of a common interest acquires and owns all or substantially all of the shares of a subsidiary corporation, a share dividend received by such a parent corporation or parent corporations out of surplus earned by the subsidiary after said acquisition may be treated by the recipient parent corporation as earned income in an amount corresponding, pro rata, to the amount of earned surplus of the subsidiary which was capitalized by virtue of the share dividend.

Sec. 55-50. Dividends in cash or property.—(a) Subject to the restrictions provided in this Section, the board of directors of a corporation may declare and pay dividends payable in cash or in property:

(1) Out of the earned surplus of the corporation, or

(2) Out of the amount of net profits earned during the current or preceding accounting period, each said period to be not less than six months or more than one year in duration, regardless of any impairment of stated capital, or

(3) Out of the capital surplus of the corporation, but such dividends from this source may be paid only if the sources in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection are unavailable and then only to shares entitled to preferential dividends and no capital surplus paid in by any class of stock may be used for the payment of dividends on any class junior thereto, or

(4) In partial liquidation as permitted by subsection (e) of this Section. A dividend paid from sources other than those indicated in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection to shares not entitled to preferential dividends is a partial liquidation and is subject to the provisions of subsection (e) of this Section.

(b) Any provision inserted in any charter or bylaws or resolutions or agreement of the shareholders after this Chapter becomes effective purporting to make unavailable the sources mentioned in paragraphs (1) and (2) and (3) of subsection (a) of this Section for the payment of dividends to shares entitled to preferential dividends shall be null and void, but nothing herein shall invalidate any agreement between a corporation and its creditors restricting the payment of dividends.

(c) No dividend payable in cash or in property may be declared or paid if upon the payment thereof:

(1) There is reasonable ground for believing that the corporation would be unable to meet its obligations as they become due in the ordinary course of business, or

(2) The liabilities of the corporation would exceed the fair present value of its assets, or

(3) The highest aggregate liquidation preferences of shares entitled to such preference over the shares receiving the dividend would exceed the corporation's net assets.

(d) For the purpose of paying a dividend out of earned surplus or net profits as permitted by subsection (a) of this Section, a corporation engaged in the business of exploiting natural resources may compute its earned surplus or net profits without deduction for the depletion of such resources. If a dividend is paid from a source so computed, the corporation shall make the disclosure required by subsection (g) of this Section.

(e) The board of directors of a corporation may distribute to its shareholders in partial liquidation, out of capital surplus (including a surplus created by reduction of stated capital), a portion of its assets, subject to the following provisions:

(1) Except in a case within paragraph (2) of this subsection, the distribution shall be made only upon a determination by the board of directors that the assets of the corporation are in excess of the needs of its business, and upon authorization by a resolution adopted by the holders of a majority of the shares of each class, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote, and the distribution shall be made pro rata to the class or classes of shareholders as specified in the said resolution. Such distribution is not deemed to be a liquidation within the liquidation preferences to which any class of shares may be entitled, unless the charter otherwise provides, but such a distribution shall respect the preferential right to dividends to which any class of shares may be entitled.

(2) If the corporation is organized for the purpose of liquidating specific assets (otherwise than by the exploitation of natural resources) and is solely engaged in that activity, the distribution may be made as specifically provided in the charter with respect to such a distribution, without the vote of shareholders and without regard to the provisions of subsection (g) of this Section.

(3) In addition to all other restrictions upon the payment of dividends imposed by this Section, no distribution permitted by this subsection shall be made if thereupon the present fair value of the assets of the corporation is less than twice the amount of its liabilities.

(f) Partly paid shares are entitled to participate in dividends on the basis of the percentage of the consideration actually received by the corporation thereon, unless otherwise provided in the charter or subscription agreement.

(g) Concurrently with the payment of a dividend the corporation shall disclose to the shareholders receiving the same the source from which the dividend is paid if it is paid:

(1) Otherwise than out of earned surplus, or

(2) Out of earned surplus arising from the elimination, within one year prior to the dividend payment, of a deficit in the earned surplus account as permitted by G. S. 55-49(i), or

(3) Out of earned surplus or net profits computed without deduction for depletion of natural resources.

(h) The provisions of the foregoing subsections shall not apply to banks and insurance companies.

(i) As used in this subsection, net profits mean such net profits as can lawfully be paid in dividends to a particular class of shares after making allowance for the prior claims of shares, if any, entitled to preference in the payment of dividends, but in the determination of such profits the provisions of subsection (d) of this Section shall not apply. If during its immediately preceding fiscal period a corporation has paid to any class of shares dividends in cash or property amounting to less than one-third of the net profits of said period allocable to that class, the holder or holders of twenty per cent (20%) or more of the shares of that class may, within four months after the close of said period, make written demand upon the corporation for the payment of additional dividends for that period. After a corporation has received such a demand, the directors shall, during the then current fiscal period or within three months after the close thereof, cause dividends in cash or property to be paid to the shareholders of that class in an amount equal to the difference between the dividends paid in said preceding fiscal period to shareholders of that class and one-third of the net profits of said period allocable to that class, or in such lesser amount as may be demanded. A corporation shall not, however, be required to pay dividends pursuant to such demand insofar as such payment would exceed fifty per cent (50%) of the net profits of the current fiscal period in which such demand is made or insofar as the net profits are being retained to eliminate a deficit. Upon receipt of such a demand a corporation may elect to treat any dividend previously paid in the current fiscal period as having been paid in the preceding fiscal period, in which event the corporation shall so notify all shareholders. If a dividend is paid in satisfaction of a demand made in accordance with this subsection it shall be deemed to have been paid in the period for which it was demanded, and all shareholders shall be so informed concurrently with such payment.

(j) Nothing in this Section shall impair any rights which a shareholder may have on general principles of equity to compel the payment of dividends, but, except for actions started before this Chapter becomes effective, all rights previously conferred by statute upon shareholders to force a corporation to pay dividends are hereby abrogated.

(k) Any action by a shareholder to compel the payment of dividends may be brought against the directors, or against the corporation with or without joining the directors as parties. The shareholder bringing such action shall be entitled, in the event that the court orders the payment of a dividend, to recover from the corporation all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in maintaining such action. If a court orders the payment of a dividend, the amount ordered to be paid shall be a debt of the corporation.

Sec. 55-51. Share dividends.—(a) Subject to the restrictions provided in this Section, the board of directors of a corporation may declare and pay dividends in its own authorized but unissued shares out of any surplus of the corporation upon the following conditions:

(1) If a dividend is payable in its own shares having a par value, such shares shall be issued at not less than the par value thereof and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus equal to the aggregate par value of the shares to be issued as a dividend.

(2) If a dividend is payable in its own shares without par value, such shares shall be issued at fair value to be ascertained and stated by the board of directors by resolution adopted at the time such dividend is declared, and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus equal to the aggregate value so ascertained and stated in respect of such shares; and the amount per share so transferred to stated capital shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving such dividend concurrently with the payment thereof.

(b) No dividend payable in shares of any class shall be paid to the holders of shares of any other class nor shall any share dividend be paid to holders of shares entitled to preferential dividends nor shall any share dividend be paid which would change the voting position of different classes of shares with respect to voting for directors, unless:

(1) The share dividend is paid to holders of shares entitled to preferential payment of dividends which by the charter are required or permitted to be paid in a specified number of shares, whether of that same class or of another designated class, or

(2) The share dividend is specifically authorized by the vote of a majority of shares of each class that might be adversely affected by such a share dividend. Such vote may, if so stated in the resolution of the shareholders, be effective authorization to the directors for one year thereafter for the declaration and payment of such a share dividend if the amount of said dividend is specifically fixed or limited for the shares which are to receive it as stated.

(c) Disclosure similar to that required by G. S. 55-50(g) shall be made if a share dividend is paid from a source which in the case of cash dividends would require disclosure under G. S. 55-50(g).

(d) A corporation making a distribution of treasury shares among its shareholders shall, concurrently with delivery of the corresponding certificate or script, designate the transaction as a distribution of treasury shares and shall not represent it to be a share dividend.

(e) A split-up or division of the issued shares of any class into a greater number of shares of the same class without increasing the stated capital of the corporation shall not be construed to be a share dividend within the meaning of this Section.

Sec. 55-52. Acquisition by a corporation of its own shares.—(a) A corporation may acquire its own shares by gift, bequest, merger, consolidation, distribution of the assets of another corporation, exchange of its shares or as permitted in this Section by purchase or redemption.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subsection (e) of this Section, a corporation may, by action of its board of directors, purchase and pay for its shares, or redeem such shares if redeemable, regardless of any impairment of stated capital, in the following cases:

(1) To collect, settle, compromise or release in good faith a debt of or claim against any shareholder or subscriber of its shares;

(2) To eliminate fractional shares or to avoid their issuance;

(3) To satisfy claims of dissenting shareholders entitled to payment for their shares under the provisions of G. S. 55-113;

(4) To perform its agreement with an employee who has purchased from the corporation shares under an agreement relating to employment which obligates or entitles the corporation to repurchase them;

(5) If the corporation is organized to engage in the business of investing in securities and is engaged in no other business, to perform its agreement to repurchase its shares, at prices substantially equivalent to their proportionate interests in the assets of the corporation;

(6) Subject also to the provisions of subsection (f) of this Section, to acquire for retirement, at prices not exceeding their redemption price, its shares that are subject to redemption.

(c) Subject to the provisions of subsections (e) and (f) of this Section, a corporation may, by the action of its board of directors, purchase and pay for its shares, but only out of surplus and only in the following cases:

(1) Pro rata from all its shareholders or all of a class of shareholders.

(2) On an organized securities exchange, if the board of directors shall have obtained authorization so to purchase, within a period of one year preceding the purchase, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of the class to be purchased, after full disclosure to them of the specific purpose of the proposed purchase.

(3) From any shareholder upon the vote of a majority of the shares of the class to be purchased, whether or not the shares of the said class are otherwise entitled to vote, and also the vote of a majority of the shares otherwise entitled to vote, exclusive of all shares of any class held by the said shareholder. Such vote is required for each specific purchase and is not valid if given under a standing general resolution, bylaw or provision in the charter.

(4) In connection with stabilizing operations authorized by the Securities and Exchange Commission or other regulatory authority.

(d) A corporation may acquire shares issued by a parent corporation by gift, bequest, merger, consolidation, distribution of the assets of another corporation or otherwise, but not by purchase.

(e) A corporation shall not purchase or redeem its shares if at the time of or as a result of such acquisition:

(1) There is reasonable ground for believing that the corporation would be unable to meet its obligations as they become due in the ordinary course of business, or

(3) The highest aggregate liquidation preference of the shares to remain outstanding having prior or equal claims to the assets of the corporation would exceed the net assets of the corporation, or

(4) There exists any unpaid accrued dividends or dividend credits with respect to any shares entitled to preferential dividends ahead of the shares to be purchased, but the provisions of this paragraph (4) shall not apply to purchases made as permitted in paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) or (4) of subsection (b) of this Section.

(f) A corporation shall not purchase its redeemable shares, otherwise than by redemption or as permitted in paragraphs (1) to (5) inclusive of subsection (b) of this Section, at a time when there exists a default in the payment of accrued dividends or any dividend credit upon said shares, unless prior to such purchase notice in writing stating the intention so to purchase and the amount intended to be applied thereto is seasonably mailed to the holders of shares of the class to be purchased or unless adequate publicity of such intention and amounts is otherwise given within a time reasonably calculated to apprise the market of the proposed action.

(g) Unless steps are taken to consummate a reduction of capital as provided in G. S. 55-48, the acquisition of treasury shares shall not be deemed to effect a reduction of stated capital, whether or not the said shares are purportedly kept as treasury shares or are purportedly retired or canceled by the corporation.

(h) Redemption of shares by a corporation may be made either pro rata or by lot as provided in the charter or in resolutions adopted in conformity with G. S. 55-42, as the case may be, or, in the absence of such provision, pro rata or by lot as the board of directors may determine.

(i) Treasury shares shall not carry voting or dividend rights.

(j) This Section shall apply also to corporations not formed under this Chapter, subject to such further restrictions on the purchase or redemption of shares as may be contained in special statutory provisions applicable to such corporations.

ARTICLE 6. Shareholders.

Sec. 55-53. Liability of shareholders arising from acquisition of shares.—(a) As used in this Section, the term "watered shares" means shares which:

(1) Were issued for money at less than their par value in contravention of G. S. 55-46(c); or

(2) Were issued, with or without par value, for a consideration other than money to a person who influenced the corporation to enter the said consideration on its books at an over-valuation, unless the value so entered is conclusive under the provisions of G. S. 55-46(f); or

(3) Were issued, with or without par value, for property to a person who held such property as constructive trustee for the corporation and who in transferring said property to the corporation received therefor a greater number of shares than his fiduciary duties permitted; or

(4) Were issued, with or without par value, for an amount of consideration which, after giving full recognition to the freedom of business judgment exercised in good faith, substantially and unfairly diluted the holdings of other shareholders and were issued to a person who had knowledge that the directors of the corporation were thereby violating their fiduciary duties to the corporation or to its shareholders. As used in this paragraph shareholders include, but are not limited to, those persons who purchase shares from the corporation or from its promoters in accordance with a plan already entertained by the promoters and who so purchase without adequate disclosure to them that their shares are diluted by the lesser amount of consideration received by the corporation for shares previously issued to promoters.

(b) Every original holder of watered shares shall be subject to:

(1) Liability to the corporation for the excess of the par value of said shares over the price paid for their issuance or, as the case may be, for the amount of over-valuation of the consideration entered upon its books, unless the valuation so entered is conclusive under the provisions of G. S. 55-46(f), over and above the maximum valuation that could in good faith have been fixed therefor; but this liability exists (a) only if there is reasonable ground to believe that creditors or shareholders may have relied on such excess or over-valuation and (b) only to the extent necessary to pay the claims of such creditors or adjust the equities of such shareholders, or

(2) Cancellation, in an action by the corporation, of such a number of shares as shall cure the dilution or breach of fiduciary duty which made the said shares watered shares; and if cancellation is impossible on the ground that such holder no longer retains the said number of shares, he shall be liable for such an amount in money as will fairly redress the injury to other shareholders occasioned by the said dilution or breach of fiduciary duty.

(c) The remedies in subsection (b) of this Section are cumulative, but any money recovery had thereunder shall be deemed to be additional consideration paid for the shares in question.

(d) In any action by the corporation to enforce rights under subsection (b) of this Section, the relief granted may include orders for the distribution of any recovery by the corporation to such creditors, shareholders, or former shareholders, as may have been damaged by the transaction upon which the action is based.

(e) Except in the case of watered shares, shareholders shall be subject to no assessment or liability thereon other than that arising from the unpaid balance, if any, of the agreed consideration, even if all the shares are owned by one person.

(f) Every original holder of watered shares or of shares not fully paid as agreed shall continue liable thereon to the corporation notwithstanding any transfer of such shares. A transferee of such shares shall not be liable thereon if he acquired them in good faith without knowledge or notice that they were watered shares or shares not fully paid as agreed or if he acquired them from a transferor similarly free from liability. The burden of proof that the transferee did not so acquire the shares shall be upon the adverse party.

(g) No pledgees or other holder of shares as collateral security and no executor, administrator, conservator, guardian, trustee, receiver or other fiduciary shall be personally liable as a holder of or subscriber for shares of a corporation except to the extent that the record of shares issued or subscribed in his name without indication of representative capacity may have induced reliance upon his personal responsibility with respect to watered or unpaid shares, but the estate or funds in the hands of such fiduciary shall be liable, as equity may require. Nothing herein shall relieve a fiduciary from liability for breach of trust.

(h) Nothing in this Section shall limit any liability that a shareholder may incur on general principles of law or equity arising from the creation or maintenance of an inadequately capitalized incorporated enterprise or other abuse of the privilege of achieving limited liability by incorporation.

Sec. 55-54. Liability of shareholders for receiving unlawful payments.—Any shareholder who receives any redemptive or purchase price upon the redemption or purchase by a corporation of its shares or who receives any dividend or other withdrawal or distribution from the corporation, either at a time when the corporation is or thereby will be rendered unable to meet its obligations as they mature in the ordinary course of business, or when the shareholder has knowledge that such receipt diminishes assets of the corporation contrary to the provisions of this Chapter, shall be liable to the corporation for the amount so received, including the amount of any obligation to the corporation thereby released, but this liability is subject to the same limitation as to time and amount as is contained in subsection (d) and (m) of G. S. 55-32 with respect to the liability of directors. Any number of shareholders may be sued in the same action.

Sec. 55-55. Omitted.

Sec. 55-56. Pre-emptive rights.—(a) The charter may enlarge, limit or deny what would otherwise be the pre-emptive rights of shareholders.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the charter or in this Section, the holders of shares of any class, except shares which are limited as to dividends and liquidation rights, shall have the right, in case of the proposed sale by the corporation for cash of additional shares of the same class as those held by them, to purchase the additional shares in proportion to their then respective holdings at a price substantially no less favorable than the price at which such shares are to be offered to others. Such holders shall have a similar right in case of the granting by the corporation of any option to purchase its shares of the class held by such holders or in case of a proposed sale by the corporation for cash of any securities convertible into or carrying an option to purchase shares of the class held by such holders. Such right exists irrespective of whether the shares to be sold by the corporation are shares authorized in the articles of incorporation as originally filed or are treasury shares or other shares. Nothing herein is meant to give a shareholder the pre-emptive right to buy shares at a price determined by their par value.

(c) Unless otherwise stated in the charter, there shall be no pre-emptive rights with respect to:

(1) Shares issued or to be issued to obtain all or a portion of the capital required to initiate the enterprise, or

(2) Shares issued or to be issued for considerations, other than money,

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

deemed by the board of directors in good faith to be advantageous to the corporation's business, or

(3) Shares released from pre-emptive rights by vote of two-thirds of the shares entitled to such pre-emptive rights, or

(4) Shares sold or agreed to be sold to employees or options for shares granted to employees as provided in G. S. 55-45, or

(5) Shares issued or to be issued as a share dividend, or

(6) Shares issued or to be issued to satisfy conversion rights or option rights theretofore granted by the corporation.

(d) Holders of bonds, notes, debentures or other obligations convertible into shares and holders of shares convertible into shares of another class shall have no pre-emptive rights in shares into which they are convertible unless expressly granted in the charter or in the contract with said holders.

(e) The issuance of shares that are not subject to pre-emptive rights shall not impair any remedy which any shareholder may have for a breach of fiduciary duties on the part of the board of directors with respect thereto. The remedy may include the granting of such pre-emptive rights or the cancellation of such a number of shares or the compulsory issuance by the corporation of such a number of shares, or the allowance of such amount of money damages as the court may order.

(f) The issue or sale by a corporation of shares carrying voting rights does not of itself confer pre-emptive rights upon shareholders whose voting powers are relatively diminished thereby but the issue or sale of such shares for the purpose of creating in a group or combination of shareholders the power to elect a majority of the board of directors is a breach of fiduciary duty within subsection (e) of this Section.

Sec. 55-57. Share certificates.—(a) No certificate shall be issued for any share until such share is fully paid.

(b) Every shareholder of a corporation shall be entitled to a certificate or certificates for the fully paid shares owned by him. Each certificate shall be signed by the president or a vice president of the corporation and by its treasurer, assistant treasurer, secretary or an assistant secretary, or its cashier or an assistant cashier in case of a bank, and may be sealed with the seal of the corporation or a facsimile thereof. The signatures of any such officers upon a certificate may be facsimiles or may be engraved or printed or omitted if the certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent, or registered by a registrar, other than the corporation itself or an employee of the corporation. In case any officer who has signed or whose facsimile or other signature has been placed upon such certificate shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer at the date of its issue.

(c) Every share certificate issued by a corporation which is authorized to issue shares for more than one class shall state upon the face or back thereof, in full or in the form of a summary, all of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights, so far as the same have at that time been fixed and determined, of the shares of each class, and of the variations therein between any series of any class, authorized to be issued; and to the extent that the same shall not at that time have been fixed and determined, such share certificate shall state the authority of the shareholders or of the board of directors, as the case may be, to fix and determine the same. In lieu of such statement, however, the certificate may state upon the face or back thereof the designation of each class of shares having preferences or special rights in the payment of dividends, in voting, upon liquidation or otherwise and such other information concerning such shares as may be desired and shall state that the corporation will upon request furnish any shareholder, without charge, information as to the number of such shares authorized and outstanding and a copy of the portions of the charter or resolutions containing the designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights of all shares and any series thereof. When so requested, the corporation shall promptly so furnish the said information and copy.

(d) Each share certificate shall also state upon the face thereof:

(1) That the corporation is organized under the laws of this State.

(2) The name of the person to whom issued.

(3) The number and class of shares, and the designation of the series, if any, which such certificate represents.

(4) The par value of each share represented by such certificate, or a statement that the shares are without par value.

(e) The board of directors may authorize the issuance of a new share certificate in place of a certificate claimed to have been lost or destroyed without requiring a bond if in the judgment of the directors the circumstances justify omission of a bond, and they shall incur no liability for taking such action in good faith.

Sec. 55-58. Issuance of fractional share certificates or script.—A corporation may, but shall not be obliged to, issue a certificate for a fractional share, and, by action of its board of directors, may issue in lieu thereof script in registered or bearer form which shall entitle the holder to receive a certificate for a full share upon the surrender of such script aggregating a full share. A certificate for a fractional share shall, but script shall not unless otherwise provided therein, entitle the holder to exercise proportionate voting rights, to receive dividends thereon, and to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation. The board of directors may cause such script to be issued subject to the express condition therein that, if not exchanged for certificates representing full shares before a specified date, the shares for which such script is exchangeable may thereupon be sold by the corporation to others, in such fair manner as may be provided therein, or may promptly be purchased by the corporation at the book value as determined upon the aforesaid date, and in either event the proceeds thereof paid to the holders of such script.

Sec. 55-59. Recognition of acts of record owners of shares or other securities.—(a) A corporation may, subject to the further provisions of this Section, treat as absolute owner of shares or other securities the person in whose name the shares or other securities stand of record on its books, just as if that person had full competency, capacity and authority to exercise all rights of ownership, irrespective of (1) any knowledge or notice to the contrary or (2) any description indicating a representative, pledge or other fiduciary relation or any reference to any other instrument or to the rights of any other person appearing upon its records or upon the share certificate or other security.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this Section, a corporation shall treat a person as if he were a holder of record of its shares or other securities if that person shall furnish to the corporation proof of his appointment as:

(1) An executor under the last will of a deceased holder of record of its shares or other securities; or

(2) An administrator or collector of the estate of such holder; or

(3) A guardian, committee, trustee or conservator of the estate of a ward, incompetent, or missing person who is a holder of record of its shares or other securities; or

(4) A trustee in bankruptcy of such a holder; or

(5) A statutory or judicial receiver or liquidator of the estate or affairs of such a holder.

(c) When and as any fiduciary other than one described in subsection (b) of this Section shall furnish proof satisfactory to the corporation of his authority to exercise any rights with respect to shares or other securities of the corporation which do not stand of record in his name, the corporation may treat such fiduciary as entitled to exercise such rights.

(d) When one or more fiduciaries shall claim to be entitled to the same rights with respect to the same shares or securities, the corporation may refuse to treat any of them as entitled to such rights unless and until proof, satisfactory to it, shall be furnished as to which of such fiduciaries is entitled to the rights in question.

(e) A corporation may treat as absolute owner of shares or other securities the survivor or survivors of persons to whom the same have been or may be issued with the words "as joint tenants", "as joint tenants with right of survivorship" or "as joint tenants with right of survivorship and not as tenants in common" following their names, upon the death of one or more of such persons.

(f) A corporation shall incur no liability to any person by the exercise of any privilege to which it is entitled by this Section, nor shall any of its rights be thereby impaired nor shall any of its acts or any corporate meeting be thereby invalidated.

(g) The corporation shall not be obligated to inquire into the existence of, or see to the performance or observance of, any duty or obligation to a third person by a holder of record of any of its shares or other securities or by anyone who it treats, as permitted or required by this Section, as the absolute owner thereof.

(h) When in accordance with any of the provisions of this Section the corporation shall have treated a minor as entitled to exercise any rights of ownership in its shares or other securities, no subsequent disaffirmance or avoidance shall be effective as against the corporation.

(i) The rights, privileges and immunities afforded to the corporation in this Section shall extend also to each transfer agent and to each registrar of its shares or other securities, to its voting inspectors and to all agents of the corporation concerned with the exercise of any rights by any of its shareholders or security holders.

(j) Nothing herein shall enlarge or affect the competency, authority, rights or obligations of any holder of record with respect to any other person than the corporation and its representatives described in the preceding subsection.

(k) Nothing herein shall relieve a corporation from any liability which it otherwise would have for breach by it of a contract to which it is a party or for violation of lawful provisions in its charter or bylaws or for participating in bad faith with a fiduciary in breach of trust.

(l) Nothing herein shall impair the duty of a corporation to abide by any valid judgment or decree or court order terminating or restricting the competency, capacity, authority or rights of ownership of any holder of record of shares or other securities or of a fiduciary thereof if and after a certified copy of that judgment, decree or court order is filed with the corporation or if that judgment, decree or order is rendered in a proceeding to which the corporation is a party.

Sec. 55-60. Closing of transfer books and fixing record date.—(a) For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the board of directors of a corporation may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, fifty days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least ten full days immediately preceding the date of such meeting.

(b) In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the bylaws, or in the absence of an applicable bylaw, the board of directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than fifty days and, in case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than ten full days immediately preceding the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders, is to be taken.

(c) If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting or of shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the board of directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders.

(d) When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this Section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof regardless of its length except where the determination has been made through the closing of the stock transfer books and the stated period of closing has expired.

Sec. 55-61. Meetings of shareholders.—(a) Meetings of shareholders may be held at such place, either within or without this State, as may be provided in the bylaws. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation.

(b) An annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such time as may be provided in the bylaws. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation or affect otherwise valid corporate acts. Upon such failure, whether from lack of quorum or otherwise, a substitute annual meeting may be called in accordance with the provisions of subsection (c) of this Section and any meeting so called may be designated as the annual meeting, or the Judge of the Superior Court of the county where the corporation has its registered office may, upon the application of any shareholder, order a substitute meeting to be held as and for the annual meeting, and may fix the date therefor, fix the record date for determination of the shareholders entitled to vote thereat, and cause notice of the meeting to be given to said shareholders, in such manner as he may order, at the expense of the corporation. At such meeting the shares of stock there represented either in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of such meeting, notwithstanding the provisions of any other Section of this Chapter or any provision of the bylaws or charter to the contrary.

(c) Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the president or the board of directors or such other officers or persons as may be provided in the charter or the bylaws or, at the written request of the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting, by any shareholder. When the meeting is thus called by a shareholder the call shall recite that it is made pursuant to the required request, but failure so to recite shall not invalidate an otherwise valid meeting.

(d) Any matter relating to the affairs of the corporation may be brought up for action at an annual meeting of shareholders even though the matter was not specifically stated in the notice of the meeting unless it is a matter other than election of directors, on which the vote of shareholders is expressly required by the provisions of this Chapter.

Sec. 55-62. Notice of shareholders' meetings.—(a) Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president, the secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the record of shareholders of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

(b) If not less than seven days prior to the date of any forthcoming meeting of shareholders a shareholder mails to the shareholders entitled to vote at that meeting, or if not less than three days prior to said date he delivers to them personally, a written notice of his intention to bring before the meeting any specific proposal, that proposal shall be considered and acted upon at that meeting. The officers of the corporation shall under the penalties of G. S. 55-38, make immediately available to a shareholder seeking to avail himself of this subsection who so requests the voting list prescribed by G. S. 55-64.

(c) When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. When a meeting is adjourned for less than 30 days in any one adjournment it is not necessary, unless the bylaws provide otherwise, to give any notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted thereat other than by announcement at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken.

Sec. 55-63. Irregular meetings; action without meetings.—(a) The transactions of any meeting of shareholders, however called and with whatever notice, if any, are as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if:

(1) All the shareholders entitled to vote are present in person or by proxy and no objection to holding the meeting is made by any shareholder, or if

(2) A quorum is present either in person or by proxy and no objection to holding the meeting is made by anyone so present, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice, or a consent to the holding of the meeting, or an approval of the action taken as shown by the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

(b) The absence from the minutes of any indication that a shareholder objected to holding the meeting shall prima facie establish that no such objection was made.

(c) Any action which, under any provision of this Chapter, may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the persons who would be entitled to vote upon such action at a meeting and filed with the secretary of the corporation as part of the corporate records. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of shareholders, and may be stated as such in any certificate or document filed with the Secretary of State under this Chapter.

Sec. 55-64. Voting list.—(a) The officer or agent having charge of the record of shareholders of a corporation shall make, at least ten days before each meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each, which list, for a period of ten days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Such list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. The record of shareholders required to be kept by subsection (c) of G. S. 55-37 shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or the record of shareholders or to vote at any meeting of shareholders.

(b) Failure to comply with the requirements of this Section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.

(c) An officer or agent having charge of the record of shareholders who shall fail to prepare the list of shareholders, or keep the same on file for a period of ten days, or produce and keep it open for inspection at the meeting, as provided in this Section, shall be liable to any shareholder suffering damage on account of such failure, to the extent of such damage, provided such shareholder has made written request therefor at least twenty (20) days prior to such meeting.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, it shall not be necessary to prepare or produce a list of shareholders in any case where the record of shareholders actually presented readily shows, in alphabetical order or by alphabetical index, and by classes or series if such there be, the names of the shareholders entitled to vote, with their address and the amount of their holdings.

Sec. 55-65. Quorum of shareholders.—(a) Unless otherwise provided in this Chapter or in the charter or in bylaws adopted by the shareholders, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders, but in no event shall a quorum consist of less than one-third of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.

(b) Shares shall not be counted to make up a quorum for a meeting if voting of them at the meeting has been enjoined or for any reason they cannot be lawfully voted.

(c) The shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to do business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(d) In the absence of a quorum at the opening of any meeting of shareholders, such meeting may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the shares voting on the motion to adjourn, but no other business may be transacted until and unless a quorum is present.

Sec. 55-66. Votes required.—(a) A majority of the shares voted at a meeting of shareholders, duly held and at which a quorum is present, shall be sufficient to take or authorize action upon any matter which may properly come before the meeting, unless more than a majority is required by this Chapter or by the charter or by bylaws adopted by the shareholders.

(b) Except where other provisions of this Chapter expressly make this subsection inapplicable, any corporation may by its charter require for any purpose the concurrence of a greater proportion of the votes of any class or classes of shares than required by this Chapter for such purpose.

Sec. 55-67. Voting of shares.—(a) Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except as otherwise lawfully provided in the charter and except as otherwise prescribed by subsection (b) of this Section. Except as otherwise stated in the charter or in the subscription agreement, shares shall be entitled to full vote notwithstanding that they have not been fully paid. No shares shall be voted upon which an installmen of the purchase price due to the corporation is past due and unpaid.

(b) Shares of its own stock owned by a corporation, directly or indirectly, through a subsidiary corporation or otherwise, or held directly or indirectly in a fiduciary capacity by it or by a subsidiary corporation, shall not be voted at any meeting and shall not be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at a given time.

(c) At each election for directors every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares standing of record in his name for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote, or to cumulate his votes by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates. This right of cumulative voting shall not be exercised unless some shareholder or proxy holder announces in open meeting, before the voting for directors starts, his intention so to vote cumulatively; and if such announcement is made, the chair shall declare that all shares entitled to vote have the right to vote cumulatively and shall thereupon grant a recess of not less than one hour nor more than four hours, as he shall determine, or of such other period of time as is unanimously then agreed upon. Stockholders in any corporation now in existence under a charter which does not grant the right of cumulative voting may not exercise this right of cumulative voting when at the time of election the stock transfer book of such corporation discloses, or it otherwise appears, that there is no stockholder who owns or controls more than one-fourth of the voting stock of such corporation.

Sec. 55-68. Proxies.—(a) Shares may be voted either in person or by one or more agents authorized by a written proxy executed by the shareholder or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. A telegram, cablegram, wireless message or photogram appearing to have been transmitted by a shareholder, or a photographic, photostatic or equivalent reproduction of a writing appointing one or more agents shall be deemed a written proxy within the meaning of this Section.

(b) A proxy is not valid after the expiration of eleven months from the date of its execution unless the person executing it specifies therein the length of time for which it is to continue in force, or limits its use to a particular meeting, but no proxy, whether or not coupled with an interest or otherwise irrevocable by law, shall be valid after 10 years from the date of its execution.

(c) Any proxy duly executed is not revoked, and continues in full force and effect, until an instrument revoking it, or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, is filed with the secretary of the corporation. A proxy is not revoked by the death or incapacity of the maker unless, before the vote is counted or the authority is exercised, written notice of the death or incapacity is given to the corporation. Notwithstanding that a valid proxy is outstanding the powers of the proxy holder are suspended, except in the case of a valid proxy which is by law irrevocable and which states on its face that it is irrevocable, if the person executing the proxy is present at the meeting and elects to vote in person.

(d) If a proxy for the same shares confers authority upon two or more persons and does not otherwise provide, a majority of them present at the meeting, or if only one is present then that one, may exercise all the powers conferred by the proxy; but if the proxy holders present at the meeting are divided as to the right and manner of voting in any particular case and there is no majority, the voting of said shares shall be prorated.

(e) Unless a proxy otherwise provides, any proxy holder may appoint in writing a substitute to act in his place.

Sec. 55-69. Voting by corporations, pledgees, life tenants, fiduciaries and co-owners.—(a) The president, any vice president, the secretary or the treasurer of a domestic corporation holding shares of another corporation, domestic or foreign, and any such officer or the cashier or any trust officer of a banking or trust corporation holding shares of another corporation, domestic or foreign, and any like officer of a foreign corporation holding shares of a domestic corporation, shall be deemed by the corporation issuing such shares to have authority to vote such shares and to execute proxies and written waivers and consents in relation thereto, whether such shares are held in a fiduciary capacity or otherwise, unless before a vote is taken or a waiver or consent is acted upon it is made to appear by a certified copy of the bylaws or resolution of the board of directors or executive committee of the corporation holding such shares that such authority does not exist or is vested in some other officer or person. In the absence of such certification or of an instrument executed in accordance with G. S. 55-36(a), a person executing any such proxies, waivers or consents or presenting himself at a meeting as one of such officers of a domestic or foreign corporation shall for the purposes of this Section be prima facie deemed to be duly elected, qualified and acting as such officer and to be fully authorized, and in case of conflicting representation, the corporate shareholder shall be deemed represented by its senior officer, in the order first stated in this Section.

(b) A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so long as they stand of record in his name.

(c) If shares stand of record in the name of a person as life tenant, the corporation may treat such person as entitled to vote or represent such shares as if he were absolute owner, unless the record itself shows that he is not entitled to vote or unless G. S. 55-59(1) is applicable.

(d) A fiduciary may, in person or by proxy, vote and execute waivers, consents or objections in respect of shares standing of record in his name, and a proxy executed by a fiduciary may confer general or discretionary power.

(e) Any fiduciary described in G. S. 55-59 (b), upon satisfactory proof of his appointment and qualification, and any other fiduciary upon satisfactory proof to the corporation of his actual authority to vote, may vote or execute waivers, consents or objections with respect to any shares of a corporation even if the shares stand of record in the name of the person for whom he is such fiduciary, but nothing herein is meant to curtail the privileges and immunities to which a corporation is entitled under G. S. 55-59.

(f) If shares stand of record in the names of two or more persons, whether fiduciaries, joint tenants, tenants in common, tenants in partnership, or otherwise, or if two or more persons shall have the same fiduciary relationship respecting the same shares, then unless the instrument or order appointing them or creating the tenancy otherwise directs and it or a copy thereof is filed with the secretary of the corporation, their acts with respect to voting shall have the following effect:

(1) If only one votes, in person or by proxy, his act binds all;

(2) If more than one vote, in person or by proxy, the act of the majority so voting binds all;

(3) If more than one vote in person or by proxy but the vote is evenly split on any particular matter, each faction is entitled to vote the shares in question proportionally.

If the instrument so filed shows that any such tenancy is held in unequal interests, a majority or even-split for the purpose of this subsection shall be a majority or even-split in interest.

(g) The principle of the preceding subsection shall apply, insofar as possible, to execution of proxies, waivers, consents or objections and for the purpose of ascertaining the presence of a quorum.

Sec. 55-70. Voting inspectors.—(a) Unless the charter or the bylaws otherwise provide, the board of directors in advance of any meeting of shareholders may appoint one or three voting inspectors to act at any such meeting or adjournment thereof, and in the absence of such appointment the officer or person acting as chairman of the meeting may, and shall if so requested by any shareholder or proxy holder, make such appointment. Any vacancy, whether from refusal to act or otherwise, may be filled by appointment of the chairman. If there are three inspectors, the decision or certificate of any two shall be effective as the act of all.

(b) The voting inspectors shall determine the number of shares outstanding, the voting power of each, the shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, the authenticity, validity and effect of proxies, receive votes, ballots, assents or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the vote, count and tabulate all votes, assents and consents, determine and announce the result, and do such acts as may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders.

(c) On request, the inspectors shall make a report in writing of any challenge, question or matter determined by them and make and execute a certificate of any fact found by them.

(d) The certificate of the inspectors shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein and of the vote as certified by them, unless overruled by a vote of a majority of the shares represented at the meeting, exclusive of the shares as to which there is a controversy.

Sec. 55-71. Proceeding to determine validity of election or appointment of directors or officers.—(a) Any shareholder or director of a domestic corporation may commence a summary proceeding in the Superior Court to determine any controversy with respect to any election or appointment of any director or officer of such corporation, and any shareholder or director of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall have the same right with respect to any election held within this State.

(b) The proceeding shall be brought in the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located in this State.

(c) The proceeding shall be commenced by filing a verified petition in the Superior Court directed to the resident judge or any judge holding court in the district.

(d) The petition shall include:

(1) The name of the county and court in which the proceeding is brought, and the title of the proceeding, which shall include as respondents the corporation, the person or persons whose purported election or appointment is questioned, and any person other than the petitioner, whom the petitioner alleges to have been elected or appointed.

(2) A plain and concise statement of the facts constituting the grounds for contesting the validity of the election or appointment, and a prayer for the relief sought.

(e) Upon filing of the petition a notice to the respondents fixing a time and place for the hearing, which place may be anywhere in the district, shall be signed and issued by any petitioner or his counsel. No summons shall be necessary, but a copy of the notice and petition shall be served upon each respondent at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing. If it appears by the petition or separate affidavits to the satisfaction of the judge that the respondent to be served cannot, after due diligence, be found in the State, the judge shall, at the election of the petitioner, either:

(1) Make an order for service by publication and direct that one publication of a notice, which shall include the time and place of the hearing, and statement of the notice of the relief sought be made in a designated newspaper qualified for legal advertising pursuant to G. S. 1-597; or

(2) Make an order for service of the notice and a copy of the petition outside the State pursuant to G. S. 1-104.

In the cases in which service by publication is allowed, the notice and petition is deemed served at the expiration of seven (7) days from the date of the publication, and the party so served is then in court.

(f) Upon or after the filing of the petition and issuance of the notice the judge may, upon application, issue an interlocutory order restraining the directors or officers whose election or appointment is challenged from acting, and may make such other order as he may deem proper with respect to the directors or officers who shall hold the contested offices pending the determination of the matter in controversy.

(g) The petition shall be heard at the time and place fixed in the notice or at such later time or other place in the district as the judge may designate. The hearing may be in chambers and shall be heard upon affidavit or oral testimony or both, in the discretion of the judge.

(h) Upon completion of the hearing the judge, in determining the matter, may:

(1) Declare the result of the election or appointment in controversy;

(2) Order a new election or appointment and may include in such order provisions with respect to the directors or officers who shall hold the contested offices until a new election is held or appointment is made;

(3) Determine the respective voting rights of shareholders and of persons claiming to own shares.

(4) Direct such other relief as may be just and proper.

The order may be signed, either in or out of the district in which the hearing is held.

Sec. 55-72. Voting trust.—(a) Any number of shareholders of a corporation may, for any proper business purpose, create a voting trust, revocable or irrevocable, conferring upon a trustee or trustees the right to vote or otherwise represent their shares, for a period of not to exceed ten years, by entering into a written voting trust agreement specifying the terms and conditions of the voting trust, by depositing an executed copy of the agreement with the corporation at its registered office, and by transferring their shares to such trustee or trustees for the purposes of the agreement. Trust certificates shall be issued by the trustees for the shares so transferred. The said copy of the voting trust agreement so deposited with the corporation shall be subject to the absolute right of examination by any shareholder of the corporation, in person or by agent, or by any holder of a beneficial interest in the voting trust, either in person or by agent, at any reasonable time.

(b) Such trustee or trustees shall also cause to be kept a record of trust certificate holders similar to the record of shareholders required to be kept by corporations under this Chapter and such record shall be made available for inspection by trust certificate holders or by shareholders of the corporation who submit to the trustee or trustees satisfactory proof of their ownership of shares, all subject to the same terms, conditions, qualifications and penalties as are prescribed in G. S. 55-38 with respect to inspection by shareholders of the record of shareholders. The holder of a trust certificate shall be considered to be a shareholder of the shares represented by his trust certificate with respect to his right to inspect corporate books and records.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section or of G. S. 55-59, the holders of record of the voting trust certificates shall have the same rights as if they were shareholders of record with respect to voting upon any amendment of the charter, amendment of the bylaws, reduction of stated capital, sale of the entire assets, merger, consolidation or dissolution. For this purpose the trustees, upon timely and adequate information and requests from the corporation, shall prepare and furnish the corporation with a list of the trust certificate holders, which shall conform substantially to the requirements of this Chapter relating to voting lists of shareholders, and the corporation shall send all proper notices, maintain and make available the said list for inspection and make all appropriate arrangements to permit the trust certificate holders to vote in person or by proxy at the meeting in question as if they were shareholders of record.

Sec. 55-73. Shareholders' agreements.—(a) An otherwise valid contract between two or more shareholders that the shares held by them shall be voted as a unit for the election of directors shall, if in writing and signed by the parties thereto, be valid and enforcible as between the parties thereto, but for not longer than ten years from the date of its execution. Nothing herein shall impair the privilege of the corporation to treat the shareholders of record as entitled to vote the shares standing in their names, as provided in G. S. 55-59 nor impair the power of a court to determine voting rights as provided in G. S. 55-71.

(b) Except in cases where the shares of the corporation are at the time or subsequently become generally traded in the markets maintained by securities dealers or brokers, no written agreement to which all of the shareholders have actually assented, whether embodied in the charter or bylaws or in any side agreement in writing and signed by all the parties thereto, and which relates to any phase of the affairs of the corporation, whether to the management of its business or division of its profits or otherwise, shall be invalid as between the parties thereto, on the ground that it is an attempt by the parties thereto to treat the corporation as if it were a partnership or to arrange their relationships in a manner that would be appropriate only between partners. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section or of this Chapter, the provisions of G. S. 55-59(a) shall not apply to such an agreement. A transferee of shares covered by such agreement who acquires them with knowledge thereof is bound by its provisions.

(c) An agreement between all or less than all of the shareholders, whether solely between themselves or between one or more of them and a party who is not a shareholder, is not invalid, as between the parties thereto, on the ground that it so relates to the conduct of the affairs of the corporation as to interfere with the discretion of the board of directors, but the making of such an agreement shall impose upon the shareholders who are parties thereto the liability for managerial acts that is imposed by this Chapter upon directors.

Sec. 55-74. Omitted.

ARTICLE 7. Uniform Stock Transfer Act.

ARTICLE 8. Fundamental Changes.

Sec. 55-99. Right to amend charter.—(a) Subject to the limitations set forth in G. S. 55-100, 55-101 and 55-103, a corporation may amend its charter at any time in any respect that may be desired, but no amendment shall contain provisions which would be forbidden in original articles of incorporation. No inference shall be drawn from the broad power of amendment conferred by this Chapter that the exercise of that power in a particular case is fair and equitable.

(b) In particular, and without limitation upon the foregoing general power of amendment, a corporation may amend its charter from time to time, so as:

(1) To change its corporate name.

(2) To change its period of duration.

(3) To change, enlarge or diminish its corporate purposes.

(4) To increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares, or shares of any class, which the corporation has authority to issue.

(5) To increase or decrease the par value of the authorized shares of any class having a par value, whether issued or unissued.

(6) To exchange, classify, reclassify or cancel all or any part of its shares, whether issued or unissued.

(7) To change the designation of all or any part of its shares, whether issued or unissued, and to change any rights, preferences or limitations in respect of all or any part of its shares, whether issued or unissued.

(8) To change shares having a par value, whether issued or unissued, into the same or a different number of shares without par value, and to change shares without par value, whether issued or unissued, into the same or a different number of shares having a par value.

(9) To change the shares of any class, whether issued or unissued, and whether with or without par value, into a different number of shares of the same class or into the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of other classes.

(10) To create new classes of shares having rights and preferences either prior and superior or subordinate and inferior to the shares of any class then authorized, whether issued or unissued.

(11) To cancel or otherwise affect the right of the holders of the shares of any class with respect to accrued dividends or dividend credits as defined in this Chapter.

(12) To divide any preferred or special class of shares, whether issued or unissued, into series and fix and determine the designations of such series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between the shares of such series.

(13) To authorize the board of directors to establish, out of authorized but unissued shares, series of any preferred or special class of shares and fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

(14) To authorize the board of directors to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the authorized but unissued shares of series theretofore established in respect of which either the relative rights and preferences have not been fixed and determined or the relative rights and preferences theretofore fixed and determined are to be changed.

(15) To revoke, diminish, or enlarge the authority of the board of directors to establish series out of authorized but unissued shares of any preferred or special class and fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

(16) To limit, deny or grant to shareholders of any class the preemptive right to acquire additional or treasury shares of the corporation, whether then or thereafter authorized.

(c) Any amendment of the charter made pursuant to this Chapter extends to all rights theretofore existing under the charter as fully as if this Chapter, including such future changes therein as may be made, had been in effect at the time of the filing of the original articles of incorporation.

Sec. 55-100. Procedure to amend the charter.—(a) Before the issuance of any shares, including acceptance of any subscriptions for shares, amendments to the charter may be made, either by the directors named therein or by the incorporators, by preparing and delivering to the Secretary of State articles of amendment complying with the provisions of G. S. 55-103. If any such amendment makes a material change, non-assenting subscribers for shares are entitled to rescind their subscriptions.

(b) After the issuance of any shares, including acceptance of any

subscription for shares, amendments to the charter shall be made in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors or the executive committee shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

(2) Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given in or with the notice of the meeting to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon. If the amendment would give rise to a dissenter's right of payment for his shares under this Chapter, such notice shall contain a statement, displayed with a resonable prominence, to the effect that dissenting shareholders are entitled, upon compliance with G. S. 55-113 including the twenty-day notice requirement to be paid the fair value of their shares as therein provided, but failure of the notice to contain such a statement shall not invalidate the amendment.

(3) At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed amendment. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of all the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event the proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of all the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class and a majority of all the other outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon. The charter may require more than the majority vote herein prescribed, either for all amendments or for a specific amendment, and any such requirement can itself be changed only by the greater vote so prescribed.

(4) There shall be prepared and delivered to the Secretary of State articles of amendment complying with the provisions of G. S. 55-103.

(c) Any number of amendments may be submitted to the shareholders, and voted upon by them, at one meeting.

(d) At any time before delivery of the articles of amendment to the Secretary of State the board of directors may, in their discretion, abandon an amendment if so empowered in the resolutions of the shareholders adopting the amendment.

Sec. 55-101. Class voting and objecting shareholders' rights on amendments.—(a) The holders of outstanding shares of a class shall be entitled as a class to vote, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote by the provisions of the charter, upon a proposed amendment which would:

(1) Cancel or otherwise affect their rights to accrued dividends or dividend credits as defined in this Chapter,

(2) Reduce the dividend preference thereof,

(3) Make non-cumulative, in whole or in part, the dividends thereof which had theretofore been cumulative,

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(4) Reduce the redemption price thereof or make them subject to redemption when they are not otherwise redeemable,

(5) Reduce any preferential amount payable thereon upon voluntary or involuntary liquidation,

(6) Eliminate, diminish, or alter adversely conversion rights pertaining thereto,

(7) Eliminate, diminish or alter adversely voting rights pertaining thereto, either directly or by increasing the relative voting rights per share of the shares of another class,

(8) Diminish or alter adversely any options or rights of the holders thereof to purchase other shares of the corporation,

(9) Change adversely any sinking fund provision relating thereto,

(10) Rearrange the preferences of such outstanding shares so as to make them subject to the preferences of other then authorized shares, issued or unissued, as to distribution by way of dividends or otherwise,

(11) Increase the rights and preferences of any other class of shares having equal or prior or superior rights or preferences, or

(12) Authorize a new class of shares having prior or superior rights or preferences.

(b) An objecting holder of shares entitled to any preference as to dividends or liquidation shall have the right to be paid the value of his shares in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-113 if:

(1) An amendment of the charter would effect the changes in his shares described in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), or (5) of subsection (a) of this Section or would to his prejudice create or increase any priority, dividend preference, cumulative dividend right, redemption price or liquidation preference of any other then issued shares, or

(2) Pursuant to a plan of recapitalization involving an offer to shareholders of his class to exchange their shares, on which there are accrued dividends or dividend credits as defined in this Chapter, for a new class of shares having preferences as to dividends or liquidation prior to shares of his class, a currently adopted amendment would authorize the corporation to issue shares of such new class, and such plan of recapitalization is consummated.

Sec. 55-102. Offer of exchange of securities for preferred shares; rights of objecting sharesholders.—(a) If an offer is made by the corporation to holders of any class of its shares having accrued dividends or dividend credits, as defined in this Chapter, to exchange said shares for securities which would be entitled to preference in the receipt of any periodical payment or dividend over said shares, and if the authority of the corporation to issue such securities would require no amendment of the charter, and if the offer is accepted by any shareholder, then any holder of said shares who objects to the terms of the offer shall have the right to be paid the value of his shares in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-113.

(b) All such offers shall be in writing and shall contain the statement, displayed with reasonable prominence, to the effect that shareholders objecting to its terms are entitled, upon compliance with the provisions of G. S. 55-113, including the twenty-day notice requirement, to be paid the fair value of their shares as therein provided, but failure to set forth such a statement shall not invalidate any consummated exchanges.

Sec. 55-103. Articles of amendment.—(a) The articles of amendment, other than for an amendment under subsection (b) of this Section, shall be executed by the corporation and filed, as provided in G. S. 55-4 and shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The amendment so adopted.

(3) The date of the adoption of the amendment by the shareholders.

(4) The number of shares outstanding, and the number of shares entitled to vote thereon, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon of each such class.

(5) The number of shares voted for and against such amendment, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such amendment, respectively.

(6) If such amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of issued shares, and if the manner in which the same shall be effected is not set forth in the amendment, then a statement of the manner in which the same shall be effected.

(7) If such amendment effects a change in the amount of stated capital of the corporation, then a statement of the manner in which the same is effected and a statement expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital as changed by such amendment. If the amendment would reduce the stated capital of the corporation, the articles may be entitled "Articles of Amendment and Reduction of Capital".

(8) Either, (a) a recital of the statement, if any, contained in the notice to shareholders in forming them, as and if required by G. S. 55-100(b)(2), of dissenter's rights to payment, or (b) a brief explanation of why the amendment does not give rise to dissenter's rights under G. S. 55-101(b).

(b) If the amendment is made by the directors or incorporators as permitted by subsection (a) of G. S. 55-100, the articles of amendment shall be executed by the directors or incorporators, as the case may be, and be filed, as provided in G. S. 55-4, and shall set forth the name of the corporation, the amendment so adopted, and the statement that the amendment is made by the directors or incorporators before the issuance of any shares.

Sec. 55-104. Effect of amendment.—No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or its officers or directors, or any pending suit to which such corporation or its officers or directors shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons other than shareholders; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

Sec. 55-105. Restated charter.—(a) At any time after its charter has been amended a corporation may by action of its board of directors, without necessity of vote of the shareholders, cause to be prepared a document entitled "Restated Charter", which shall integrate into one document its original articles of incorporation (or articles of consolidation) and all amendments thereto, including those effected by articles of merger, and any statement of classification of shares filed pursuant to G. S. 55-42 (e), except that:

(1) In lieu of the statement in the articles of incorporation regarding the minimum consideration to be received for its shares before commencing business, the restated charter shall set forth the then stated capital of the corporation;

(2) In lieu of the address of the initial registered office and the name of the initial registered agent, the restated charter shall state the address of the then registered office and the name of its then registered agent.

(b) The restated charter shall also set forth that it purports merely to restate but not to change the provisions of the original articles of incorporation as supplemented and amended and that there is no discrepancy, other than as expressly permitted by this Section, between the said provisions and the provisions of the restated charter.

(c) The restated charter shall be executed by the corporation and be filed as provided in G. S. 55-4.

(d) A copy of the restated charter certified by the Secretary of State shall be presumed, until otherwise shown, to be the full and true charter of the corporation as in effect on the date when so certified.

(e) A corporation may also integrate its articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto by the procedure provided in this Chapter for amending the charter.

Sec. 55-106. Procedure for merger.—(a) One or more domestic corporations may merge into another corporation pursuant to a plan of merger approved in the manner provided in this Chapter.

(b) The board of directors of each corporation shall, by resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of merger setting forth:

(1) The names of the corporation proposing to merge, and the name of the corporation into which they propose to merge, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

(2) The name which the surviving corporation is to have, which name may be that of any of the corporations involved in the merger or any other available name permitted by this Chapter.

(3) The terms and conditions of the proposed merger.

(4) The manner and basis of converting the shares of each merging corporation into shares or other securities or obligations of the surviving corporation.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(5) A statement of any changes in the charter of the surviving corporation to be effected by such merger.

(6) Such other provisions not inconsistent with law as are deemed necessary or desirable.

Sec. 55-107. Procedure for consolidation.—(a) Any two or more domestic corporations may consolidate into a new corporation pursuant to a plan of consolidation approved in the manner provided in this Chapter.

(b) The board of directors of each corporation shall, by resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of consolidation setting forth:

(1) The names of the corporations proposing to consolidate, and the name of the new corporation into which they propose to consolidate, which is hereinafter designated as the new corporation. The name of the new corporation may be that of any of the corporations involved in the consolidation or any other available name permitted by this Chapter.

(2) The terms and conditions of the proposed consolidation.

(3) The manner and basis of converting the shares of each corporation into shares or other securities or obligations of the new corporation.

(4) With respect to the new corporation, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for corporations organized under this Chapter, except the names and addresses of the incorporators.

(5) Such other provisions not inconsistent with law as are deemed necessary or desirable.

Sec. 55-108. Approval of merger or consolidation by shareholders.—(a) The board of directors of each corporation, upon approving such plan of merger or plan of consolidation, shall, by resolution, direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record, not less than twenty days before such meeting, in the manner provided in this Chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and shall state this as a purpose of the meeting, whether the meeting be annual or a special meeting. A copy or a summary of the plan of merger or plan of consolidation, as the case may be, shall be included in or enclosed with such notice. Such notice shall contain a statement, displayed with reasonable prominence, to the effect that dissenting shareholders are entitled, upon compliance with G. S. 55-113, including the twenty-day notice requirement, to be paid the fair value of their shares as provided in that Section, but failure of the notice to contain such a statement shall not invalidate the merger or consolidation.

(b) At each such meeting, a vote of the shareholders shall be taken on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation. Each outstanding share of each such corporation shall be entitled to vote on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation, whether or not such share otherwise has voting rights. The plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of each such corporation, unless any class of shares of any such corporation is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event, as to such corporation, the plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and a majority of all the other outstanding shares. Any class of shares of any such corporation shall be entitled to vote as a class if the plan of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, contains any provision which, if contained in a proposed amendment to the charter, would entitle such class of shares to vote as a class; and if the plan of merger or consolidation contains any provisions which, if contained in a proposed amendment to the charter of a constituent corporation, would require by the express provisions of said charter a greater vote of its shareholders than is herein otherwise required for approval of a merger or consolidation, the said plan requires the approval of the thus prescribed greater vote of the shareholders of that corporation.

(c) After such approval by a vote of the shareholders of each corporation, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

Sec. 55-108.1. Merger of wholly-owned subsidiary into parent.—Unless otherwise provided in the charter or bylaws, no approval by shareholders of the surviving domestic corporation shall be required for a merger if at the time of approval of the plan of merger by the board of directors of each of the corporations, domestic or foreign, who are parties thereto, the surviving corporation is the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other corporation, or corporations, domestic or foreign, who are parties to the merger, and the plan of merger does not provide for any changes in the charter of, or the issuance of any shares by, the surviving corporation; and in such case the articles of merger shall contain statements showing compliance with the conditions of this Section, and, in lieu of statements relating to the vote of shareholders of the surviving corporation, need only state the approval by its board of directors.

Sec. 55-109. Articles of merger or of consolidation.—(a) After the approval by the shareholders as required by G. S. 55-108, articles of merger or of consolidation shall be executed by each corporation and be filed as provided in G. S. 55-4, except that a copy thereof certified by the Secretary of State shall also be recorded in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of each county wherein the constituent corporations have their registered offices.

(b) The articles of merger or of consolidation shall set forth:

(1) The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation.

(2) As to each corporation, the number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.

(3) As to each corporation, the number of shares voted for and against such plan, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such plan, respectively.

(c) The time when the merger or consolidation is effected is determined by the provisions of G. S. 55-4.

Sec. 55-110. Effect of Merger or Consolidation.—(a) When such merger or consolidation has been effected:

(1) The several corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of a consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation;

(2) The separate existence of all corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new corporation, shall cease;

(3) Such surviving or new corporation shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this Chapter.

(b) Such surviving or new corporation shall thereupon and thereafter, to the extent consistent with its charter as established or changed by the merger or consolidation, possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, of each of the merging or consolidating corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest, of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such single corporation without further act or deed; and the title to any real estate, or any interest therein, vested in any of such corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such merger or consolidation.

(c) Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities, obligations and penalties of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated; and any claim existing or action or proceeding, civil or criminal, pending by or against any such corporations may be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place; and any judgment rendered against any of the merged or consolidated corporations may be enforced against the surviving or new corporation. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any merged or consolidated corporations shall be impaired by the merger or consolidation.

(d) In the case of a merger, the charter of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its charter are stated in the plan of merger. In the case of a consolidation, the articles of consolidation shall be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

Sec. 55-111. Merger or Consolidation of Domestic and Foreign Corporations.—(a) One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations may be merged or consolidated into a corporation of this State or of another state if such merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the state under which each such foreign corporation is organized.

(b) Each domestic corporation shall comply with the provisions of this Chapter with respect to the merger or consolidation, as the case may be, of domestic corporations and each foreign corporation shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the state under which it is organized.

(c) If the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, is a corporation of any state other than this State, it shall comply with the provisions of this Chapter with respect to foreign corporations if it is to transact business in this State; and if after the merger or consolidation it transacts no business in this State the courts of this State shall have jurisdiction in actions to enforce any obligation of any constituent corporation of this State and process therein may be served as provided in G. S. 55-145.

(d) The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is to be a corporation of this State. If the surviving or new corporation is to be a corporation of any state other than this State, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except insofar as the laws of such other state provide otherwise.

(e) If the new or surviving corporation is not a corporation in this State, then notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this Section:

(1) The rights of any holder of shares in any constitutent corporation that is a corporation of this State to receive notice of dissenters' rights, to file his dissent, upon dissent to demand and receive payment of the fair value of his shares or to avail himself of any equitable relief to which he would be entitled if the surviving or new corporation were a corporation of this State shall not be impaired, and

(2) The courts of this State shall have jurisdiction in actions to enforce the aforesaid rights against the surviving or new corporation regardless of whether or not said corporation is otherwise subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State and in any such action service of process may be made in the manner provided in this Chapter that would be applicable if said corporation were transacting business in this State.

Sec. 55-112. Sale, Lease, Exchange and Mortgage of Assets.—(a) A mortgage of or other security interest in all or any part of the property of a corporation may be made by authority of the board of directors without authorization of the shareholders, unless otherwise provided in the charter or in bylaws adopted by the shareholders.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in the charter or in the bylaws adopted by the shareholders, a sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all the property and assets of a corporation, not made for shares of the purchasing corporation, foreign or domestic, whether in a single transaction or a series of transactions, may be made by the board of directors without authorization from the shareholders if:

(1) In the judgment of the board of directors the corporation is in a failing condition and a sale for cash or its equivalent is deemed by them advisable in meeting the liabilities of the corporation, or

(2) The corporation was incorporated for the purpose of liquidating such property and assets, or

(3) The sale, lease or exchange is not made to terminate or dispose of the business in which the corporation was organized to engage, but merely as a transaction or one of a series of transactions, whether usual or unusual, to further the said business.

(c) Any other sale (whether for cash or for securities of the purchasing corporation or otherwise), or any other lease or exchange of all or substantially all the property of a corporation requires approval of the shareholders in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending such sale, lease or exchange and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

(2) Written notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this Chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting, shall state that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the proposed sale, lease or exchange. If the sale, lease or exchange would give rise to a dissenter's right of payment for his shares under this Chapter, such notice shall contain a statement, displayed with reasonable prominence, to the effect that the dissenting shareholders are entitled, upon compliance with G. S. 55-113, including the twenty-day notice requirement, to be paid the fair value of their shares as therein provided, but failure of the notice to contain such a statement shall not invalidate the sale, lease or exchange.

(3) At such meeting the shareholders may authorize such sale, lease or exchange and may fix, or may authorize the board of directors to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Each outstanding share of the corporation shall be entitled to vote thereon, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote. Such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and two-thirds of all other outstanding shares. Any class of shares shall be entitled to vote as a class if the sale, lease or exchange is for securities of another corporation, foreign or domestic, and such sale, lease or exchange is part of a plan of distribution of such securities that would effectuate such changes in that class of shares as would entitle those shares to vote as a class if the changes were contained in a proposed amendment to the charter.

(d) The board of directors may, if so empowered by such authorization of the shareholders, abandon such sale, lease or exchange, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto, without further action or approval by shareholders.

Sec. 55-113. Rights of Objecting Shareholders upon Fundamental Changes and Certain Exchanges of Shares.—(a) As used in this Section:

(1) "Sale of assets for shares" means a sale, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation, if made for, or substantially for, shares of another corporation, foreign or domestic.

(2) "Corporation" includes, if the context so indicates, the successor corporation which acquires the property of the predecessor corporation upon merger, consolidation or sale of assets for shares.

(3) With respect to offers of exchange of shares which entitle the preferred shareholders designated in G. S. 55-102 to rights under this Section, the term "effective date of the exchange" means the date on which the corporation first actually consummated such an exchange of shares or, in case it reserved the right to postpone the operation or effectiveness of all acceptances of its offer of exchange, the date on which it declared the acceptance operative or effective.

(b) Any shareholder designated in G. S. 55-101 (b) as having rights under this Section in connection with amendment of the charter or designated in G. S. 55-119 (b) as having rights under this Section in connection with dissolution and liquidation of assets in kind, or any shareholder of a corporation effecting a merger, consolidation or sale of assets for shares may give to the corporation, prior to or at the meeting of the shareholders to which the proposal of amendment, dissolution, merger, consolidation or sale of assets for shares is submitted to a vote, written notice that he objects to such proposal. Within twenty days after the date on which the vote was taken, such shareholder may, unless he voted in person or by proxy in favor of the proposal, make written demand on the corporation for payment of the fair value of his shares. Such demand shall state the number and class of shares owned by him. In addition to any other right he may have in law or equity, a shareholder giving such notice shall be entitled, if and when the amendment, dissolution, merger, consolidation or sale of assets for shares is effected, to be paid by the corporation the fair value of his shares, as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken, subject only to the surrender by him of the certificate representing his shares.

(c) Any holder of preferred shares designated in G. S. 55-102 as having a right to payment for his shares in connection with an offer of exchange of securities may, within twenty days after the date when the offer was mailed or otherwise reasonably dispatched to him, give to the corporation written notice that he objects to the terms of said offer of exchange and that he demands payment for his shares. Such notice shall state the number and class of shares owned by him. Twenty days after the effective date of the exchange or twenty days after the date of mailing or otherwise reasonably dispatching such notice, whichever date is later, a shareholder giving such notice shall, in addition to any other right he may have in law or equity, be entitled to be paid by the corporation the fair value of his shares as of the day preceding the mailing or otherwise reasonably dispatching of the notice, unless all exchange or agreements to exchange theretofore made shall have been rescinded within the applicable twenty-day period above mentioned, subject only to the surrender by him of his certificate representing his shares.

(d) If within thirty days after the date upon which the objecting shareholder becomes entitled to payment of his shares under subsections (b) and (c) of this Section the value of the shares is agreed upon between the shareholder and the corporation, payment therefor shall be made within sixty days after the agreement, upon surrender of the certificate representing the shares, whereupon the shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

(e) If within the thirty-day period mentioned in subsection (d) of this Section the shareholder and the corporation do not agree as to the value of the shares the shareholder may, within sixty days after the expiration of the thirty-day period, file a petition in Superior Court of the county of the registered office of the corporation asking for the appointment by the clerk of three qualified and disinterested appraisers to appraise the fair value of the shares. A summons as in other cases of special proceedings, together with a copy of the petition, shall be served on the corporation at least ten days prior to the hearing of the petition by the court. The award of the appraisers, or a majority of them, if no exceptions be filed thereto within ten days after the award shall have been filed in court, shall be confirmed by the court, and when confirmed shall be final and conclusive, and the shareholder upon depositing the proper share certificates in court, shall be entitled to judgment against the corporation for the appraised value thereof as of the date prescribed in this Section, together with interest thereon to the date of such confirmation. If either party files exceptions to such award within ten days after the award shall have been filed in court, the case shall be transferred to the civil issue docket of the Superior Court for trial during term and shall be there tried in the same manner, as near as may be practicable, as is provided in Chapter 40 for the trial of cases under the eminent domain law of this State, and with the same right of appeal to the Supreme Court as is permitted in said Chapter. The court shall assess the cost of said proceedings as it shall deem equitable. The fair value of any shares entitled to preference on liquidation shall in no event be found to be less than two-thirds of the amount of the preference to which said shares would have been entitled on a voluntary liquidation on the date herein prescribed for determining fair value if under the corporate change giving rise to the preferred shareholder's rights of payment any shares junior thereto retain a participation in the corporation without payment for such retention, or if the participation received by them upon any payment for such retention is found to exceed in value the amount of the said payment. Upon payment of the judgment the shareholder shall cease to have any interest in the shares or in the corporation and the corporation shall be entitled to have said share certificates surrendered to it by the clerk of court for cancellation. Unless the shareholder shall file such petition within the time herein prescribed, he and all persons claiming under him shall have no right of payment hereunder but in that event nothing herein shall impair his status as shareholder.

(f) If in the notices sent to shareholders in connection with the meeting to vote upon a proposed amendment of the charter, dissolution, merger, consolidation or sale of assets for shares or if in the offer of exchange of securities described in G. S. 55-102 no reference is made as required by this Chapter to the provisions of this Section, any shareholder entitled to but who did not avail himself of the provisions of this Section, unless he voted for the proposal or accepted the offer of exchange of securities, is entitled, if he so demands in writing within one year after the effective date of the amendment, dissolution, merger, consolidation, sale of assets for shares or exchange of securities in question, to recover from the corporation any damage which he suffered from failure of the corporation to make the aforesaid reference.

(g) The liability to pay for shares or to pay damages imposed by this Section on a corporation extends to the successor corporation which acquires the assets of the predecessor, whether by merger, consolidation or sale of assets for shares.

(h) Shares acquired by a corporation pursuant to payment of the agreed value thereof or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as in this Section provided, may be held and disposed of by the corporation as in the case of other treasury shares.

(i) The provisions of this Section shall not apply to a merger if on the date of the filing of the articles of merger the surviving corporation is the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other corporation or corporations, domestic or foreign, participating in the merger and if such merger makes no changes in the relative rights of the shareholders of the surviving corporation.

ARTICLE 9. Dissolution and Liquidation.

Sec. 55-114. Dissolution and its effect.—(a) A corporation may be dissolved in any of the following ways:

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(1) Automatically by expiration of any period of duration to which the corporation is limited by its charter;

(2) By filing in the office of the Secretary of State articles of dissolution in voluntary proceedings for dissolution as prescribed in G. S. 55-116, 117, and 118;

(3) By entry of a decree of dissolution by the Superior Court in involuntary proceedings for dissolution by the Attorney General, as prescribed in G. S. 55-122, or in proceedings to liquidate the assets and business of the corporation, as described in G. S. 55-125, or in proceedings under G. S. 55-135.

(4) By suspension of its charter under the provisions of G. S. 105-230 when the time within which the corporation's rights might be restored under G. S. 105-232 has expired; however, the provisions for liquidation of corporate assets in such cases shall be those provided in G. S. 105-232 instead of those provided in this Chapter.

(b) A dissolved corporation, however dissolved, nevertheless continues to exist for the purpose of winding up its affairs, prosecuting and defending actions by or against it, and enabling it to collect and discharge obligations, dispose of and convey its property, and collect and distribute its assets, but not for the purpose of continuing business except so far as necessary for winding up its affairs or except where G. S. 55-115 applies. Title to property of a dissolved corporation does not by reason of dissolution vest in its shareholders.

(c) After the end of the tax year in which dissolution occurs a dissolved corporation is not subject to the annual franchise tax unless it engages in business activities not reasonably incidental to winding up its affairs.

(d) The dissolution of a corporation shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation for any right or claim, not covered by subsection (f) of this Section, existing or for any liability incurred prior to such dissolution if the action or proceeding is commenced within two years after the filing of a certificate of completed liquidation, and the plaintiff or petitioner must allege and prove that the action or proceeding is commenced within such period. Nothing herein shall extend any applicable period of limitation. No action or proceeding, civil or criminal, to which a corporation is a party shall abate by reason of such dissolution or filing. Any action or proceeding by or against a dissolved corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name, and such use of the corporate name is also available to a shareholder prosecuting or defending in a derivative capacity on behalf of a dissolved corporation.

(e) A corporation dissolved under this or any prior Act shall have the power to maintain, or to re-establish after failure to maintain, a board of directors and officers to wind up its affairs, and its shareholders, directors and officers shall have the power to take corporate action appropriate to that end.

(f) Even after the filing of a certificate of completed liquidation or the entry of a court order declaring liquidation completed, title to any corporate assets inadvertently omitted from a liquidation purportedly completed shall remain in the corporation and, for the purpose of administering or liquidating any such assets or determining the corporation's interest therein, the dissolved corporation shall have power to sue and defend in legal actions or proceedings and fully to act in its corporate name through either its board of directors and officers maintained or re-established as permitted in this Section or through a majority of the last board of directors then living, however reduced in numbers, acting either directly themselves or through the last officers of the corporation.

Sec. 55-115. Extension of Duration after Expiration.—(a) If a corporation has continued to conduct its business after the expiration of its charter, it may at any time amend its charter so as to extend or perpetuate its period of existence. Expiration of a charter does not of itself create any vested right on the part of any shareholder or creditor to prevent such charter amendment.

(b) No acts or contracts of a corporation during the period within which it could have extended its existence as permitted in this Section, whether or not it has taken action so to extend its existence, shall be in any degree invalidated by the expiration of the charter.

Sec. 55-116. Voluntary Dissolution by Directors.—(a) A corporation may be voluntarily dissolved by majority vote of the directors then in office in the following cases:

(1) When the corporation has not commenced business and has not received any payment on any subscription to its shares.

(2) When a corporation has been adjudged to be bankrupt.

(3) When a corporation has made a general assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(4) By leave of court, when a receiver has been appointed in any suit in which the affairs of the corporation are to be wound up.

(5) When substantially all of the assets have been sold at judicial sale or have been sold for the purpose of terminating the business of the corporation.

(b) To effectuate dissolution under this Section, articles of dissolution shall be executed by a majority of the directors then in office and shall be filed, in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4, setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The names and respective addresses of its officers, if any.

(3) The names and respective addresses of its directors.

(4) A statement showing one or more of the grounds of voluntary dissolution mentioned in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subsection (a) of this Section.

(5) That a majority of the directors have determined by majority vote to dissolve the corporation.

Sec. 55-117. Voluntary Dissolution by Written Consent of Shareholders.—(a) A corporation may be voluntarily dissolved pursuant to the written consent of all of its shareholders. No meeting or notice of meeting is necessary. To effectuate such dissolution, articles of dissolution shall be executed by the corporation and shall be filed, in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4, setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The names and respective addresses of its officers.

(3) The names and respective addresses of its directors.

(4) A statement that written consent to the dissolution of the corporation has been signed by all shareholders of the corporation or signed in their names by their attorneys thereunto duly authorized, which statement shall have attached thereto such written consent duly signed.

Sec. 55-118. Voluntary Dissolution by Action of Directors and Shareholders.—(a) A corporation may be voluntarily dissolved by action of the directors and shareholders in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the corporation be dissolved, and directing that the question of such dissolution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

(2) Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record within the time and in the manner provided in this Chapter for giving of notice of meeting of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or special meeting, shall state that the purpose or one of the purposes is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation. If the proposal to dissolve contemplates a plan of liquidation whereby substantially all the assets distributable to the shareholders are to be conveyed, transferred, or assigned to them collectively as co-owners, the notice shall so inform the shareholders and shall contain a statement displayed with reasonable prominence to the effect that dissenting shareholders are entitled, upon compliance with G. S. 55-113, to be paid the fair value of their shares as provided in that Section, but failure of the notice to contain such a statement shall not invalidate the dissolution.

(3) At such meeting a vote may be taken on any resolution to dissolve the corporation. Each outstanding share of the corporation shall be entitled to vote thereon, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote. Such resolution shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event the resolution shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of two-thirds of the other outstanding shares.

(b) To effectuate such dissolution, articles of dissolution shall be executed by the corporation and shall be filed, in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4, setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The names and respective addresses of its officers.

(3) The names and respective addresses of its directors.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(4) A copy of the resolution adopted by the shareholders authorizing the dissolution of the corporation.

(5) The number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.

(6) The number of shares voted for and against the resolution, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class and of the other outstanding shares voted for and against the resolution, respectively.

Sec. 55-119. Procedure after Filing Articles of Dissolution.—(a) After the filing of articles of dissolution in the office of the Secretary of State, the corporation shall, except in case of dissolution under G. S. 55-116 (a) (2), (3) and (4), immediately cause notice of the dissolution to be mailed to each known creditor of the corporation, and to the Commissioner of Revenue, and such notice shall be published once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county wherein the corporation has its registered office, and, if there be no newspaper published in such county, then in some newspaper of general circulation in such county. The corporation shall then proceed to collect its assets, convey and dispose of such of its properties as are not to be distributed in kind to its shareholders, pay, satisfy and discharge its liabilities and obligations and do all other acts required to liquidate its business and affairs, including the collection of unpaid subscriptions necessary to equalize the agreed payments by subscribers of its shares. After paying or adequately providing for the payment of all its obligations, the corporation shall distribute the remainder of its assets, either in cash or in kind, among its shareholders according to their respective rights and interests.

(b) If liquidation is effected by transfer of assets in kind to the shareholders collectively as co-owners, an objecting shareholder so demanding is entitled to be paid the fair value of his shares or damages in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-113.

Sec. 55-120. Revocation and Cancellation of Voluntary Dissolution Proceedings.—(a) At any time after the filing of articles of dissolution and prior to the filing of a certificate of completed liquidation, a dissolution effected under G. S. 55-116, G. S. 55-117 or G. S. 55-118 may be revoked by the filing of a statement of revocation of dissolution. The contents of such a statement and the proceedings taken so to revoke a dissolution shall conform with such adaptions as are appropriate to revocation to either (1) those prescribed in the Section under which the dissolution was effected, or (2) those prescribed in G. S. 55-117 or G. S. 55-118.

(b) Upon the filing of such statement of revocation of dissolution in the office of the Secretary of State, the revocation of the voluntary dissolution proceedings shall become effective and the corporation may again carry on business.

(c) If a dissolution has been effected by the filing of articles of dissolution containing false statements of facts which if truthfully stated would not have met the requirements of this Chapter for a dissolution, any shareholder may maintain an action to cancel the said articles of dissolution and to restore the charter of the corporation unless liquidation has theretofore proceeded so far as to make such cancellation and restoration impracticable. Such action shall be brought in the county in which the corporation has its registered office or its principal place of business. Upon the filing in the office of the Secretary of State of a decree of cancellation of said articles of dissolution, the corporation's charter and its right to do business thereunder shall be thereby restored.

Sec. 55-121. Completion of Liquidation in Voluntary Dissolution Proceedings.—(a) When all liabilities and obligations of a dissolved corporation have been paid and discharged, or adequate provision has been made therefor, and all of the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been distributed to its shareholders pursuant to G. S. 55-119, a Certificate of Completed Liquidation shall be executed by the corporation and shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 55-4, setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) That articles of dissolution have theretofore been filed in the office of the Secretary of State, the date on which articles were filed, and that the dissolution thereby effected has not been revoked.

(3) That all liabilities and obligations of the corporation have been paid and discharged or that adequate provision has been made therefor.

(4) That the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been distributed among its shareholders in accordance with their respective rights and interests.

(b) Upon the filing of such certificate in the office of the Secretary of State in accordance with G. S. 55-4, the existence of the corporation shall cease except as otherwise provided in this Article.

(c) The Secretary of State shall not file the Certificate of Completed Liquidation until the receipt by him of a notice from the Commissioner of Revenue to the effect that such corporation has met the requirements with respect to reports and taxes required by the revenue laws of the State of North Carolina.

Sec. 55-122. Involuntary Dissolution in Action by Attorney General.—(a) A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by a decree of the Superior Court in an action brought by the Attorney General in the name of the State when it is established that:

(1) The charter of the corporation was procured through fraud; or

(2) The corporation has without justification refused to comply with a final court order for the production of its books, records, or other documents as provided in G. S. 55-38; or

(3) The corporation has, after written notice by the Attorney General given at least twenty days prior thereto, continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law to the injury of the public or of its shareholders, creditors, or debtors; or

(4) The corporation has, after written notice by the Attorney General

given at least twenty days prior thereto, failed for thirty days to meet the requirements of G. S. 55-13 with respect to appointing and maintaining a registered agent in this State; or

(5) The corporation has, after written notice by the Attorney General given at least twenty days prior thereto, failed for thirty days after change of its registered office or registered agent to file in the office of the Secretary of State the statement required by G. S. 55-14.

Sec. 55-123. Duties of the Attorney General with Respect to Actions for Involuntary Dissolution.—Whenever the Attorney General has reason to believe that any corporation has given cause for dissolution as provided in G. S. 58-122 and the case involves the public interest, it is the duty of the Attorney General to bring an action under that Section. If the cause for dissolution does not involve the public interest, the Attorney General has a duty to bring an action if satisfactory security is given to indemnify the State against the costs and expenses to be incurred thereby.

Sec. 55-124. Venue and Service of Process.—Every action by the Attorney General for the involuntary dissolution of a corporation shall be commenced in the Superior Court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated. Summons shall issue and be served as in other civil actions.

Sec. 55-125. Power of Courts to Liquidate and Decree Involuntary Dissolution.—(a) The Superior Court shall have power to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation in an action by a shareholder when it is established that:

(1) The directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs and the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, so that the business can no longer be conducted to the advantage of all the shareholders; or

(2) The shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and for that reason have been unable at two consecutive annual meetings to elect successors to directors whose terms had expired; or

(3) All of the present shareholders are parties to, or are transferees or subscribers of shares with actual notice of a written agreement, whether embodied in the charter or separate therefrom, entitling the complaining shareholder to liquidation or dissolution of the corporation at will or upon the occurrence of some event which has subsequently occurred; or

(4) Liquidation is reasonably necessary for the protection of the rights or interests of the complaining shareholder.

(b) The Superior Court shall have power to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation in an action by a creditor:

(1) When the claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment and an execution thereon returned unsatisfied; or

(2) When the corporation admits in writing that the claim of the creditor is due and it is established that the corporation is unable to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business.

(c) A court that has undertaken the liquidation of the assets and business of a corporation under subsections (a) or (b) of this Section may at any time enter a decree dissolving the corporation, and shall upon application of any interested party enter an order declaring liquidation completed.

(d) Actions under this Section shall be brought in the county in which the corporation has its registered office or its principal place of business.

(e) Summons shall issue and be served on the corporation as in other civil actions, and it shall not be necessary to make shareholders parties to any such actions unless relief is sought against them personally.

(f) The Superior Court shall have power to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation when an action has been filed by the Attorney General to dissolve a corporation and it is established that liquidation of its assets and business should precede the entry of a decree of dissolution.

Sec. 55-126. Application for Liquidation by Court after Dissolution.—A corporation, at any time after voluntary dissolution and during the liquidation of its business and affairs, may make application to the Superior Court of the county in which the registered office or principal place of business of the corporation is situated to have the liquidation conducted or continued under the supervision of the court and, upon the granting of such application, the liquidation shall proceed as provided in this Chapter. Similar application may be made after liquidation has been purportedly completed in either voluntary or involuntary dissolution, when it subsequently appears that newly discovered or inadvertently omitted assets require liquidation, and if no director or appropriate officer makes such application, the application may be made by any creditor or any shareholder or any person having an interest in such liquidation, including the University of North Carolina.

Sec. 55-127. Procedure in Liquidation of Corporation by Court.—In an action to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation, the court shall appoint receivers and the receivers so appointed shall have such powers and duties as are provided in Article 38, Chapter 1 of the General Statutes of North Carolina.

Sec. 55-128. Discontinuance of Liquidation Action.—The liquidation of the assets and business of a corporation may be discontinued at any time during the liquidation proceedings when it is established that cause for liquidation no longer exists. In such event the court shall dismiss the action and direct the redelivery to the corporation of all its remaining property and assets, and shall decree cancellation of any prior dissolution.

Sec. 55-129. Duties of Officials as to Decrees and Orders concerning Dissolution.—A court decree effecting or canceling a dissolution of a corporation or a court order declaring liquidation completed shall contain a direction to the clerk of that court promptly to file one certified copy of such decree or order with the Secretary of State and also to file a certified copy thereof with the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county wherein the corporation has its registered office, unless the decree or order was entered in that court. The fees for the preparation, certificates, and filing of such decree or order shall be taxed as a part of the costs in the action.

Sec. 55-130. Disposition of Amounts Due to Unavailable Shareholders and Creditors.—Upon liquidation of a corporation, the portion of the assets distributable to a creditor or shareholder who is unknown or cannot be found, shall be reduced to cash and deposited with the Clerk of Superior Court of the county of the registered office of the corporation to be held three months for the persons respectively entitled thereto, as and when satisfactory evidence of their right to the same is furnished. After the clerk has held the unclaimed cash for the aforesaid period of three months, he shall pay such assets to the University of North Carolina, to be held without liability for profit or interest until a just claim therefor shall be preferred by the parties entitled thereto.

ARTICLE 10. Foreign Corporations.

Sec. 55-131. Right to Transact Business.—(a) A foreign corporation shall procure a certificate of authority from the Secretary of State before it shall transact business in this State. No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this Chapter to transact in this State any business which a corporation organized under this Chapter is not permitted to transact. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this State.

(b) Without excluding other activities which may not constitute transacting business in this State, a foreign corporation shall not be considered to be transacting business in this State, for the purpose of this Chapter, by reason of carrying on in this State any one or more of the following activities:

(1) Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceeding, or effecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or disputes.

(2) Holding meetings of its directors or shareholders or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs.

(3) Maintaining bank accounts or borrowing money in this State, with or without security, even if such borrowings are repeated and continuous transactions.

(4) Maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of its securities, or appointing and maintaining trustees or depositaries with relation to its securities.

(5) Soliciting or procuring orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, where such orders require acceptance without this State before becoming binding contracts.

(6) Making or investing in loans with or without security including servicing of mortgages or deeds of trust through independent agencies within the State, the conducting of foreclosure proceedings and sale, the acquiring of property at foreclosure sale and the management and rental of such property for a reasonable time while liquidating its investment, provided no office or agency therefor is maintained in this State.

(7) Taking security for or collecting debts due to it or enforcing any rights in property securing the same.

(8) Transacting business in interstate commerce.

(9) Conducting an isolated transaction completed within a period of six months and not in the course of a number of repeated transactions of like nature.

(c) No part of this Section applies to insurance companies except subsection (b) (6).

Sec. 55-132. Powers of Foreign Corporation.—(a) A foreign corporation which shall have received a certificate of authority under this Chapter shall, until a certificate of revocation or of withdrawal shall have been issued as provided in this Chapter, enjoy the same, but not greater, rights and privileges as a domestic corporation organized for the purposes set forth in the application pursuant to which such certificate of authority is issued.

(b) A foreign corporation, however, is not eligible or entitled to qualify in this State as executor, administrator, or guardian, or as trustee under the will of any person domiciled in this State at the time of his death.

Sec. 55-133. Dismissal of Actions Against Foreign Corporations.—(a) No action in the courts of this State shall be dismissed solely on the ground that it involves the internal affairs of a foreign corporation but the court may in its discretion dismiss such an action if it appears that more adequate relief can be granted or that the convenience of the parties would be better served by an action brought in the jurisdiction of its incorporation or in the jurisdiction where the corporation has its executive or managerial headquarters or, because of the circumstances, in some other jurisdiction.

(b) Any action upon a cause of action not arising out of business transacted or activities performed in this State brought against a foreign corporation by a nonresident of this State may in the discretion of the court be dismissed if it appears that the convenience of the parties would be better served by an action brought in some other jurisdiction.

Sec. 55-134. Omitted.

Sec. 55-136. Omitted.

Sec. 55-137. Corporate Name of Foreign Corporation.—(a) No certificate of authority shall be issued to a foreign corporation unless the corporate name of such corporation shall contain the wording "corporation," "incorporated," "limited," or "company," or shall contain an abbreviation of one of such words, or such corporation shall, for use in this State, add at the end of its name one of such words or an abbreviation thereof.

(b) The corporate name shall not contain any word or phrase which is likely to mislead the public or which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its charter.

(c) The corporate name shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation or any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State, whether for profit or not for profit, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner prescribed in G. S. 55-12.

(d) Whenever a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact business in this State shall change its name to one under which a certificate of authority would not be granted to it on application therefor, the certificate of authority of such corporation shall not be deemed to permit the use in its business in this State of the new name nor shall any new certificate of authority be granted to it under the new name.

Sec. 55-138. Application for Certificate of Authority.—(a) A foreign corporation, in order to procure a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, shall make application therefor to the Secretary of State, which application shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(2) If the name of the corporation does not contain the word "corporation," "incorporated," "limited," or "company," or does not contain an abbreviation of one of such words, then the name of the corporation with the word or abbreviation which it elects to add thereto for use in this State.

(3) The date of incorporation and the period of duration of the corporation.

(4) The address of the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(5) The address of the proposed registered office of the corporation in this State, and the name of its proposed registered agent in this State at such address.

(6) The purpose or purposes of the corporation which it proposes to pursue in the transaction of business in this State.

such registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office.

(b) Such application shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of its officers signing such application.

Sec. 55-139. Filing of Application for Certificate of Authority.—(a) The application of the corporation for a certificate of authority and one conformed copy thereof shall be delivered to the Secretary of State, together with one copy of its articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, or where that is permitted by the laws of the place of its incorporation, one copy of its restated or integrated or consolidated charter, duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(b) If the Secretary of State finds that the application conforms to law he shall, when all taxes and fees have been tendered as in this Chapter prescribed:

(1) Endorse on each of such documents the word "filed" and the hour, day, month, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File in his office the application and the copy of the articles of incorporation and amendments thereto or of one of the substitute documents mentioned in subsection (a) of this Section.

(3) Issue a certificate of authority to transact business in this State to which he shall affix the conformed copy of the application.

(4) Send to the corporation or its representative the certificate of authority, together with the conformed copy of the application affixed thereto.

Sec. 55-140. Effect of Certificate of Authority.—Upon the issuance of a certificate of authority by the Secretary of State, the corporation shall be authorized to transact business in this State for those purposes set forth in its application, subject, however, to the right of this State to suspend or to revoke such authority as provided in this Chapter.

Sec. 55-141. Registered Office and Registered Agent of Foreign Corporation.—(a) Each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall establish and continuously maintain in this State:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its place of business in this State.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this State whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State, having a business office identical with such registered office.

Sec. 55-142. Change of Registered Office or Registered Agent of Foreign Corporation.—(a) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State may change its registered office or change its registered agent, or both, upon filing in the office of the Secretary of State a statement setting forth:

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The address, including street and number, if any, of its then registered office.

(3) If the address of its registered office be changed, the address, including street and number, if any, to which the registered office is to be changed.

(4) The name of its then registered agent.

(5) If its registered agent be changed, the name of its successor registered agent.

(6) That the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.

(b) Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of its officers signing the statement.

(c) If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this Chapter, he shall file such statement in his office, and upon such filing the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

Sec. 55-143. Suits against Foreign Corporations Authorized to Transact Business in This State.—(a) The registered agent appointed by a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

(b) Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this State, or whenever any such registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, then the Secretary of State shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served.

(c) Service on any such agent may be made in a suit upon any cause of action, whether or not arising in this State or arising out of business transacted in this State, and whether or not the cause of action runs in favor of a resident of this State.

Sec. 55-144. Suits against Foreign Corporations Transacting Business in the State Without Authorization.—Whenever a foreign corporation shall transact business in this State without first procuring a certificate of authority so to do from the Secretary of State or after its certificate of authority shall have been withdrawn, suspended, or revoked, then the Secretary of State shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand in any suit upon a cause of action arising out of such business may be served.

Sec. 55-145. Jurisdiction over Foreign Corporations Not Transacting Business in this State.—(a) Every foreign corporation shall be subject to suit in this State, by a resident of this State or by a person having a usual place of business in this State, whether or not such foreign corporation is transacting or has transacted business in this State and whether or not it is engaged exclusively in interstate or foreign commerce, on any cause of action arising as follows:

(1) Out of any contract made in this State or to be performed in this State; or

(2) Out of any business solicited in this State by mail or otherwise if the corporation has repeatedly so solicited business, whether the orders or offers relating thereto were accepted within or without the State; or

(3) Out of the production, manufacture, or distribution of goods by such corporation with the reasonable expectation that those goods are to be used or consumed in this State and are so used or consumed, regardless of how or where the goods were produced, manufactured, marketed, or sold or whether or not through the medium of independent contractors or dealers; or

(4) Out of tortious conduct in this State, whether arising out of repeated activity or single acts, and whether arising out of misfeasance or nonfeasance.

(b) Whenever a foreign parent corporation is subject to liability for any obligations of a subsidiary corporation that is subject to suit in this State, the parent corporation is itself so subject in any action to enforce the said liability. In any such action against a foreign corporation, service may be made on any person who could be served in an action against such subsidiary corporation.

(c) Any foreign corporation subject to suit under this Section may, even though it is not transacting business in this State, appoint and maintain a registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this State, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State. Such appointment shall take place by filing in the office of the Secretary of State a statement setting forth the name and address of the corporation and the address of its principal office, and the name and address in this State of the registered agent. The registered agent appointed by a foreign corporation pursuant to this Section shall be an agent of the corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand in any cause of action arising under this Section may be served. In any case where a foreign corporation is subject to suit under this Section and has failed to appoint and maintain a registered agent upon whom process might be served, or whenever such registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the address given, then the Secretary of State shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process in any such cause of action may be served.

Sec. 55-146. Service on Foreign Corporations by Service on Secretary of State.—(a) Service on the Secretary of State, when he is agent of a foreign corporation as provided in this Chapter, of any process, notice or demand shall be made by the sheriff delivering to and leaving with the Secretary of State duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

Service of process on the foreign corporation shall be deemed complete when the Secretary of State is so served. The Secretary of State shall endorse upon both copies the time of receipt and shall forthwith send one of such copies by registered mail with return receipt requested addressed to such corporation at its principal office as it appears in the records of the Secretary of State or, if there is no address of the corporation on file with the Secretary of State, then to said corporation at its office as shown in the official registry of the state of its incorporation. The Secretary of State may require the plaintiff or his attorney to furnish such address. A copy of the complaint or order of the clerk extending the time for filing the complaint must be mailed to the corporation with the copy of the summons. When a copy of the complaint is not mailed with the summons, the Secretary of State shall mail a copy of the complaint when it is served on him in the same manner as the copy of summons is required to be mailed.

(b) Upon the return to the Secretary of State of the requested return receipt showing delivery and acceptance of such registered mail, or upon the return of such registered mail showing refusal thereof by such foreign corporation, the Secretary of State shall note thereon the date of such return to him and shall attach either the return receipt or such refused mail including the envelope, as the case may be, to the copy of the process, notice or demand theretofore retained by him and shall mail the same to the clerk of the court in which such action or proceeding is pending and in respect of which such process, notice or demand was issued. Such mailing, in addition to the return by the sheriff, shall constitute the due return required by law. The clerk of the court shall thereupon file the same as a paper in such action or proceeding.

(c) Service made under this Section shall have the same legal force and validity as if the service had been made personally in this State. The refusal of any such foreign corporation to accept delivery of the registered mail provided for in subsection (a) of this Section or the refusal to sign the return receipt shall not affect the validity of such service; and any foreign corporation refusing to accept delivery of such registered mail shall be charged with knowledge of the contents of any process, notice or demand contained therein.

(d) Whenever service of process is made upon the Secretary of State as herein provided the defendant foreign corporation shall have thirty (30) days from the date when the defendant receives or refuses to accept the registered mail containing the copy of the complaint sent as in this Section provided in which to appear and answer the complaint in the action or proceeding so instituted. Entries on the defendant's return receipt or the refused registered mail shall be sufficient evidence of such date. If the date of acceptance or refusal to accept the registered mail cannot be determined from the entries on the return receipt or from notations of the postal authorities on the envelope, then the date when the defendant accepted or refused to accept the registered mail shall be deemed to be the date that the return receipt or the registered mail was received back by the Secretary of State.

(e) The court in which the action is pending shall order such additional time as may be necessary to afford the defendant reasonable opportunity to answer the complaint and defend the action.

(f) The Secretary of State shall keep a summarized record of all processes, notices, and demands served upon him under this Section, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

(g) Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

Sec. 55-147. Amendment to Charter of Foreign Corporation.—Whenever the charter of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State is amended, such foreign corporation shall, within thirty days after such amendment becomes effective, file in the office of the Secretary of State a copy of such amendment duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated; but the filing thereof shall not of itself amend its certificate of authority.

Sec. 55-148. Merger of Foreign Corporation Authorized to Transact Business in This State.—Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall be a party to a statutory merger permitted by the laws of the state or country under which it is incorporated, and such corporation shall be the surviving corporation, it shall, within thirty days after such merger becomes effective, file with the Secretary of State a copy of the articles of merger duly authenticiated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which such statutory merger was effected. It shall not be necessary for such corporation to procure either a new or amended certificate of authority to transact business in this State unless the name of such corporation be changed thereby or unless the corporation desires to pursue in this State other or additional purposes than those which it is then authorized to pursue in this State.

Sec. 55-149. Amended Certificate of Authority.—(a) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall procure an amended certificate of authority in the event it changes its corporate name, or desires to pursue in this State other or additional purposes than those set forth in its prior application for a certificate of authority, by making application therefor to the Secretary of State.

(b) The requirements in respect to the form, the manner of its execution, the filing of the application and the conformed copy thereof with the Secretary of State, the issuance of an amended certificate of authority and the effect thereof, shall be the same as in the case of an original application for a certificate of authority. The contents of such application need not be the same as in the case of an original application for a certificate of authority provided the application sets forth information as to the changes proposed.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

Sec. 55-150. Withdrawal of Foreign Corporation.—(a) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State may withdraw from this State upon procuring from the Secretary of State a certificate of withdrawal.

(b) In order to procure such certificate of withdrawal, such foreign corporation shall deliver to the Secretary of State an application for withdrawal, together with a conformed copy thereof, which shall set forth:

(1) The name and postoffice address of the principal office of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(2) That the corporation is not transacting business in this State.

(3) That the corporation surrenders its authority to transact business in this State.

(4) That the corporation either continues its registered agent in this State or revokes his authority to accept service of process and consents that service of process in any action or proceeding based upon any cause of action arising in this State, or arising out of business transacted in this State, during the time the corporation was authorized to transact business in this State may thereafter be made on such corporation by service thereof on the Secretary of State.

(5) If required by the Commissioner of Revenue, such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to determine and assess any unpaid taxes and fees payable under the laws of this State.

(c) The application for withdrawal shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of its officers signing such application, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee and verified by him.

(d) If the Secretary of State finds that such application conforms to law, he shall, when notified by the Commissioner of Revenue that such corporation has met the requirements with respect to reports and taxes required by the revenue laws of this State:

(1) Endorse on each of such documents the word "filed," and the hour, day, month and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File the application in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of withdrawal to which he shall affix the conformed copy.

(e) The certificate of withdrawal, together with the conformed copy of the application for withdrawal affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative. Upon the issuance of such certificate of withdrawal, the authority of the corporation to transact business in this State shall cease.

Sec. 55-151. Revocation of Certificate of Authority.—(a) The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this State may be revoked by the Secretary of State upon the conditions prescribed in this Section when:

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

(1) The corporation has failed for a period of 30 days to establish and maintain a registered office as required by G. S. 55-141; or

(2) The corporation has failed for a period of 30 days to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this State as required by G. S. 55-141; or

(3) The corporation has failed for a period of 30 days after change of its registered office or registered agent to file in the office of the Secretary of State a statement of such change pursuant to G. S. 55-142; or

(4) The corporation has failed to file in the office of the Secretary of State any amendment to its charter or any articles of merger within the time prescribed by G. S. 55-147 and G. S. 55-148; or

(5) A willful misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to this Chapter; or

(6) The corporation has, without justification, refused to comply with a court order made pursuant to G. S. 55-38; or

(7) The corporation is exceeding the authority conferred upon it by this Chapter.

(b) On the happening of any the events set out in subsection (a) of this Section, the Secretary of State shall give not less than twenty days written notice to the corporation that he intends to revoke the certificate of authority of such corporation for one of the said causes, specifying the same. Such notice shall be given by mail duly addressed to the corporation at its registered office in this State and at its principal office outside the State, as shown by the records in the office of the Secretary of State. If, before the expiration of the time stated in the notice, the corporation establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State the fact that the stated cause for the revocation of its certificate of authority did not exist as of the time the notice was mailed or, if it did exist at said time, has been cured, then the Secretary of State shall take no further action. Otherwise, on the expiration of the time stated in the notice, he shall revoke the certificate of authority.

(c) Nothing herein shall be deemed to repeal or modify any provision of the Revenue Act relating to the suspension of the certificate of authority of foreign corporations for failure to comply with the provisions thereof.

Sec. 55-152. Issuance of Certificate of Revocation.—(a) To revoke any such certificate of authority, the Secretary of State shall:

(1) Issue a certificate of revocation in triplicate.

(2) File one of such certificates in his office.

(3) Mail one of such certificates to such corporation at its registered office in this State and one to the corporation at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, as shown by the records in the office of the Secretary of State.

section (d) of this Section, foreign corporations which have been duly domesticated in this State at the time this Chapter takes effect shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges applicable to foreign corporations procuring authority to transact business in this State under this Chapter, and from the time this Chapter takes effect such corporations shall be subject to all the limitations, restrictions, liabilities, and duties prescribed herein for foreign corporations procuring under this Chapter authority to transact business in this State.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this Section, such corporations shall, after this Chapter takes effect, designate a registered office and appoint a registered agent in the manner provided in this Chapter for change of registered office or registered agent.

(c) If any foreign corporation has, prior to the effective date of this Chapter, filed with the Secretary of State a statement designating a principal office within this State and agent in charge thereof and has continued to maintain the same, it shall not be required to, but it may, designate a new registered office and agent as provided in subsection (b) of this Section.

(d) If there is no office and agent registered in the office of the Secretary of State, then service of process may be made on the Secretary of State, as provided in G. S. 55-146 when there is no registered agent, until such time as a registered office is designated and a registered agent appointed.

(e) No foreign corporation which has been domesticated under the provisions of prior Acts before this Chapter becomes effective shall hereafter have greater immunity from local judisdiction than foreign corporations hereafter procuring a certificate of authority to transact business in this State and, to this end, every such domesticated foreign corporation, by continuing as a domesticated corporation in this State for a period of 90 days after this Chapter becomes effective, shall be deemed to have expressly appointed the Secretary of State as its agent to receive service of process as fully as if it had made an application for a certificate of authority pursuant to the requirements of G. S. 55-138.

Sec. 55-154. Transacting Business Without Certficate of Authority.—(a) No foreign corporation transacting business in this State without permission obtained through a certificate of authority under this Chapter or through domestication under prior Acts shall be permitted to maintain any action or proceeding in any court of this State unless such corporation shall have obtained a certificate of authority prior to trial; nor shall any action or proceeding be maintained in any court of this State by any successor or assignee of such corporation on any cause of action arising out of the transaction of business by such corporation in this State until:

(1) A certificate of authority shall have been obtained by such corporation or by a foreign corporation which has acquired substantially all of its assets, or

(2) Substantially all of its assets have been acquired by a domestic corporation or one or more individuals.

NOTE: This Act is not effective until July 1, 1957.

An issue arising under this subsection must be raised by motion and determined by the trial judge prior to trial.

(b) The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this State shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action or proceeding in any court of this State.

(c) A foreign corporation failing to obtain permission to transact business in this State as required by this Chapter or by prior Acts then applicable shall be liable to the State for the years or parts thereof during which it transacted business in this State without such permission in an amount equal to all fees and taxes which would have been imposed by law upon such corporation had it duly applied for and received such permission plus interest and all penalties imposed by law for failure to pay such fees and taxes, plus five hundred dollars ($500.00) and costs. ARTICLE 13. Miscellaneous Provisions.

Sec. 55-165. Interrogatories by Secretary of State.—The Secretary of State may propound to any corporation, domestic or foreign which he has reason to believe is subject to the provisions of this Chapter, and to any officer or director thereof, such written interrogatories as may be reasonably necessary and proper to enable him to ascertain whether such corporation is subject to the provisions of this Chapter or has compiled with all the provisions of this Chapter applicable to it. Such interrogatories shall be answered within thirty days after the mailing thereof, or within such additional time as shall be fixed by the Secretary of State, and the answers thereto shall be full and complete and shall be made in writing and under oath. If such interrogatories be directed to an individual they shall be answered by him, and if directed to a corporation they shall be answered by the president, vice president, secretary or assistant secretary thereof. The Secretary of State need not file any document to which such interrogatories relate until such interrogatories be answered as herein provided, and not then if the answers thereto disclose that such document is not in conformity with the provisions of this Chapter. The Secretary of State shall certify to the Attorney General, for such action as the Attorney General may deem appropriate, all interrogatories and answers thereto which disclose a violation of any of the provisions of this Chapter, requiring or permitting action by the Attorney General.

Sec. 55-166. Penalties Imposed Upon Corporations, Officers and Directors for Failure to Answer Interrogatories.—(a) Each corporation, domestic or foreign, that fails or refuses to answer truthfully and fully within the time prescribed by this Chapter interrogatories propounded by the Secretary of State in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Each officer and director of a corporation, domestic or foreign, who fails or refuses within the time prescribed by this Chapter to answer truthfully and fully interrogatories propounded to him by the Secretary of State in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, or who signs any articles, statement, report, application or other document filed with the Secretary of State which is known to such officer or director to be false in any material respect, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 55-167. Information Disclosed by Interrogatories.—Interrogatories propounded by the Secretary of State and the answers thereto shall not be open to public inspection nor shall the Secretary of State disclose any facts or information obtained therefrom except insofar as his official duty may require the same to be made public or in the event such interrogatories or the answers thereto are required for evidence in any criminal proceedings or in any other action or proceedings by this State.

Sec. 55-168. Powers of Secretary of State.—The Secretary of State shall have the power and authority reasonably necessary to enable him to administer this Chapter efficiently and to perform the duties therein imposed upon him.

Sec. 55-169. Sec. 55-170. Forms of Documents Required to be Filed in the Office of the Secretary of State.—Any document required to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State shall be made in such form, if any, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter.

Sec. 55-171. Photostatic Copies of Documents Acceptable for Filing or Recording.—When any document is required or permitted to be filed or recorded by this Chapter, a photostatic or other photographic copy of such document may be filed or recorded in lieu of the original instrument. Sec. 55-174. Reserve Power.—The General Assembly reserves the power to amend or repeal the charter of any corporation hereafter or heretofore formed and to amend or repeal this Chapter or any part thereof, and the rights of any corporation or of any shareholder, director or officer in any corporation are subject to this reservation. This Chapter, including this reservation, is a part of the charter contract between the shareholders. The power so reserved includes the power to authorize charter amendments which are to be effectuated pursuant to consent by the shareholders in the manner permitted by this Chapter, as now enacted or as subsequently amended.

Sec. 55-175. Cross References.—Whenever in this Chapter, as enacted or as hereafter amended, whether by enactment of additional provisions or otherwise, reference is made to a Section of this Chapter or of any other Chapter of the Statutes of this State, such reference shall, unless otherwise provided, extend to and include any amendment of the Section so referred to or any Section hereafter enacted in lieu of the Section so referred to.

Sec. 55-176. But whenever the reports are delivered in accordance with law, the vouchers shall be signed and the supervisor, principal, or teacher paid.

Sec. 14. Superintendents may suspend principals and teachers. County and city superintendents shall have authority to suspend any principal or teacher who shall fail, or who may be incompetent, to give instruction in accordance with the directions of the superintendent, or who shall wilfully refuse to cooperate in teachers' meetings: Provided, that any principal or teacher who may be suspended by the superintendent, shall have the right to appeal first to the board of education and then, if not satisfied, to the courts.

Sec. 15. City superintendents, powers, duties and responsibilities. All the powers, duties and responsibilities imposed by law upon the superintendents of county administrative units shall, with respect to city administrative units, be imposed upon, and exercised by, the superintendents of city administrative units, in the same manner and to the same extent, insofar as applicable thereto, as such powers and duties are exercised and performed by superintendents of county administrative units with reference to said county administrative units.

School Committees—Their Duties and Powers

Section 1. Eligibility and oath of office. Each school committeeman shall be a person of intelligence, of good moral character, of good business qualifications, and one who is known to be in favor of public education and who resides in the district; and before entering upon the duties of his office, he shall take oath for the faithful performance thereof, which oath may be taken before the county superintendent.

No person, while employed as teacher in either a public school or a private school, or while serving as a member of any county or city board of education or serving as an employee of the schools or who is prohibited by Article XIV, Section seven, of the Constitution, shall be eligible to serve as a member of a district committee.

Sec. 2. School committees. At the first regular meeting during the month of April, one thousand nine hundred fifty-seven, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and biennially thereafter, the county board of education named by the General Assembly which convened in January of such year or elected at the preceding general election, as the case may be, shall elect and appoint school committees for each of the several districts in their counties, consisting of not less than three, nor more than five persons for each school district, whose term of office shall be for two years; provided, that in the event of death, resignation or removal from the district of any member of said school committee, the county board of education shall be empowered to select and appoint his or her successor to serve the remainder of the term; provided, that in units desiring the same, by action of the county board of education one-third of the members may be selected for a term of one year, one-third of the members for a term of two years, and one-third of the members for a term of three years, and thereafter all members for a term of three years from the expiration of said terms. This Section shall not have the effect of repealing any local or special Acts relating to the appointment or terms of office of school committees.

The county board of education may appoint an advisory committee of three members for each school building in the district, who shall care for the school property and perform such other duties as may be defined by the county board of education.

Sec. 3. Organization of committee and meetings. The school committee, at its first meeting after the membership has been completed by the county board of education, shall elect from its number, a chairman and secretary, who shall keep a record of its proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be open to public inspection. The names and addresses of the chairman and secretary shall be reported to the county superintendent and recorded by him. The committee shall meet as often as the school business of the district may require.

Sec. 4. How to employ principals, teachers, and janitors. The district committee, upon the recommendation of the county superintendent of schools, shall elect the principals for the schools of the district, subject to the approval of the county board of education. The principal of the district shall nominate and the district committee shall elect the teachers for all the schools of the district, subject to the approval of the county superintendent of schools and the county board of education. Likewise, upon the recommendation of the principal of each school of the district, the district committee shall appoint janitors and maids for the schools of the district, subject to the approval of the county superintendent of schools and the county board of education. No election of a principal or teacher, or appointment of a janitor or maid, shall be deemed valid until such election or appointment has been approved by the county superintendent and the county board of education. No teacher under eighteen years of age may be employed, and the election of all teachers and principals and the appointment of all janitors and maids shall be done at regular or called meetings of the committee.

In the event the district committee and the county superintendent are unable to agree upon the nomination and election of a principal or the principal and the district committee are unable to agree upon the nomination and election of teachers or appointment of janitors or maids, the county board of education shall select the principal and teachers and appoint janitors and maids, which selection and appointment shall be final.

The distribution of the teachers and janitors among the several schools of the district shall be subject to the approval of the county board of education.

Sec. 5. Committee's responsibility as to school property. It shall be the duty of the school committee to protect all school property in its district. To this end, it is given custody of all schoolhouses, schoolhouse sites, grounds, textbooks, apparatus, and other school property in the district, with full power to control same as it may deem best for the interests of the public schools and the cause of education, but not in conflict with the rules and regulations of the county board of education. It shall be the duty of the committee to report any misuse or damage of school property immediately to the county board of education: Provided, that if the committee is unable or shall fail to take due care of all school property of the district, the county board of education may designate some responsible citizen of the district to have special charge of the property during vacation.

SUBCHAPTER III. SCHOOL DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

Creating and Consolidating School Districts

Section 1. School districts. The State Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the county board of education, shall create in any county administrative unit a convenient number of school districts. Such district organization may be modified in the same manner in which it was created when it is deemed necessary.

Nothing in this Section shall prevent city administrative units from consolidating with county administrative units in which such city administrative unit is located, upon petition of the board of education of the city administrative unit and the approval of the county board of education and of the State Board of Education: Provided, that nothing in this Section shall affect the right of any city administrative unit or special tax district which now exists for the purpose of retiring debt service, to have the indebtedness of such district taken over by the county as provided by law, and nothing herein shall be construed to restrict the county board of education or the board of county commissioners in causing such indebtedness to be assumed by the county as provided by law.

Sec. 2. Districts formed of portions of contiguous counties. School districts may be formed out of contiguous counties by agreement of the county boards of education of the respective counties subject to the approval of the State Board of Education. Rules for the organization, support and operation of districts so formed are subject to the agreement of the boards of education concerned, and as a guide to the working out of such agreements the formulas contained in the Section entitled "Elections in districts from portions of contiguous counties" in the Article on elections for school purposes in this Chapter should be followed as far as applicable.

Sec. 3. Consolidation of districts and discontinuance of schools. County boards of education shall have the power and authority to consolidate schools located in the same district, and with the approval of the State Board of Education, to consolidate school districts or other school areas over which the board has full control, whenever and wherever in its judgment the consolidation will better serve the educational interests of the county or any part of it: Provided, existing schools having suitable buildings shall not be abolished until the county board of education has made ample provisions for transferring all children of said school to some other school.

In determining whether two or more public schools shall be consolidated, or in determining whether or not a school shall be closed and the pupils transferred therefrom, the State Board of Education and the boards of education of the several counties shall observe and be bound by the following rules, to wit:

1. In any question involving the discontinuance or consolidation of any high school with an average daily attendance of sixty or more pupils, the board of education of the county in which such school is located and the State Board of Education shall cause a thorough study of such school to be made, having in mind primarily the welfare of the students to be affected by a proposed consolidation and including in such study, among other factors, geographic conditions, anticipated increase or decrease in school enrollment, the inconvenience or hardship that might result to the pupils to be affected by such consolidation, the cost of providing additional school facilities in the event of such consolidation, and the importance of such school to the people of the community in which the same is located and their interest in and support of same. Before the entry of any order of consolidation, the county board of education shall provide for a public hearing in regard to such proposed consolidation, at which hearing the county and State boards of education and the public shall be afforded an opportunity to express their views. Upon the basis of the study so made and after such hearing, said boards may, in the exercise of their discretion and by concurrent action, approve the consolidation proposed: Provided, however, that when a high school is ordered closed, pursuant to law, the pupils attending such school may be assigned to another high school, if the board of education of the administrative unit in which such school is located consents to such assignment.

2. Provision shall not be made by the State Board of Education for the operation of a high school with an average daily attendance of less than sixty pupils unless the State Board of Eduction and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, after a careful survey by them, find that geographic or other conditions make it impractical to provide for such pupils otherwise. Upon such finding, the State Board of Education may make provision for the operation of such school.

3. Notwithstanding the limitations imposed by the provisions of subsection two of this Section, the State Board of Education shall make provision for the continued operation of any high school now operating in any county administrative unit and having an average daily attendance of at least forty-five but fewer than sixty pupils, and shall allot to such school the number of teachers to which it may be entitled pursuant to law and rules of the State Board of Education if the continued operation of such school be requested by the board of education of such county by the inclusion of such school in the organization statement for the following year filed pursuant to the provisions of law: Provided, however, that at the time of making such request, the county board of education presents to the State Board of Education a certified statement that it has on hand and allocated for such purpose sufficient funds to pay the salaries, in accordance with the State standard salary schedule, of such additional teacher or teachers for said school as may be required in order to comply with minimum teacher requirements for a standard high school as now or hereafter defined and sufficient funds to pay the county's contribution for such teacher or teachers to the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System of North Carolina, as provided by G. S. 135-8 (c), and that said county board of education will employ such teacher or teachers.

For the purpose of providing the funds required by the proviso of this subsection, the boards of commissioners of the several counties are authorized to appropriate nontax funds, and the several county boards of education are authorized to accept and use privately donated funds.

4. The provisions of this Section shall not deprive any city or county board of education of the authority to assign or enroll any and all pupils in schools in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 366 of the Session Laws of 1955.

Sec. 4. Enlarging tax districts and city units by permanently attaching contiguous property. The county boards of education with the approval of the State Board of Education may transfer from nontax territory and attach permanently to local tax districts or to city administrative units, real property contiguous to said local tax districts or city administrative units, upon the written petition of the owners thereof and the taxpayers of the family or families living on such real property, and there shall be levied upon the property of each individual in the area so attached, including landowners and tenants, the same tax as is levied upon other property in said district or unit: Provided, that such transfer shall be subject to the approval of the board of education of such city unit or the committee of such tax district, as the case may be.

SUBCHAPTER IV. REVENUE FOR THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Where the indebtedness for school purposes of any city, town, school district, school taxing district, township, city administrative unit or other political subdivision in a county (hereinafter referred to in this Article as "local district") has not been assumed by the county, the county debt service fund shall provide for payment, apportioned on a per capita basis as provided in subsection 4, Section 3 of this Article, of principal and interest on indebtedness of local districts, as such principal and interest fall due, and for payment of moneys required to be paid into sinking funds of local districts.

D. Other objects of expenditure may be included in the school budget when authorized by the General Assembly, the State Board of Education, or county and city boards of education, when funds for the same are made available.

In making provision from State funds, the State Board of Education shall effect all economies possible in providing for all objects and items of expenditure except items of salary, and after such economies in all non-salary items, the board shall have authority to increase or decrease on a uniform percentage basis, the salary schedule of all personnel employed in order that the appropriation of State funds for the public schools may insure their operation for the full length of the term.

Sec. 3. Rules for the preparation of school budgets. 1. County-wide current expense fund budget. County and city boards of education shall file with the appropriate tax levying authorities on or before the fifteenth day of June, on forms provided by the State Board of Education, all budgets requesting funds to operate the public schools, whether such funds are to be provided by the State or from local sources. There shall be no funds allotted for providing instruction to pupils for a term of more than one hundred eighty days either from State or local sources.

The county-wide current expense fund shall include all funds for current expenses levied by the board of county commissioners in any county to cover items for current expense purposes, and also all fines, forfeitures, penalties, poll and dog taxes, nontax funds, or any other funds, to be expended in the current expense budget and funds for vocational subjects, except those funds appropriated for such unit in the State budget.

In the preparation of the several school budgets, it shall be the first duty of county and city boards of education and the board of county commissioners to provide adequate funds for the items of expenditure included under maintenance of plant and the items under fixed charges not provided from State funds in order to protect and preserve the investment of the administrative units in the school plants.

When funds accruing by law to the board of education are not sufficient to repair, maintain and insure properly the school plants of an administrative unit, it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners in which such unit is located to supplement these funds by a tax levy and said board is so directed and authorized.

In the event that county and city boards of education can by economy in management properly maintain, for use at all times, the school plants for a less amount than is placed to the credit of the school fund by law, it shall be in the discretion of such board of education with the approval of the board of county commissioners to use such excess to supplement any item of expenditure in its current expense fund.

When necessity is shown by county or city boards of education, or peculiar local conditions demand, for adding or supplementing items of expenditure not in the current expense fund provided by the State, the board of county commissioners may approve or disapprove, in part or in whole, any such proposed and requested expenditure. For those items it approves, it shall make a sufficient tax levy to provide the funds: Provided, that nothing in this Chapter shall prevent the use of Federal or privately donated funds which may be made available for the operation of the public schools under such regulations as the State Board of Education may prescribe.

2. Supplemental tax budget. In cases where administrative units or districts have voted, or may hereafter vote, a tax in order to operate schools of a higher standard than that provided by State support, county and city boards of education, at the same time the other budgets are filed, shall file a supplemental budget therefor and request that a sufficient levy be made by the tax levying authorities, not in excess of the rate voted by the people in such unit or district. The tax levying authorities may approve or disapprove this supplemental budget in whole or in part, and shall levy such taxes as necessary to provide for the approved budget for supplemental purposes, not exceeding the amount of the tax levy authorized by the vote of the people. The expenditure of the proceeds of said levy shall be in accordance with the aforesaid supplemental budget as approved by the tax levying authorities, except where such levy is voted in a district, in which case the written consent of the chairman of the district committee shall also be obtained before any of said proceeds are expended: Provided, that the tax levying authorities may fix a charge against any administrative unit or district for collection of such levies not exceeding one per cent (1%) thereof.

3. Capital outlay budget. In the same manner and at the same time each county and city administrative unit may file with the board of county commissioners a capital outlay budget, subject to the approval of the said board.

4. Debt service budget. In the same manner and at the same time the county board of education shall file a budget for the school debt service fund of the county, and a budget for the debt service fund of each local district, the indebtedness of which has not been assumed by the county and when the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness is required to be provided for by taxes levied by the board of county commissioners. In like manner and at the same time the board of education of each city administrative unit, when such unit has outstanding indebtedness and the payment of principal and interest of such indebtedness is required to be provided for by taxes levied by a board or body other than the board of county commissioners, shall file a budget for the debt service fund of such unit. The budget for the debt service fund of the county shall include (a) the principal and interest on indebtedness of the county and assumed by the county falling due in the fiscal year for which the budget is prepared, (b) the installment payable in such fiscal year to a sinking fund for county indebtedness and (c) a per capita apportionment to each local district based upon (a) and (b) above, exclusive of installments payable to a sinking fund for the retirement of funding and refunding bonds or notes and the interest on the same, and computed with the last enrollment of the county unit and of such local district certified to the county accountant or county auditor by the State Board of Education: Provided, the inclusion of such per capita apportionment shall not supersede an apportionment provided for in any Public-Local or Private Law pursuant to which the bonds of such local district were issued: Provided, further, such per capita apportionment shall not exceed the amount of principal and interest of the indebtedness of the local district falling due in the fiscal year for which the budget is prepared and the installment payable in such fiscal year to a sinking fund for the retirement of bonds of such local district. The budget of each local district shall include the principal and interest on the indebtedness of such local district falling due in the fiscal year for which the budget is prepared and the installment payable in such fiscal year to a sinking fund for the retirement of indebtedness of such local district.

The county accountant shall examine the county debt service budget and the debt service budget of each local district, shall determine their accuracy and make his recommendation to the tax levying authorities. Accordingly, such tax levying authorities shall levy the taxes necessary and sufficient to pay all items contained in each such budget.

Sec. 4. Tax levying authorities must report action on budgets. The tax levying authorities shall report to the administrative units filing budgets for local funds the action on said budgets on or before the tenth day of July of each year.

Sec. 5. Copies of all budgets must be filed with the State Board of Education. Copies of all school budgets for the current expense fund, the capital outlay fund and the debt service fund, after approval by local authorities as provided by this Article, shall be filed with the State Board of Education.

Sec. 6. Operating budget. It shall be the duty of the county and city boards of education, upon the receipt of the tentative allotment of State funds for operating the schools and the approval of all local funds budgets, including supplements to State funds for operating schools of a higher standard, funds for capital outlay and funds for debt service, to prepare an operating budget on forms provided by the State and file same with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education on or before the first day of October. Each operating budget shall be checked by the appropriate State school officials to ascertain if it is in accordance with the allotment of State funds and the approval of local funds; and when found to be in accordance with same, such budget shall be the total operating budget for said county or city administrative unit.

Sec. 7. Provision for the disbursement of State funds. The deposit of State funds in the State treasury to the credit of the county and city administrative units shall be made in monthly installments, at such time and in such a manner as may be practicable to meet the needs and necessities of the nine months school term in the various county and city administrative units: Provided, that prior to the crediting of any monthly installments, it shall be the duty of the county or city board of education to file with the controller of the State Board of Education a certified statement of all expenditures and of all salaries and other obligations that may be due and payable in the succeeding month, said statement to be filed on or before the first day of each month.

When it shall appear to the controller from said certified statement that any amounts are due and necessary to be paid, he shall draw a requisition on the Budget Bureau covering the same; and upon the receipt of notice from the State Treasurer showing the amount placed to their credit, the duly constituted authorities may issue State warrants in the amount so certified: Provided, that no funds shall be released for payment of salaries for administrative officers of county or city units if any reports required to be filed with the State school authorities are more than thirty days overdue.

Sec. 8. Fidelity bonds. The State Board of Education shall, in its discretion, determine what State and local employees shall be required to give bonds for the protection of State school funds and for the faithful discharge of their duties as to such funds; and, in cases in which bonds are required, the State Board of Education is authorized to place the same and pay the premiums thereon.

Boards of education in each county and city administrative unit shall cause all persons authorized to draw or approve school checks or vouchers drawn on school funds, whether county, district, or special, and all persons who, as employees of such administrative units, are authorized or permitted to receive any school funds from whatever source, and all persons responsible for, or authorized to handle school property, to be bonded for the faithful discharge of their duties as to such school funds in such a manner as in the discretion of said county and city boards of education shall be deemed sufficient for the protection of said school funds or property with surety by some surety company authorized to do business in the State of North Carolina. The amount deemed necessary to cover the cost of such surety bond shall be included as an item in the current expense funds of the school budget of each school administrative unit and shall be paid from the funds provided therein; but nothing in this Section shall prevent the governing authorities of the respective administrative units from prorating the cost of such bond between the funds protected.

Sec. 9. Apportionment of local funds among administrative units. All county-wide current expense funds shall be apportioned to the administrative units of a county on a per capita enrollment basis which shall be determined by the State Board of Education and certified to each administrative unit.

County-wide capital outlay funds for the cost of new school sites, or addition to present school sites, new school buildings, new additional construction at existing buildings and equipment for such new buildings and for new additional construction shall be apportioned to the administrative units of a county on the basis of budgets approved by the board of county commissioners for each administrative unit and for the amounts and purposes approved by said board of commissioners. All other capital outlay school funds shall be apportioned to the administrative units of a county on the same per capita enrollment basis used for apportionment of current expense funds.

Upon the basis of budget approval and upon receiving the certificate of per capita enrollment, the county auditor or accountant shall determine the proportion of all county-wide tax and nontax revenue and other funds accruing to the current expense, and capital outlay funds, which is apportionable to the county and city administrative units within a county. The proportion thereof allocable to each administrative unit in said county shall be set up to the credit of such administrative unit by the county auditor or accountant.

On the basis of such apportionment, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer, or other county official performing such duties, to remit all of such funds for current expense and capital outlay as they are collected promptly at the end of each month to each administrative unit within the county.

In the event that a greater amount is collected and paid to any administrative unit than is authorized to be spent in its approved budget for current expense, and capital outlay funds, the same shall remain an unencumbered balance to be credited to those funds in the following fiscal year, and shall not be spent, committed, or obligated, unless a supplemental budget is first approved by the board of education and the board of county commissioners.

Collections of all taxes and other revenues accruing to a debt service fund shall be deposited promptly to the credit of such fund in the manner provided by law. Apportionments to local districts contained in the budget for the county debt service fund shall be paid and credited to the debt service funds of the local districts in such manner as may be practicable so as to provide for prompt payment of items of principal and interest therein, as the same fall due.

Funds derived from payments on insurance losses shall be used in the repair or replacement of buildings damaged or destroyed or, in the event the buildings are not replaced, shall be used to reduce the school indebtedness of the county or of the local district to which said payment has been made, or for other capital outlay purposes within said county or local district.

Sec. 10. Procedure in cases of disagreement or refusal of tax levying authorities to levy taxes. In the event of a disagreement between the county or city boards of education and the tax levying authorities as to the amount of the current expense fund, the capital outlay fund, and the debt service fund, or any item of either fund, the chairman of the county or city board of education and the presiding officer of the tax levying authorities shall arrange for a joint meeting of said boards within one week of the disagreement. At such joint meeting, the budget or budgets over which there is disagreement shall be gone over carefully and judiciously item by item. If agreement cannot be reached in this manner, the board of education whose budget is in question and the tax levying authorities shall each have one vote on the question of the adoption of these amounts in the budget. A majority of the members of each board shall cast the vote for each board.

In the event of a tie, the Clerk of the Superior Court shall act as arbitrator upon the issues arising between such boards and he shall render his decision thereon within five days, but either the board of education or the tax levying authorities shall have the right to appeal to the Superior Court within ten days from the date of the decision of the Clerk of the Superior Court, and it shall be the duty of the Judge hearing the case on appeal to find the facts as to the amount of the current expense fund, the capital outlay fund, and the debt service fund, which findings shall be conclusive and he shall give judgment requiring the tax levying authorities to levy the tax which will provide the amount of the current expense fund, the capital outlay fund, and the debt service fund, which he finds necessary to maintain the schools in the administrative unit. In case of an appeal to the Supreme Court which would result in a delay beyond a reasonable limit for levying the taxes for the year, the Judge shall order the tax levying authorities to levy for the ensuing year a rate sufficient to pay the debt service fund, and to produce, together with what may be received from the nine months' school fund and from other sources, an amount for the current expense fund and the prorated part of capital outlay fund equal to the amount of these funds for the previous year. Also, in case of an appeal, all papers and records relating to the case shall be considered a part of the record for consideration by the court.

The tax levying authorities shall forthwith levy the taxes according to the judgment rendered and upon refusal to do so, the members of said authority shall be in contempt and may be punished accordingly.

Sec. 11. Jury trial. The tax levying authorities or boards of education shall have the right to have the issues tried by a jury, as to the amount of the current expense fund and the capital outlay fund, which jury trial shall be set at the first succeeding term of the Superior Court, and shall have precedence over all other business of the court. Provided, that if the Judge holding the court shall certify to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, either before or during such term, that on account of the accumulation of other business, the public interest will be best served by not trying such action at said term, the Chief Justice shall immediately call a special term of the Superior Court for said county, to convene as early as possible, and assign a Judge of the Superior Court or an amergency Judge to hold the same, and the said action shall be tried at such term. There shall be submitted to the jury for its determination the issue as to what amount is needed to maintain the schools, and they shall take into consideration the amount needed and the amount available from all sources as provided by law. The final judgment rendered in such action shall be conclusive, and the tax levying authorities shall forthwith levy taxes in accordance with such judgment; otherwise those who refuse so to do shall be in contempt, and may be punishable accordingly: Provided, that in case of a mistrial or an appeal to the Supreme Court which would result in a delay beyond a reasonable limit for levying the taxes for the year, the Judge shall order the tax levying authorities to levy for the ensuing year a rate sufficient to pay the debt service fund, and to produce, together with what may be received from the State public school fund and from other sources, an amount for the current expense fund equal to the amount of this fund for the previous year.

Sec. 12. Operation of county and city school budget. 1. Duty of county and city boards of education. It shall be the duty of county and city boards of education to pay all obligations incurred in the operation of the public schools promptly and when due, and to this end said boards of education shall inform the tax levying authorities from month to month of any anticipated expenditures which will exceed the current collection of taxes and such balance as may be on hand, if any, for the payment of said obligations in order that the tax levying authorities may make provisions for the funds to be available: Provided, that if a county or city board of education shall wilfully create a debt that shall in any way cause the expense of the year to exceed the amount authorized in the budget, without the approval of the tax levying authorities, the indebtedness shall not be a valid obligation of the administrative unit and the members of the board responsible for making the debt may be held liable for the same.

2. Duty of the tax levying authorities. It shall be the duty of the tax levying authorities to provide, when and as needed, the funds to meet the monthly expenditures, including salaries and other necessary operating expenses, as set forth in a statement prepared by the county or city boards of education and which expenditures are in accordance with the approved budget. If the collection of taxes does not yield sufficient revenue for this purpose, it shall be the duty of the tax levying authorities to borrow against the amount approved in the budget and to issue short term notes for the amount so borrowed in accordance with the provisions of "The County Finance Act" and "The Local Government Act". The interest on all such notes shall be provided by the tax levying authorities in addition to the amount approved in the budget, unless this item is specifically taken care of in the budget.

Sec. 13. How school funds are paid out. The school funds shall be paid out as follows:

1. State school funds. All State school funds shall be released only on warrants drawn on the State Treasurer, signed by the chairman and the secretary of the county board of education for county administrative units, and by the chairman and the secretary of the city board of education for city administrative units.

2. County, city, and district school funds. All county, city, and district school funds, from whatever source provided, shall be paid out only on warrants signed by the chairman and the secretary of the county board of education for county units and the chairman and the secretary of the city board of education for city administrative units. In county administrative units such warrants shall be countersigned by such officer as the county government laws may require and in city administrative units such warrants shall be countersigned by the treasurer of the administrative unit: Provided, the countersigning officer shall countersign warrants drawn as herein specified when such warrants are within the funds set up to the credit of, and are within the budget amounts appropriated for the particular administrative unit: Provided, further, that in county units before the chairman and secretary of the board of education shall draw a voucher on funds belonging to a local tax district, they shall have an order signed by the chairman of the committee of such district authorizing the expenditure of such funds.

3. When signatures of chairman and secretary may be affixed by machine. The signature of the chairman and the secretary of county and city boards of education required by this Section on school warrants may be affixed to such warrants by signature machines. When such machines are used on warrants drawn on the State Treasurer, the same may be used only in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the State Board of Education with the approval of the State Treasurer. The use of such signature machines shall not be employed in any county or city administrative unit until the governing board thereof has adopted a resolution authorizing the use of same and accepting the full responsibility for any nonauthorized or improper use of such machines. In all cases where such signature machines are used, the secretary to the county board of education and the surety on his bond, or the secretary to the city board of education and the surety on his bond, shall be liable for any illegal, improper, or unauthorized use of such machines.

4. Special funds of individual schools. County and city boards of education shall, unless otherwise provided for by law, designate the bank, depository, or trust company authorized to do business in North Carolina, in which all special funds of each individual school shall be deposited. Such funds shall be paid out only on checks signed by the principal of the school and the treasurer who has been selected by the respective boards of education: Provided, that the schools handling less than three hundred dollars ($300.00) in any school year may not be required, in the discretion of the boards of the respective units, to follow this procedure for depositing and disbursing funds.

In all schools a complete record shall be kept by the treasurer and reports made of all the money received and disbursed by him in handling funds of the school: Provided, that nothing in this Section shall prevent the depositing of all these special funds with the treasurer of the county or city administrative units and the disbursing of said funds upon the signatures of the chairman and secretary of the respective boards of education.

5. Records and reports. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education shall have full power and authority to make rules and regulations prescribing the manner in which records shall be kept by all county and city administrative units as to the expenditure of the current expense funds, the capital outlay funds and the debt service funds derived from local sources, and for making reports thereof to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Treasurer:

His Powers, Duties and Responsibilities

in Disbursing School Funds

Section 1. Treasurer of school funds. 1. County school administrative unit. The county treasurer of each county shall be the treasurer of all county school funds and school district funds of the county school administrative unit. He shall receive and disburse all such school funds and shall keep such funds separate and distinct from all other funds.

Before entering upon the duties of his office, the county treasurer shall furnish bond in some surety company authorized to do business in North Carolina in an amount to be fixed by the board of county commissioners, which bond shall be a separate bond, not including liability for other funds, and shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer of the county school funds and district school funds of the county administrative unit, and for the payment to his successor in office of any unexpended balance of school moneys which may be in his hands. The board of county commissioners may from time to time, if necessary, require the county treasurer to increase the amount of his bond or furnish additional security.

In all counties in which the office of county treasurer has been abolished as authorized by G. S. 155-3, or when by any other law a bank or trust company has been substituted therefor such bank or trust company shall act as treasurer and depository of all county school funds and district school funds: Provided, however, that such bank or trust company acting as treasurer of county school funds and district school funds shall not be required to maintain the system of bookkeeping and accounting imposed upon the county treasurer by G. S. 155-7, but the duty and responsibility of keeping and maintaining the accounting system as to county and district schools shall be the duty and responsibility of the county accountant or county auditor serving as such under the provisions of G. S. 153-115; provided, further, that nothing contained in this Section shall relieve the superintendent of any county administrative unit from maintaining such accounting system and furnishing such reports as are now or may hereinafter be imposed upon him by law.

2. City school administrative unit. Unless otherwise provided by law, the board of education of a city administrative unit shall appoint a treasurer of all the school funds of such unit. The treasurer so appointed shall continue to fill such position at the will of the board of education of such unit. No person authorized to make the expenditures or draw vouchers therefor, or to approve the same, shall act as treasurer of such funds.

Before entering upon the duties of his office, the treasurer of a city administrative unit shall file with the board of education a good and sufficient bond with surety by some surety company authorized to do business in North Carolina in an amount to be fixed by the board of education of such administrative unit, which shall be a separate bond, not including liability for any other funds, and shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of treasurer of the city administrative unit school funds and for the proper accounting for all such funds as may come into his possession by virtue of his office as treasurer and for payment to his successor in office of any unexpended balance of school moneys which may be in his hands. The amount of the bond shall not be less than one-half the total amount of money received by him or his predecessor during the previous year, and the board of education may from time to time, if necessary, require him to increase the amount of his bond, or furnish additional security.

The treasurer of city administrative unit school funds is hereby required to maintain and keep, with respect to said funds, like records and accounts and make such reports with respect to said funds as herein provided to be made, kept, and maintained by the treasurer of county and district school funds of county administrative units.

3. Special funds of individual schools. The county board of education of all county administrative units and the board of education of all city administrative units shall, by proper resolution duly recorded, appoint a treasurer of all special school funds for each school in the respective administrative unit. In all individual schools, a complete record shall be kept by the treasurer so appointed and reports made of all money received and from what source and of all money disbursed and for what purpose: Provided, however, that nothing in this subsection 3 shall prevent the handling of these special school funds under subsection 1 or subsection 2 of this Section. The treasurer of all special funds and the principal of each school shall make a monthly report and such other reports as may be required to the superintendent of the administrative unit wherein such individual school is located, showing the status of each special school fund, upon forms to be supplied for that purpose.

Sec. 2. Action against treasurer to recover funds. If it shall appear that any part of the public school funds received by the county treasurer, or person or depository acting as treasurer, or the treasurer of a city administrative unit, has not been properly applied to the credit of the county or city board of education, as the case may be, such board or boards of education shall bring action on the bond of such official or depository to recover such part of the funds as has not been so applied to such board or boards of education. In the event such board does not bring appropriate action against the treasurer, or person or depository acting as treasurer, the tax levying authorities shall bring action in the name of the State for any breach of the bond of the treasurer of any school funds for any failure to account properly for the funds received by him. If the tax levying authorities shall fail to bring such action, it may be brought in the name of the State upon the relation of any taxpayer.

Sec. 3. Annual reports of treasurer. The treasurer of every county and city board of education shall report to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction on the first Monday of August of each year the entire amount of money received and disbursed by him during the preceding fiscal year. Such reports shall be made on blanks furnished by the State Superintendent and all information called for on such blanks shall be furnished in detail and by item as may be requested on said report.

On the same date that the treasurer reports to the State Superintendent, he shall file a duplicate of such report in the office of the county or city board of education, as the case may be. Likewise, the treasurer of every county or city school fund shall make such other reports as the board of education may from time to time require.

The treasurer of every school fund shall, when required by the county or city board of education, produce his books and vouchers for examination and shall also exhibit all moneys due the public school fund.

Sec. 4. Duties of treasurer on expiration of his term. Each treasurer of public school funds, in going out of office, shall deposit in the office of the board of education of the administrative unit of which he is treasurer his books in which are kept his school accounts and all records and blanks pertaining to his office. He shall at the time he goes out of office, file with the board of education and with his successor, a report, itemized as required by law, covering the receipts and disbursements for that part of the fiscal school year from the thirtieth of June preceding to the time at which he turns over his office to his successor, and his successor shall include in his report to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and to the superintendent of the administrative unit the receipts and disbursements for the current fiscal year as a whole.

Sec. 5. Penalty for failure to report and to perform other duties. If any treasurer of the county or city administrative unit school fund shall fail to make reports required of him at the time and in the manner prescribed, or fail to perform any other duties required of him by law, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 6. Speculating in teachers' salary vouchers. If any clerk, sheriff, register of deeds, county treasurer or other county, city, town or State officer shall engage in the purchasing of the salary voucher of any of the school personnel at a less price than its full and true value or at any rate of discount thereon, or be interested in any speculation thereon, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned and shall be liable to removal from office at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 7. Audit of school funds. All school funds shall be audited and reports made for each fiscal year.

1. State school funds. The State Board of Education, in cooperation with the State Auditor, shall cause to be made an annual audit of the State school funds disbursed by county and city administrative units and such additional audits as may be deemed necessary.

2. County and city administrative units and district school funds. County and city boards of education shall cause to be made an annual audit of all county, city, and district school funds including the records and accounts of the boards of education and those of their respective treasurers, and the school boards shall provide for the payment of the cost thereof in the school budgets of the respective administrative units.

The auditor's report shall show: (1) Sources of revenue and purposes for which expenditures were made; (2) comparison of approved school budget with the actual transactions; (3) statement of outstanding indebtedness, including county school bonds, amounts due the county or city board of education, and all unpaid accounts; (4) appraisal of all school property; and (5) such other items as may be prescribed by the county or city boards of education and the Local Government Commission and which will aid in making a complete audit.

The annual audits shall be completed as near to the close of the year as practicable and copies of said audit shall be filed with the chairman of the board of education, the superintendent of schools, the county auditor, the State Board of Education, the director of the Local Government Commission and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction not later than October the first after the close of the fiscal year on June the thirtieth. By October the first after the close of the fiscal year, a summary statement of the report on the audit shall be published in some newspaper published in the county, or posted at the courthouse door if no newspaper is published in such county.

3. Special funds of individual schools. County and city boards of education shall cause to be made, at the same time the audit of the county or city funds is made, an audit of the special school funds of each school in the respective administrative units. Such annual audits shall be completed as near the close of the year as practicable and copies of each audit shall be filed with the chairman of the board of education and the superintendent of schools of the administrative unit in which the school is located and the State Board of Education not later than October the first after the close of the fiscal year on June the thirtieth.

4. Payment of audit cost. County and city boards of education shall include in the school budgets of the respective administrative units funds for the payment of the costs of the audits of county, city, district, and special funds of individual schools as required under subsections 2 and 3 of this Section: Provided, that nothing in this Section shall prevent the respective boards from prorating the cost of auditing of special funds to the special funds of each school.

Sec. 8. Fines, forfeitures and penalties. It shall be the duty of every public officer, including clerks of the several courts and all justices of the peace, as well as all others in any way related or connected with the assessing, collecting and handling of any of those funds mentioned in the Constitution, Article IX, Section 5, which shall belong to and remain in the several counties and which shall be faithfully appropriated for establishing and maintaining the free public schools:

1. To keep in a proper record book supplied by the county an itemized, detailed statement of the respective amounts received by him in the way of fines, penalties, amercements and forfeitures.

2. To account for and pay to the county treasurer all of said funds received by him within thirty days after the receipt thereof, to the end that all of said funds may be faithfully appropriated by the county board of education for the purposes mentioned in the Constitution.

3. To enter immediately upon the docket or record book all of said funds which are assessed, and which shall not be remitted except for good and sufficient reasons, which reasons shall be stated on the docket and at all times be open to public inspection.

4. Any officer, including justices of the peace, violating any of the provisions of this Section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by fine or imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 9. Unclaimed fees of jurors and witnesses paid to school fund. All moneys due jurors and witnesses which remain unclaimed in the hands of any Clerk of the Superior Court or of the clerk of any inferior court for more than one year shall be paid over to the county treasurer by the clerk of said court, on the first day of January, of each year, for the use of the public schools. All such moneys shall be used as other public school revenue.

Sec. 10. Miscellaneous funds. It shall be the duty of the county superintendent of schools at least once a year and as directed by the county board of education to examine the records of the county to see that the proceeds from the poll taxes and the dog taxes where applicable are correctly accounted for to the school fund each year; he shall likewise examine the records of the several courts of the county, including justices of the peace, and their reports filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court, to see that all fines, forfeitures, and penalties, and any other special funds accruing to the county school fund are correctly and promptly accounted for to the school fund; and if the superintendent shall find that any such taxes or fines are not correctly and promptly accounted for to the school fund, it shall be the duty of the superintendent to make a prompt report thereof to the solicitor of the Superior Court in the district.

It shall be unlawful for any of the proceeds of fines, forfeitures, penalties and other funds accruing to the public school fund to be used for other than school purposes, and the official responsible for any diversion of such funds to other purposes shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punishable by fine or imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The clear proceeds of such funds shall be accounted for by the officers collecting the same, and no deductions shall be made therefrom for fees or commissions. Any court officer, including justices of the peace, who shall wilfully fail or refuse to account for all such funds coming into the hands of such officer, shall upon conviction thereof, be guilty of a felony and punished as provided by law in cases of embezzlement.

Loans from State Literary Fund

Section 1. Loans by State Board from State Literary Fund. The State Literary Fund includes all funds derived from the sources enumerated in Section four, Article IX, of the Constitution, and all funds that may be hereafter so derived, together with any interest that may accrue thereon. This fund shall be separate and distinct from other funds of the State.

The State Board of Education, under such rules and regulations as it may deem advisable, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Article, may make loans from the State Literary Fund to the counties for the use of county and city boards of education under such rules and regulations as it may adopt and according to law for the purpose of aiding in the erection and equipment of school plants. No warrant for the expenditure of money for such purposes shall be issued except upon the order of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction with the approval of the State Board of Education.

Sec. 2. Terms of loans. Loans made under the provisions of this Article shall be payable in ten installments, shall bear interest at a uniform rate determined by the State Board of Education not to exceed four per centum (4%), payable annually, and shall be evidenced by the note of the county, executed by the chairman, the clerk of the board of county commissioners, and the chairman and secretary of the county or city board of education, and deposited with the State Treasurer. The first installment of such loan, together with the interest on the whole amount then due, shall be paid by the county or city board on the tenth day of February after the tenth day of August subsequent to the making of such loan, and the remaining installments, together with the interest, shall be paid on the tenth day of February of each subsequent year until all shall have been paid.

Sec. 3. How secured and paid. At the January meeting of the board of education, before any installment shall be due on the next tenth day of February, the county or city board of education shall set apart out of the school funds an amount sufficient to pay such installment and interest to be due, and shall issue its order upon the treasurer of the county or city school fund therefor, who, prior to the tenth day of February, shall pay over to the State Treasurer the amount then due. Upon failure of any administrative unit to pay any installment of principal or interest, or any part of either, when due, the State Treasurer, upon demand of the State Board of Education, shall bring action against the county or city board of education and board of county commissioners to compel the levy and collection of sufficient taxes to pay said installment of principal and accrued interest. The State Board of Education may accept payment of any or all of said notes and the interest accrued thereon before maturity.

Sec. 4. Loans by county board to school districts. The county board of education, from any sum borrowed under the provisions of this Article, may make loans only to districts that shall have levied a local tax sufficient to repay the installments and interest on said loan for the purpose of building schoolhouses in the district, and the amount so loaned to any district shall be payable in ten annual installments, with interest thereon at the same rate the county board of education is paying, payable annually. Any amount loaned under the provisions of this law shall be a lien upon the total local tax funds produced in the district. Whenever the local taxes may not be sufficient to pay the installments and the interest, the county board of education must supply the remainder out of the current expense fund, and shall make provision for the same when the county budget is made and presented to the commissioners.

All loans hereafter made to such districts shall be made upon the written petition of a majority of the committee of the district asking for the loan and authorizing the county board to deduct a sufficient amount from the local taxes to meet the indebtedness to the county board of education. Otherwise, the county board of education shall have no lien upon the local taxes for the repayment of this loan: Provided, this lien shall not lie against taxes collected or hereafter levied to pay interest and principal on bonds issued by or on behalf of the district.

Sec. 5. State Board of Education authorized to accept funding or refunding bonds of counties for loans; approval by Local Government Commission. In any case where a loan has heretofore been made from the State Literary Fund or from any special building fund of the State to a county and such county has heretofore or shall hereafter authorize the issuance of bonds for the purpose of funding or refunding interest on or the principal of all or a part of the notes evidencing such loan, the State Board of Education is hereby authorized to accept funding or refunding bonds or notes of such county in payment of interest on or the principal of the notes evidencing such loan: Provided, however, that the issuance of such funding or refunding bonds shall have been approved by the Local Government Commission.

Sec. 6. Issuance of bonds as part of general refunding plan. In any case where the funding or refunding of interest on or the principal of such notes shall constitute a part of a refunding plan or program of the county, and the terms of such funding or refunding shall be accepted by a sufficient number of the holders of the county's obligation to put same into effect, the State Board of Education may authorize the acceptance of such funding or refunding bonds or notes upon the same terms and conditions, both as to principal and interest, as have been agreed upon by a sufficient number of the other holders of the county's obligations to put same into effect.

Sec. 7. Validating certain funding and refunding notes of counties. That the notes of any county held by the State Board of Education which were heretofore issued in exchange for and for the purpose of refunding and retiring notes evidencing loans made from the State Literary Fund pursuant to Article twenty-four of Chapter one hundred and thirty-six of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, or from Special Building Funds pursuant to either Chapter one hundred and forty-seven of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, or Article twenty-five of Chapter one hundred and thirty-six of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, or Chapter two hundred and one of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, or Chapter one hundred and ninety-nine of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, are hereby declared to be valid existing indebtedness of said county incurred by said county for the maintenance of the six-months school term as required by the Constitution of North Carolina, nothwithstanding any lack of authority for the issuance of said notes or error or omission or irregularity in the Acts done or proceedings taken to provide for their issuance, and said notes held by the State Board of Education are hereby authorized to be refunded with bonds issued pursuant to the County Finance Act, being Chapter eighty-one of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, as amended.

Sec. 8. Special appropriation from fund. The State Board of Education may annually set aside and use out of the funds accruing in interest to the State Literary Fund, a sum not exceeding seventeen thousand five hundred dollars ($17,500.00) to be used for giving directions in the preparation of proper plans for the erection of school buildings in providing inspection of such buildings as may be erected in whole, or in part, with money borrowed from said fund, and such other purposes as said board may determine to secure the erection of a better type of school building and better administration of said fund.

Assumption of School District

Indebtedness by Counties

Section 1. Method of assumption; validation of proceedings. The county board of education, with the approval of the board of commissioners, and when the assumption of such indebtedness is approved at an election as hereinafter provided, if such election is required by the Constitution, may include in the debt service fund in the school budget all outstanding indebtedness for school purposes of every city, town, school district, school taxing district, township, city administrative unit or other political subdivision in the county (hereinafter collectively called "local districts"), lawfully incurred in erecting and equipping school buildings necessary for the school term. The election on the question of assuming such indebtedness shall be called and held in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of Chapter 153 of the General Statutes, known as "The County Finance Act", insofar as the same may be made applicable, and the returns of such election shall be canvassed and a statement of the result thereof prepared, filed and published as provided in the County Finance Act. No right of action or defense founded upon the invalidity of the election shall be asserted, nor shall the validity of the election be open to question in any court upon any ground whatever, except in an action or proceeding commenced within 30 days after the publication of such statement of result. When such indebtedness is taken over for payment by the county as a whole and the local districts are relieved of their annual payments, the county funds provided for such purpose shall be deducted from the debt service fund prior to the division of such fund among the schools of the county as provided in subsection 4, Section 3, of Article 9.

The assumption, as herein provided, by any county, at any time prior to the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one, of the indebtedness of local districts for school purposes and all proceedings had in connection therewith are hereby in all respects ratified, approved, confirmed and validated: Provided, that nothing herein shall prevent counties and local taxing districts from levying taxes to provide for the payment of their debt service requirements if they have not been otherwise provided for.

Sec. 2. Taxes levied and collected for bonds assumed to be paid into school debt service fund of county; discharge of sinking fund custodian. In any county where the bonds of a local district have been assumed under the provisions of this Article, all taxes levied and collected for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on said bonds, or for creating a sinking fund for the retirement of said bonds, shall be deposited in the school debt service fund of the county. The custodian of all moneys and other assets of a sinking fund created for the retirement of said bonds is hereby authorized to turn over such moneys and assets to the county treasurer, the county sinking fund commissioner or other county officer charged with the custodianship of sinking funds, and such custodian shall thereby be discharged from further responsibility for administration of and accounting for such sinking fund.

Sec. 3. Allocation to district bonds of taxes collected. The collections of taxes levied for debt service on all taxable property of a county in which local district bonds have been assumed shall be proportionately allocated to each issue of such bonds.

Refunding and Funding Bonds of School Districts

Section 1. "School district" defined. The term "school district", as used in this Article shall be deemed to include any special school taxing district, local tax district, special charter district, city administrative unit or other political subdivision of a county by which or on behalf of which bonds have been issued for erecting and equipping school buildings, or for refunding the same, and such bonds are outstanding.

Sec. 2. Continuance of district until bonds are paid. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law which affect the continued existence of a school district or the levy of taxes therein for the payment of its bonds, such school district shall continue in existence with its boundaries unchanged from those established at the time of issuance of its bonds, unless such boundaries shall have been extended and thereby embrace additional territory subject to the levy of such taxes, until all of its outstanding bonds, together with the interest thereon, shall be paid.

Sec. 3. Funding and refunding of bonds authorized; issuance and sale or exchange; tax levy for repayment. The board of commissioners of the county in which any such school district is located is hereby authorized to issue bonds at one time or from time to time for the purpose of refunding or funding the principal or interest of any bonds of such school district then outstanding. Such refunding or funding bonds shall be issued in the name of the school district and they may be sold or delivered in exchange for or upon the extinguishment of the obligations or indebtedness refunded or funded. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, such refunding and funding bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of Sections 159-59 to 159-62 of the General Statutes and the Local Government Act, Sections 159-1 et seq. and Acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto. The tax levying body or bodies authorized by law to levy taxes for the payment of the bonds, the principal or interest of which shall be refunded or funded, shall levy annually a special tax on all taxable property in such school district sufficient to pay the principal and interest of said refunding or funding bonds as the same become due.

Sec. 4. Issuance of bonds by cities and towns; debt statement; tax levy for repayment. In case the governing body of any city or town is the body authorized by law to levy taxes for the payment of the bonds of such district, whether the territory embraced in such district lies wholly or partly within the corporate limits of such city or town, such governing body of such city or town is hereby authorized to issue bonds at one time or from time to time for the purpose of refunding or funding the principal or interest of any bonds then outstanding which were issued by or on behalf of such school district. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, such refunding and funding bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Finance Act, as amended, relating to the issuance of refunding and funding bonds under that Act, and the provisions of the Local Government Act and Acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, except in the following respects:

1. The bonds shall be issued in the name and on behalf of the school district by the governing body of such city or town.

2. It shall not be necessary to include in the ordinance authorizing the bonds, or in the notice required to be published after the passage of the ordinance, any statement concerning the filing of a debt statement, and, as applied to said bonds, Sections 160-379 and 160-383 of the General Statutes (the Municipal Finance Act), as amended, shall be read and understood as if they contained no requirements in respect to such matters.

3. The governing body of such city or town shall annually levy and collect a tax ad valorem upon all the taxable property in such school district sufficient to pay the principal and interest of such refunding or funding bonds as the same become due.

SUBCHAPTER V. SPECIAL LOCAL TAX ELECTIONS FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES

School Areas Authorized to Vote Local Taxes

Section 1. Purposes for which elections may be called. 1. To vote a supplemental tax. Elections may be called to ascertain the will of the voters as to whether there shall be levied and collected a special tax in the several administrative units, districts, and other school areas, including districts formed from contiguous counties, to supplement the current expense funds from State and county allotments and thereby operate schools of a higher standard by supplementing any item of expenditure in the school budget. When supplementary funds are authorized by the carrying of such an election, such funds may be used to employ additional teachers, other than those allotted by the State, to teach any grades or subjects or for kindergarten instruction, and for making the contribution to the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System of North Carolina for such teachers, or for any object of expenditure.

2. To increase a supplemental tax rate. Elections may be called in any school area which has previously voted a supplemental tax of less than the maximum for the purpose of increasing the rate of tax previously voted but not to exceed the maximum.

3. To enlarge city administrative units and districts. Elections may be called in any district or districts, or other school areas, of a county administrative unit to ascertain the will of the voters in such areas as to whether there shall be levied a special tax of the same rate as that voted in an adjoining city administrative unit or district with which unit or district such territory is to be consolidated.

4. To supplement and equalize educational advantages. Elections may be called in any area of a county administrative unit which is enclosed in one common boundary line to ascertain the will of the voters as to whether there shall be levied and collected a special tax to supplement and equalize the standards on which the schools in such areas are operated, and at the same time repeal any special taxes heretofore voted by any part or parts of such area.

5. To abolish a special school tax. Elections may be called in any administrative unit, district or other school area which has previously voted a supplemental tax, to ascertain the will of the people as to whether such tax shall be abolished.

6. To vote school bonds. Boards of county commissioners are authorized as provided by law to call elections to ascertain the will of the voters as to whether bonds for school purposes may be issued.

Sec. 2. The maximum rate and frequency of elections. In no event shall a tax for supplementing the current expense fund budget exceed fifty cents (50c) on the one hundred dollars ($100.00) valuation of property, real and personal.

In the event that a majority of those who shall vote in any election called under this Article do not at the election cast their vote for the local tax, another election under the provision of this Article may be held in the same unit, district, or area, after the lapse of six months.

Sec. 3. Who may petition for a school election. County and city boards of education may petition the board of county commissioners for an election in their respective administrative units or for any school area or areas therein.

In county administrative units, for any of the purposes enumerated in Section I of this Article, the school committee of a district, or a majority of the committees in an area including a number of districts, or a majority of the qualified voters who have resided for the preceding twelve months in a school area less than a district, and which area is adjacent to a city unit or a district to which it is desired to be annexed and which can be included in a common boundary with said unit or district, or the committee of a district formed from portions of two or more contiguous counties, may petition the county board of education for an election.

Sec. 4. Necessary information in petitions. The petition for an election shall contain such of the following information as may be pertinent to the proposed election:

1. Purpose or purposes for calling the proposed election.

2. A description of the area, by metes and bounds, in which the proposed election is requested.

3. The maximum rate of tax which is proposed to be levied.

4. If the petition is for an election to enlarge a city unit or district, it shall state therein that if a majority of those who shall vote thereon in such new territory, shall vote in favor of a "local tax of the same rate", the new territory shall become a part of said city unit or district, and the term "local tax of the same rate" herein, used, shall include, in addition to the usual local taxes, any tax levy to meet the interest and sinking funds of any school bonds heretofore issued by such city administrative unit or district which is enlarged, and which bonds, or other indebtedness, have not been otherwise provided for.

5. If the petition for an election is to supplement and equalize educational advantages, and if any school district or districts in the area in which it is proposed to vote such a tax have heretofore voted a supplementary tax, the petition and the notice of election shall state that in the event such election is carried, it will repeal all local taxes heretofore voted in any district except those in effect for debt service in any district, unless such debt service obligation is assumed by the county or otherwise provided for.

Sec. 5. Boards of education must consider petitions. The board of education to whom the petition requesting an election is addressed shall receive the petition and give it due consideration. If, in the discretion of the board of education, the petition for an election shall be endorsed by the chairman and the secretary of the board and a record of the endorsement shall be made in the minutes of the board. Petitions for an election to enlarge a city administrative unit shall be subject to the approval and endorsement of both county and city boards of education which are therein affected: Provided, that when such a petition is endorsed by the city board of education and signed by a majority of the voters in the affected area, the election shall be called.

County and city boards of education shall have no discretion in granting an election to abolish a special school tax in any administrative unit, or district, or other school area, which has previously voted a supplemental tax, whenever a majority of the qualified voters residing in said unit, district or school area, shall petition for an election. When such a petition, showing the proper number of names of qualified voters, is presented to a board of education, it is hereby made mandatory that such petition shall be granted and the election held. If at the election a majority of those in the district who have voted thereon have voted "against local tax", the tax shall be deemed revoked and shall not be levied: Provided, that in Alexander, Anson, Beaufort, Buncombe, Carteret, Catawba, Chatham, Chowan, Cleveland, Craven, Currituck, Davidson, Duplin, Franklin, Gates, Greene, Henderson, Hoke, Hyde, Iredell, Jackson, Johnston, Lenoir, Martin, Mecklenburg, Moore, Nash, Onslow, Pamlico, Pitt, Randolph, Richmond, Robeson, Rockingham, Transylvania, Vance, Wake, Warren and Wilkes Counties, petition of twenty-five per cent (25%) of the number of voters in the election creating said special tax district, said petition to be signed by qualified voters residing in such special tax district, shall be sufficient.

The provisions of this Section as to abolishing local tax districts shall not be applied when such local tax district is in debt in any sum whatever, or has obligated or committed its resources in any contractual manner: Provided, that no election for revoking a local tax in any local tax district shall be ordered and held in the district within less than one year from the date of the election at which the tax was voted and the district established, nor at any time within less than one year after the date of the last election on the question of revoking the tax in the district; and no petition seeking to revoke a school tax shall be approved by a board of education more often than once a year.

If the petition for an election in an area containing a number of districts is signed by the school committeeman of at least a majority of the school districts within a proposed special school taxing area, the board of education in such administrative unit shall endorse such petition and the election shall be held.

Sec. 6. Action of board of county commissioners. Petitions requesting special school elections and bearing the approval of the board of education of the unit shall be presented to the board of county commissioners, and it shall be the duty of said board of county commissioners to call an election and fix the date for the same: Provided, that the board of education requesting the election may, for any reason deemed sufficient by said board which shall be specified and recorded in the minutes of the board, withdraw the petition before the close of the registration books, and if the petition be so withdrawn, the election shall not be held unless by some other provision of law the holding of such election is mandatory.

Sec. 7. Rules governing elections for local taxes. In all elections held under this Article, the board of county commissioners shall designate the polling place or places, appoint the registrars and judges of election, canvass and judicially determine the results of said election when the returns have been filed with them by the officers holding the election, and record such determination on their records.

The notice of the election shall be given by publication at least three times in some newspaper published or circulated in the territory. It shall set forth the boundary lines of the district, the maximum rate of tax proposed to be levied, which shall not exceed the maximum prescribed by this Article, and the purpose of the tax. The first publication of such notice shall be at least thirty days before the election.

New registration of the qualified voters of the territory shall be ordered, unless the territory embraces an entire county or other organized political subdivision with current registration books; and in all cases a new registration may be ordered in the discretion of the board of county commissioners. Notice of said new registration shall be deemed to be sufficiently given by publication once in some newspaper published or circulated in said district at least twenty days before the close of the registration books. This notice of registration may be considered one of the three notices required of the election. Such published notice of registration shall state the days on which the books will be open for registration of voters and the place or places at which the books will be open on Saturdays. The books of such new registration shall close on the second Saturday before the election. The Saturday before the election shall be challenge day, and except as otherwise provided in this Article, such election shall be held in accordance with the law governing general elections.

The ballots to be used in said election shall have written or printed thereon the words "For local tax" and "Against local tax" for all elections called under this Article except those called under number three of Section 1 of this Article, in which case the ballots shall have written or printed thereon the words "For local tax of the same rate" and "Against local tax of the same rate".

All other details of said election shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners ordering the election, and the expense of holding and conducting the election shall be provided by the board of education of the administrative unit in which the election is held: Provided, that where territory is proposed to be added to a city administrative unit, the expense shall be borne by such unit.

In all cases where an election is called and held under the provisions of this Article, and a majority of the qualified voters voting at such election voted in favor of the tax or of propositions submitted, and the results of such election have been officially determined and recorded in the minutes of the board of county commissioners, the validity of such election, and of the registration for such election, shall not be open to question except in an action or proceeding commenced within thirty days after the determination of the results of such election.

Sec. 8. Elections in districts from portions of contiguous counties. Districts already created and those that may be created from portions of two or more contiguous counties, may hold elections under this Article to be incorporated or to vote a special local tax therein for the purposes enumerated in Section 1 of this Article.

Elections for either purpose must be initiated by petitions from the portion of each county included in the district, or the proposed district. In districts already created, the majority of the committeemen must sign the petition. In proposed districts, the petition must be signed by fifteen (15%) of the qualified voters who shall have resided in such area for the preceding twelve months. When the petitions shall have been approved by each of the boards of education of such contiguous counties, they shall then be presented by each of said boards of education to their respective boards of county commissioners.

The boards of commissioners of each of the contiguous counties, in compliance with the provisions of this Article relating to the conduct of local tax elections, shall then call and hold an election in that portion of the proposed district lying in its county. Election returns shall be made from each portion of the proposed district to the board of commissioners ordering the election in that portion, and the returns shall be canvassed and recorded as required in this Article for local tax districts.

If a majority of the voters who vote thereon in each of the counties shall vote in favor of the tax, or for incorporation, the election shall be determined to have carried in the whole district, and shall be so recorded in the records of the board of county commissioners in each county in which the district is located.

If the proposition submitted to the voters in the election is a question of incorporating the district, the ballots for this election shall have printed thereon the words "For incorporation" and "Against incorporation". If the election for incorporation is carried, the district is thereby incorporated and shall possess all the authority of incorporated districts.

In case the election carried in each portion of the proposed district, the several county boards of education concerned shall each pass a formal order consolidating the territory into one joint local tax district, which shall be and become a body corporate by the name and style of "..... Joint Local Tax School District of..... Counties". The county board of education having the largest school census and the largest area in the part of the joint local tax district lying in its county shall determine the location of the schoolhouse; but if the largest census and largest area do not both lie in the same county, then the county boards shall jointly select the site for the building; and in case of a disagreement they shall submit the question to a board of arbitration consisting of three members, one member to be named by each board of education if three counties are concerned, or if there are but two counties, then each board shall choose one member and the two so named shall select the third member. The decision of this board of arbitration shall be binding on all county boards of education concerned.

The school committee shall consist of five members, three of whom shall be appointed by the board of education of the county in which the building is to be situated and two to be appointed by the other county or counties, but the terms of office shall be so arranged that not more than two members will retire in any one year. The committee shall officially exercise such corporate powers as are conferred by this Section. This committee shall have all the powers and duties of committees of local tax districts, and in addition thereto it shall adopt a corporate seal and have the power to sue and be sued in its corporate name. The committee shall have the power to determine the rate of local taxes to be levied in said joint district, not exceeding the rate authorized by the voters of the district, and when the committee shall have so determined the rate of local taxes to be levied in said joint district and shall have certified same to the boards of commissioners of the several counties from which said joint district is created, the said boards of county commissioners, and each of them, shall levy said rate of local taxes within the portion of said joint district lying within their respective counties; and the taxes so levied shall be collected in the several counties as other taxes are collected therein, and shall be paid over by the officers collecting the same to the treasurer or other fiscal agent of the county in which the schoolhouse is located, or is to be located, to be by him placed to the credit of the joint district.

The committee shall have as full authority to call and hold elections for the voting of bonds of the district as is conferred upon boards of education and boards of commissioners. In calling the election for a bond issue, no petition of the county board of education shall be necessary; but the election shall be called and held by the school committee of the incorporated local tax school district under as ample authority as is conferred upon both county boards of education and boards of commissioners. When bonds of the district have been voted under authority of this Section, they shall be issued subject to the limitations of the Local Government Act and County Fiscal Control Act in the corporate name of the district, signed by the chairman and secretary of the school committee, sold by the school committee, and the proceeds thereof deposited with the treasurer of the county board of education of the county in which the school building is, or is to be, located, to be placed to the credit of the joint district, and the taxes for the payment of principal and interest shall be levied and collected as provided hereinabove for the levy and collection of local taxes: Provided, that certified copies of the bond orders and resolutions shall be recorded on the minutes of the board of commissioners of each county constituting a part of the joint school district.

The building of all schoolhouses in such joint local tax districts shall be effected by the county board of education of the county in which the building is to be located under authority of law governing the erection of school buildings by county boards of education. It shall be lawful for the boards of education in the other county or counties to contribute to the cost of the building in proportion to the number of children shown by the official census to be resident within that part of the joint district lying within each county respectively. If the building is to be erected from moneys borrowed from the State Literary Fund or from county taxation, then each county board of education shall contribute to its construction in the proportion set out above and pay over its contribution to the treasurer of the county board having control of the erection of the building: Provided, it shall be lawful for the county board that controls the erection of the building to borrow from the State and lend to the district the full amount of the cost of the building in cases where the entire amount, or part of the amount, is to be repaid by the district from district funds.

All district funds of a joint local tax district shall be kept distinct from all other funds, placed to the credit of the district, and expended as other local tax or district bond funds are lawfully disbursed.

The county board of education and county superintendent of schools of the county in which the schoolhouse is located shall have as full and ample control over the joint school and the district as it has in the case of other local tax districts, subject only to the limitations of this Section.

The committee of the joint school district shall prepare a budget annually in accordance with the law governing budgets in which the committee will indicate objects and items of expenditure which are proposed to be made from the collection of the special tax of the district. This budget shall show the proportionate part of the expense to be contributed by each county, which part shall be ascertained on the basis of the proportions of the total district school census living in each respective county. When this budget is completed by the committee of the joint district, a copy of it shall be filed with the county board of education of each county, and it shall be the duty of each board of education, if it approves the district budget, to incorporate it in the county budget to be submitted to the board of commissioners of each county. Each of the several county boards of education is hereby directed to pay over its proportionate part of the district budget, when and as collected, to the treasurer of the board of education of the county in which the school plant is located for the purposes for which it has been levied and collected.

All districts formed from portions of contiguous counties before the ratification of this Article are hereby authorized and empowered to exercise all the powers and privileges conferred by this Article.

Sec. 9. Levy and collection of taxes. In cases where administrative units or districts have voted, or may hereafter vote, a tax in order to operate schools of a higher standard than that provided by State support, county and city boards of education, at the same time the other budgets are filed, shall file a supplemental budget therefor and request that a sufficient levy be made by the tax levying authorities, not in excess of the rate voted by the people in such unit or district. The tax levying authorities may approve or disapprove this supplemental budget in whole or in part, and shall levy such taxes as necessary to provide for the approved budget for supplemental purposes, not exceeding the amount of the tax levy authorized by the vote of the people. The expenditure of the proceeds of said levy shall be in accordance with the aforesaid supplemental budget as approved by the tax levying authorities, except where such levy is voted in a district, in which case the written consent of the chairman of the district committee shall also be obtained before any of said proceeds are expended: Provided, that the tax levying authorities may fix a charge against any administrative unit or district for collection of such levies not exceeding one per cent (1%) thereof. The superintendent of schools, the county accountant or auditor, the officer in charge of tax records, and the county treasurer shall keep records in their respective offices, showing the valuation of all property in the unit, district, or area; the rate of tax authorized annually to be levied, and the amount annually derived from the local tax. It shall be illegal for any part of the local tax fund to be used for any purpose other than those purposes authorized by the election in the unit, or district.

Sec. 10. In all those cases in which proceedings for an election may have been begun but not completed prior to the ratification of this Act, such proceedings may be completed and the election held under the statutes in force prior to the ratification of this Act.

SUBCHAPTER VI. SCHOOL PROPERTY

School Sites and Property

Section 1. Acquisition of sites. County and city boards of education may acquire, by gift or by purchase, suitable sites for schoolhouses or other school facilities either within or without the administrative unit; but no school may be operated by an administrative unit outside its own boundaries, although other school facilities such as repair shops, may be operated outside the boundaries of the administrative unit. But whenever any such board is unable to obtain a suitable site for a school, school building, school bus garage or for a parking area for school buses or for other school facilities by gift or purchase, the county or city superintendent of the administrative unit shall, upon five days notice to the owner or owners of the land apply in the name of the board of education to the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county in which the land is situated for an appointment of three appraisers who shall lay off by metes and bounds not more than thirty acres, and shall assess the value thereof. These appraisers shall make a written report of their proceedings, to be signed by them, or by a majority of them, to the Clerk, within five days of their appointment, who shall enter the same upon the records of the court. The appraisers and officers shall serve without compensation. If the report is confirmed by the Clerk, the chairman and the secretary of the board shall issue a voucher on the treasurer of the county school fund or, if a city administrative unit, upon the treasurer of such unit, in favor of the owner of the land thus laid off, and upon the payment, or offer of payment of this voucher, the title to such land shall vest in fee simple in the board. Any person aggrieved by the action of the appraisers, including county and city boards of education, may appeal to the Superior Court in term, upon giving bond to secure the board against such costs as may be incurred on account of the appeal not being prosecuted with effect. If the lands sought to be condemned hereunder, or any part of said lands shall be owned by a nonresident of the State, before the Clerk shall appoint appraisers therefor, notice to such nonresident owner shall be given of such proceedings to condemn, by publication once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county, and if no newspaper is published in the county, then by posting such notice at the courthouse door and three other public places in the county for the period of thirty days: Provided, where sites have already been acquired and additional adjacent lands are necessary, such additional lands may be acquired as in this Section provided, which lands, together with the old site, shall not exceed twenty acres.

Sec. 2. Sale or lease of school property. 1. When in the opinion of any county board of education, or of any board of education for any city administrative unit, the use of any building, building site, or other real property owned or held by such board is unnecessary or undesirable for public school purposes, the board may sell such property at public auction. Such sale shall be held on the property to be sold or at the courthouse door in the county in which such property is located, and shall be advertised and otherwise conducted as is prescribed by statute for judicial sales of real property. The sale shall then remain open for ten days to permit the making of an upset bid. The resale of such property following such upset bid, and the procedure therefor shall be as prescribed by statute for judicial sales of real property. If the time for making an upset bid shall expire without such bid having been made, the board may confirm the sale if it deems the highest bid to be an adequate price. Upon confirmation of the sale by the board, the chairman and the secretary of the board shall execute a deed to the purchaser of the property upon his compliance with his bid. Confirmation of the sale by the Clerk of the Superior Court shall not be required. The proceeds of the sale shall be paid to the treasurer of the school fund of such county or city administrative unit, and shall be used either to reduce the bonded indebtedness of such administrative unit or for capital outlay purposes.

2. When in the opinion of any county board of education, or of any board of education for any city administrative unit, the use of any property, other than real property, owned or held by such board is unnecessary or undesirable for public school purposes, the board may sell such property either through the facilities of the North Carolina Division of Purchase and Contract or at public auction. If sold at public auction such sale shall be held at such place within such county or city administrative unit as shall be designated by the board, and shall be advertised and otherwise conducted as is prescribed by statute for the sale of personal property under a power of sale contained in a chattel mortgage. Title to the property so sold shall not pass by reason of such sale until the sale has been confirmed by the board and the purchaser has complied with the terms of his bid. The proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the treasurer of the school fund of such county or city administrative unit.

3. If in the opinion of the board the highest bid at any sale or resale of personal property sold pursuant to the provisions of this Section is not adequate, such bid may be rejected and the property may again be advertised for sale as provided in this Section, or may be sold by the board at a private sale for a price in excess of the highest bid at such public sale.

4. In the acquisition by it of any property for public school purposes any county board of education, or any board of education for any city administrative unit, may exchange therefor, as full or partial payment therefor, any property owned or held by it, without compliance with the provisions of this Section: Provided, that for at least ten days before any exchange of real property shall be consummated, the terms of such proposed exchange shall be filed in the office of the superintendent of schools of such administrative unit and in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court in the county in which such property is located, and a notice thereof published one or more times in a newspaper having a general circulation in the administrative unit at least ten days before the consummation of said exchange.

5. When in the opinion of any county board of education, or of the board of education for any city administrative unit, the use of any property owned or held by it is unnecessary or undesirable for public school purposes, but the sale of such property is not practicable or in the public interest, such board may in its discretion enter into an agreement with any other person, firm or corporation for the lease of such property to such person, firm or corporation for a term not in excess of one year, upon such terms and conditions as the board shall deem advisable and in the public interest.

Sec. 3. Deeds to property. All deeds to school property shall, after registration be delivered to the superintendent of the administrative unit in which the property is located and he shall provide a safe place for preserving all such deeds.

Sec. 4. Vehicles owned by boards of education exempt from taxation; registration. All school buses, trucks, automobiles and other motor vehicles owned by county and city boards of education and used for transporting pupils to and from school or used by other school personnel in the prosecution of their work, shall be exempt from taxation, but all such vehicles shall be duly registered in the Department of Motor Vehicles as provided in G. S. 20-84.

Sec. 5. Provision for school buildings and equipment. It shall be the duty of the boards of education of the several administrative school units of the State to make provisions for the nine months' school term by providing adequate school buildings equipped with suitable school furniture and apparatus. The needs and the cost of such buildings, equipment, and apparatus, shall be presented each year when the school budget is submitted to the respective tax levying authorities. The boards of commissioners shall be given a reasonable time to provide the funds when they, upon investigation, shall find to be necessary for providing their respective units with buildings suitably equipped, and it shall be the duty of the several boards of county commissioners to provide funds for the same.

Sec. 6. Erection and repair of schoolhouses. The building of all new schoolhouses and the repairing of all old schoolhouses shall be under the control and direction of, and by contract with, the board of education in which such building and repairing is done. Boards of education shall not invest any money in any new building that is not built in accordance with plans approved by the State Superintendent as to structural and functional soundness, safety and sanitation, nor contract for more money than is made available for its erection. All contracts for buildings shall be in writing and all buildings shall be inspected, received, and approved by the county or city superintendent and the architect before full payment is made therefor: Provided, that this Section shall not prohibit boards of education from repairing and altering buildings with the help of janitors and other regular employees of said board.

In the case of any school buildings erected, repaired, or equipped with any money loaned or granted by the State to any administrative unit, the State Board of Education, under such rules as it may deem advisable, may retain any amount not to exceed fifteen per cent (15%) of said loan or grant, until such completed buildings, erected or repaired, in whole or in part, from such loan or grant funds shall have been approved by a designated agent of the State Board of Education.

Upon such approval by the State Board of Education, the State Treasurer is authorized to pay the balance of the loan or grant to the treasurer of the school administrative unit for which said loan or grant was made.

Sec. 7. Board cannot erect or repair building unless site is owned by board. County and city boards of education shall make no contract for the erection or repair of any school building unless the site upon which it is located is owned in fee simple by the said board: Provided, that the board of education of a county or city administrative unit, with the approval of the board of county commissioners is authorized to appropriate funds to aid in the establishment of a school facility and the operation thereof in an adjoining county or city administrative unit when a written agreement between the boards of education of the administrative units involved has been reached and the same recorded in the minutes of said boards, whereby children from the unit making such appropriations shall be entitled to attend the school so established.

In all cases where title to property has been vested in the trustees of a special charter district which has been abolished and has not been reorganized, title to such property shall be vested in the county or city board of education of the county embracing such former special charter district.

Sec. 8. Duty of board to provide equipment for school buildings. It shall be the duty of county and city boards of education and tax levying authorities to provide suitable supplies for the school buildings under their jurisdiction. These shall include, in addition to the necessary instructional supplies, proper window shades, blackboards, reference books, library equipment, maps, and equipment for teaching the sciences.

Likewise, it shall be the duty of said boards of education and boards of county commissioners to provide every school with a good supply of water, approved by the State Board of Health, and where such school cannot be connected to water-carried sewerage facilities, there shall be provided sanitary privies for the boys and for the girls according to specifications of the State Board of Health. Such water supply and sanitary privies shall be considered an essential and necessary part of the equipment of each public school and may be paid for in the same manner as desks and other essential equipment of the school are paid for.

Sec. 9. Duties of boards of education to keep buildings in repair and determine use of school property. It shall be the duty of county and city boards of education and tax levying authorities, in order to safeguard the investment made in public schools, to keep all school buildings in good repair to the end that all public school property shall be taken care of and be at all times in proper condition for use. It shall be the duty of all committeemen, principals, teachers, and janitors to report to their respective boards of education immediately any unsanitary condition, damage to school property, or needed repair. All principals, teachers, and janitors shall be held responsible for the safekeeping of the buildings during the school session and all breakage and damage shall be repaired by those responsible for same, and where any principal or teacher shall permit damage to the public school buildings by lack of proper discipline of pupils, such principal or teacher shall be held responsible for such damage: Provided, principals and teachers shall not be held responsible for damage that they could not have prevented by reasonable supervision in the performance of their duties.

Boards of education shall have the power and authority to promulgate rules and regulations by which school buildings may be used for other than school purposes, to the end that the community may be encouraged to use school buildings for civic or community meetings of all kinds which may be beneficial to the members of the community and at the same time preserve and properly care for public school buildings.

State Insurance of Public School Property

Section 1. Authority and rules for the organization of the system. The State Board of Education is hereby authorized, directed and empowered to establish a division to manage and operate a system of insurance for public school property. The board shall adopt such rules and regulations as, in its discretion, may be necessary to provide all details inherent in the insurance of public school property. The board shall employ a director, safety inspectors, engineers and other personnel with suitable training and experience, which in its opinion is necessary to insure and protect effectively public school property, and it shall fix their compensation with the approval of the Personnel Department.

Sec. 2. Public School Insurance Fund; decrease of premiums when fund reaches five per cent (5%) of total insurance in force. There shall be set up in the books of the State Treasurer a fund to be known and designated as the "Public School Insurance Fund", which fund hereafter in this Article is referred to as "the fund". In order to provide adequate reserves against losses which may be incurred on account of the risks insured against as provided in this Article and to provide payment for such losses as may be incurred therein, there is hereby appropriated to "the fund" the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000.00), which shall be paid from and charged to the State Literary Fund as setup and defined in this Chapter. When the reserves in "the fund" shall be increased by the payment of premiums by the governing boards of county and city administrative school units, or otherwise, to the extent of one million dollars ($1,000,000.00), there shall be transferred from "the fund" back to the State Literary Fund the sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000.00) and when "the fund" shall again be increased to the extent of another one million dollars ($1,000,000.00), there shall be transferred therefrom back to the State Literary Fund an additional sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000.00) in full reimbursement of the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000.00), which is authorized to be transferred from the State Literary Fund by the provisions hereof. All funds paid over to the State Treasurer for premiums on insurance by the governing boards of county and city school administrative units and all money received from interest or from loans and deposits and from any other source connected with the insurance of the property hereinafter referred to shall be held by the State Treasurer in "the fund" for the purpose of paying all fire, lightning, windstorm, hail and explosion losses for which the said fund shall be liable and the expenses necessary for the proper conduct of the insurance of said property, together with such premiums for reinsurance of such part of said insurance as the State Board of Education may deem necessary to reinsure, as provided for in this Article. Such part of the money in "the fund" as may not be needed for the payment of current demands thereon shall be invested by the State Treasurer in such securities as constitute permissible investments for State sinking funds, and all of the earnings thereon shall be paid into "the fund". The State Treasurer shall annually report to the State Board of Education and to the General Assembly the status of "the fund" and a detailed statement of the investments therein and earnings therefrom.

When the fund herein provided for reaches the sum of five per cent (5%) of the total insurance in force, then annually thereafter the State Board of Education shall proportionately decrease the premiums on insurance to an amount which will be sufficient to maintain "the fund" at five per cent (5%) of the total insurance in force, and in the event in the judgment of the State Board of Education the income from the investments of "the fund" are sufficient to maintain the same at five per cent (5%) of the total insurance in force, no premiums shall be charged for the ensuing year, provided that no building or property insured shall cease to pay premiums until five annual payments of premiums have been made whether or not through such payments the fund shall be increased beyond five per cent (5%) of the total insurance in force, unless such building or property shall cease to be insurable within the meaning of this Article within such five-year period.

Sec. 3. Insurance of property by school governing boards; notice of election to insure and information to be furnished; outstanding policies. All county and city boards of education may insure all property within their units against the direct loss of damage by fire, lightning, windstorm, hail or explosions resulting by reason of defects in equipment in public school buildings and other public school properties in "the fund" hereinbefore set up and provided for. Any property covered by an insurance policy in effect on the date when the property of a unit is insured in "the fund" shall be insured by "the fund" as of the expiration of the policy. Each school governing board shall give notice of its election to insure in "the fund" at least thirty days prior to such insurance becoming effective and shall furnish to the State Board of Education a full and complete list of all outstanding fire insurance policies, giving in complete detail the name of the insurers, the amount of the insurance and expirations thereof. While the said insurance policies remain in effect, "the fund" shall act as co-insurer of the properties covered by such insurance to the same extent and in the same manner as is provided for co-insurance under the provisions of the standard form of fire insurance as provided by land, and in the event of loss shall have the same rights and duties as required by participating insurance companies.

Sec. 4. Inspections of insured public school properties. The State Board of Education shall provide for periodic inspections of all public school properties in the State of North Carolina insured under the provisions hereof, the said inspections for safety of buildings and particularly school buildings, against the loss or damage from fire and explosions. The inspections shall be the basis for offering such engineering advice as may be thought to be necessary to safeguard the children in the public schools from death and injury from school fires or explosions and to protect said school properties from loss, and the local schol authorities shall be required so far as possible, and reasonable, to carry out and put into effect such recommendations in respect thereto as may be made by the State Board of Education.

Sec. 5. Information to be furnished prior to insuring in the fund; providing for payment of premiums. County and city boards of education shall at least thirty days before insuring in "the fund", furnish to the State Board of Education a complete and detailed list of all school buildings and contents thereof and other insurable school property, together with an estimate of the present value of the said property. Valuation for purposes of insuring in "the fund" shall be reached by agreement in accordance with the procedure hereinafter set up for adjustment of losses. County and city boards of education and the tax levying authorities shall be required to provide for the payment of premiums for insurance on the school properties of each unit, respectively, to the extent of not less than seventy-five per cent (75%) of the current insurable value of the said properties, including the insurance in fire insurance companies and the insurance provided by "the fund" as set out herein.

Sec. 6. Determination and adjustment of premium rates; certificate as to insurance carried; no lapsation; notice as to premiums required, and payment thereof. The State Board of Education shall determine the annual premium rate to be charged for insurance of school properties as herein provided, which said rate shall not, however, be in excess of the rates fixed by law for insurance of such properties in effect on May 31, 1948, and such rates shall be adjusted from time to time so as to provide insurance against damage or loss resulting from fires, lightning, windstorm, hail or explosions resulting from defects in equipment in public school buildings and properties for the local school units at the lowest cost possible in keeping with the payment of cost of administration of this Article, and the creation of adequate reserves to pay losses which may be incurred. The State Board of Education shall furnish to each county and city administrative unit annually and, at such times as changes may require, a certificate showing the amount of insurance carried on each item of insurable property. The said insurance shall not lapse but shall remain in force until the county or city board of education requests that said insurance be cancelled or until such property becomes uninsurable in the manner set out in Section 8 of this Article. From time to time the local school authorities shall be notified as to the amount of the premiums required to be paid for said insurance and the amounts thereof shall be provided for in the annual budget of such schools. The tax levying authorities shall provide by taxation or otherwise a sum sufficient to pay the required premiums thereon.

The local school authorities shall within thirty (30) days from notice thereof pay to the State Board of Education the premiums on such insurance, and in the event that there are no funds on hand at such time with which to make said payment, the same shall be paid out of the first funds available to such school board. Delayed payments shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum.

Sec. 7. Adjustment of losses; determination and report of appraisers; payment of amounts to treasurers of local units; disbursement of funds. In the event of loss or damage by fire, lightning, windstorm, hail, or explosions resulting from defects in equipment in public school buildings and properties for the local schol units, "the fund" shall pay the loss in the same proportion as the amount of insurance carried bore to the valuation of the property at the time it was insured, but not exceeding the amount which it would cost to repair or replace the property with material of like quality within a reasonable time after such loss, not in excess of the amount of insurance provided for said property, and not in excess of the amount of such loss which "the fund" is required to pay in participation with fire insurance companies having policies of insurance in force on said properties at the time of the loss or damage, and "the fund" shall not be liable for a greater proportion of any loss than the amount of insurance thereon shall bear to the whole insurance covering the property against the peril involved.

In the event of loss or damage by fire, lightning, windstorm, hail, or explosions resulting from defects in equipment in public school buildings and properties of the local school units, to the property insured, when an agreement as to the extent of such loss or damage cannot be arrived at between the State Board of Education and the local officials having charge of the said property, the amount of such loss or damage shall be determined by three appraisers; one to be named by the State Board of Education, one by the local governing board having charge of the property, and the two so appointed shall select a third—all of whom shall be disinterested persons, and qualified from experience to appraise and value such property: Provided, however, if the appraisers appointed by the State Board of Education and the local governing board shall fail for fifteen days to agree upon the third appraiser, then, on request of the State Board of Education or the local governing board having charge of the property, such third appraiser shall be selected by the Resident Judge of the Superior Court of the judicial district in which the property is located. The appraisers so named shall file their written report with the State Board of Education and with the local governing board having such property in charge. The costs of the appraisal shall be paid by "the fund". Upon the determination of the loss by the appraisers, the State Board of Education shall pay the amount of such loss or damage to school property in the control of the county administrative unit to the county treasurer, and pay the amount of loss or damage to property of a city administrative unit to the treasurer of said unit upon proper warrant of the State Board of Education. Said funds shall be paid out by the treasurer of said units, as provided by this Chapter for the disbursement of the funds of such unit.

Sec. 8. Maintenance of inspection and engineering service; cancellation of insurance. The State Board of Education is authorized and empowered to maintain an inspection and engineering service deemed by it appropriate and necessary to reduce the hazards of fire in public school buildings insured in "the fund" as hereinbefore provided, and to expend for such purpose not in excess of ten per cent (10%) of the annual premiums collected from the local school authorities. The State Board of Education is hereby authorized and empowered to cancel any insurance on any school property when, in its opinion, because of dilapidation and depreciation such property is no longer insurable. Before cancellation, the local school board shall be given at least thirty (30) days' notice, and in the event said property can be restored to insurable condition, the State Board of Education may make such orders with respect to the continuance of such coverage as may be deemed proper: Provided, that the findings and results of the inspection of local school property by the agents of the board shall be reported to county and city boards of education and to the board of county commissioners of such units as carry insurance with the State thirty (30) days before budget making time in order that all school property shall be properly taken care of and made safe from fire hazards.

Section 1. Health certificate required for teachers and other school personnel. Any person serving as county superintendent, city superintendent, supervisor, district principal, building principal, teacher, or any other employee in the public schools of the State, shall file in the office of the county or city superintendent each year, before assuming his or her duties, a certificate from the county physician, health officer, or other reputable physician, certifying that the said person does not have tuberculosis in the communicable form, or other communicable disease, or any disease, physical or mental, which would impair the ability of the said person to perform effectively his or her duties.

The examining physician shall make the aforesaid certificate on an examination form supplied by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. The certificate shall be issued only after a physical examination has been made at the time of the certification, and such examination shall be in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, with approval of the State Health Officer, and such rules and regulations may include the requirement of an X-ray chest examination.

It shall be the duty of the county or city superintendent of the school in which the person is employed to enforce the provisions of this Section.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this Section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine or imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 2. When principal or teacher may resign. After entering into a written contract, any teacher, principal, or supervisor desiring to resign or abrogate his contract must give not less than thirty days notice in writing to the county or city superintendent by whom employed. In the event the resignation is submitted within less than thirty days prior to the opening of school, or if there is evidence that the contract has been wilfully breached, the employing authorities shall have authority to request the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in his discretion, to revoke the employee's certificate for a period of one year.

Sec. 3. Causes for removal of principals and teachers. The county and city boards of education and district committees, with the approval of the superintendent, may dismiss a principal or teacher for immoral or disreputable conduct or for failure to comply with the provisions of the contract. The superintendent of schools, with the approval of the committee or the board of education, has authority and it is his duty to dismiss a principal or teacher who has proven himself incompetent, or who wilfully refuses to discharge the duties of a public school principal or teacher, or who may be persistently neglectful of such duties. However, no principal or teacher shall be dismissed until charges have been filed in writing in the office of the superintendent and such principal or teacher given at least five days notice in which time he shall have the opportunity to appear before the board of education or the district committee before whom the matter is being investigated. After a full and fair hearing the action of the board of education or the committee shall be final: Provided, the principal or teacher shall have the right to appeal to the county board of education if the action was taken by a district committee, and thereafter to the courts, or directly to the courts if the action was taken by a county or city board of education.

In cases where principals or teachers have been dismissed by boards of education for immoral or disreputable conduct and where such conduct in the opinion of the superintendent of schools warrant it, he shall notify the State Superintendent of Public Instruction who shall have authority to revoke such principal's or teacher's certificate, if he deems such action justifiable.

Sec. 4. Duties of teachers. It shall be the duty of all teachers to maintain good order and discipline in their respective schools; to encourage temperance, morality, industry, and neatness; to promote the health of all pupils, especially of children in the first three grades, by providing frequent periods of recreation, to supervise the play activities during recess, and to encourage wholesome exercises for all children; to teach as thoroughly as they are able all branches which they are required to teach; to provide for singing in the school, and so far as possible to give instruction in public school music; and to enter actively into the plans of the superintendent for the professional growth of the teachers. Teachers shall cooperate with the principal in ascertaining the cause of non-attendance of pupils that he may report all violators of the compulsory attendance law to the attendance officer in accordance with rules promulgated by the State Board of Education.

Sec. 5. Power to suspend or dismiss pupils. A district principal, or a building principal, shall have authority to suspend any pupil who wilfully and persistently violates the rules of the school or who may be guilty of immoral or disreputable conduct, or who may be a menace to the school. Every suspension for cause shall be reported at once to the attendance officer, who shall investigate the cause and deal with the offender in accordance with rules governing the attendance of children in school.

Sec. 6. Duty to make reports to superintendent; making false reports or records. Every principal or teacher of a public school shall make such reports as are required by the boards of education, and the superintendent shall not approve the vouchers for the pay of principals or teachers until the required monthly and annual reports are made: Provided, that the superintendents may require teachers to make reports to the principals and principals to make reports to the superintendent: Provided further, that any superintendent, principal, teacher or other school employee of the public schools, who knowingly and wilfully makes or procures another to make any false report or records, requisitions, or pay rolls, respecting daily attendance of pupils in the public schools, pay roll data sheets, or other reports required to be made to any board or officer in the performance of their duties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court and the certicate of such person to teach in the public schools of North Carolina shall be revoked by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Sec. 7. Care of the school building. It shall be the duty of every teacher and principal in charge of school buildings to instruct the children in the proper care of public property, and it is their duty to exercise due care in the protection of school property against damage, either by defacement of the walls and doors or any breakage on the part of the pupils, and if they shall fail to exercise a reasonable care in the protection of property during the day, they may be held financially responsible for all such damage, and if the damage is due to carelessness or negligence on the part of the teachers or principal, the superintendent may hold those in charge of the building responsible for the damage, and if it is not repaired before the close of a term, a sufficient amount may be deducted from their final vouchers to repair the damage for which they are responsible.

If any child in school shall carelessly or wilfully damage school property, the teacher or principal shall report the damage to the parent, and if the parent refuses to pay the cost of repairing the same, the teacher or principal shall report the offense to the superintendent of schools.

It shall be the duty of all principals to report immediately to their respective superintendents any unsanitary condition, damage to school property or needed repair.

Sec. 8. Authority and duty of principal. The principal of a district is the executive school officer of the district, and the principal of a school is the executive officer of that school. The principal shall have authority to grade and classify pupils and exercise discipline over the pupils of the district or schools. The principal of a district shall make all reports to the county superintendent and the principal of a school shall make reports to the district principal, and in their capacity as principals, they shall give suggestions to teachers for the improvement of instruction. And it shall be the duty of each teacher, including teachers of vocational agriculture, vocational home economics, trades and industries, in a district or in a school to cooperate with the principal in every way possible to promote good teaching in the school and a progressive community spirit among its patrons.

Sec. 9. Salary increments for experience to teachers, principals and superintendents in armed and auxiliary forces. The State Board of Education, in fixing the State standard salary schedule of teachers, principals and superintendents as authorized by law, shall provide that teachers, principals and superintendents who entered the armed or auxiliary forces of the United States after September sixteenth, one thousand nine sundred and forty, and who left their positions for such service, shall be allowed experience increments for the period of such service as though the same had not been interrupted thereby, in the event such persons return to the positions of teachers, principals, or superintendents in the public schools of the State after having been honorably discharged from the armed or auxiliary forces of the United States.

Certification and Salaries of Professional Employees

Section 1. Certificate prerequisite to employment. All teachers, supervisors and other professional personnel employed in the public schools of the State, or in schools receiving public funds, shall be required to hold certificates in accordance with the law, and no contract for employment shall be valid until the certificate is secured: Provided, that nothing herein shall prevent the employment of temporary personnel under such rules as the State Board of Education may prescribe: Provided, further, that no person shall be employed to teach who is under eighteen years of age.

Sec. 2. Certifying and regulating the grade and salary of teachers. The State Board of Education shall have entire control of certificating all applicants for teaching, supervisory, and professional positions in all public elementary and high schools of North Carolina; and it shall prescribe the rules and regulations for the renewal and extension of all certificates,

Sec. 3. Local approval of certicate required. No certificate issued by the board shall be valid until approved and signed by the superintendent of the administrative unit in which the holder of said certificate resides, or contracts to teach, and the certificate when so approved shall be of State-wide validity. Should any superintendent refuse to approve and sign any such certificate, he shall notify the State Board of Education and state in writing the reasons for such refusal. The said board shall have the right, upon appeal by the holder of said certificate, to review and investigate and finally determine the matter.

Sec. 4. Employment of persons without certificate unlawful; salaries not paid. It shall be unlawful for any board of education or school committee to employ or to keep in service any teacher, supervisor, or other professional school personnel who does not hold a certificate in compliance with the provisions of law or in accordance with the regulations of the State Board of Education governing emergency substitute personnel.

The county or city superintendent, or other official, is forbidden to approve any voucher for salary for any personnel employed in violation of the provisions of this Section and the treasurer of the county or of the city schools is hereby forbidden to pay out of the school funds the salary of any such person.

Sec. 5. Colleges to aid as to certificates. Each and every college or university of the State is hereby authorized to aid public school teachers or prospective teachers in securing, raising, or renewing their certificates, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education.

Sec. 6. Pay of school officials and other employees. Teachers and principals shall be paid promptly when their salaries are due, provided they have been properly elected, have executed their contracts, and deposited a copy of the same with their respective boards of education, and have taught a school month of twenty days, or for a less number of days when their employment is terminating. All such teachers and principals employed by any administrative unit or any school district, who are to be paid from local funds, shall be paid promptly as provided by law and as State allotted teachers and principals are paid.

Public school employees paid from State funds shall be paid as follows:

Salary vouchers for the payment of all State allotted teachers, principals, and others employed for the school term shall be issued each month to such persons as are entitled to same. The salaries of superintendents and others employed on an annual basis shall be paid per calendar month: Provided, that teachers may be paid in twelve equal monthly installments in such administrative units as shall request the same of the State Board of Education on or before October first of each school year. Before such request shall be filed, it shall be approved by the board of education, the superintendent, and a majority of the teachers in said administrative unit. The payment of the annual salary in twelve installments instead of nine shall not increase or decrease said annual salary nor in any other way alter the contract made between the teacher and the said administrative unit; nor shall such payment apply to any teacher who is employed for a period of less than nine months. Classified principals in the public schools of the State shall be employed for a term of ten (10) months and shall be paid on the basis of ten (10) months' service.

The State Board of Education is authorized to prescribe what portion of said extra month shall apply to services rendered before the opening of the school term and after the closing of the school year and to fix and regulate the duties of principals during said extra month.

The State Board of Education may, in its discretion and under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe, provide for the payment of the salaries of regular State allotted teachers in ten (10) equal monthly payments. It shall also provide for the salaries of vocational teachers in such monthly payments as may be desirable and in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed for the operation of the vocational program and in accordance with Federal laws and regulations relating to such funds.

In any administrative unit which shall request the same of the State Board of Education on or before August 1 of each school year, teachers may be paid in nine equal payments on the basis of service for nine school months, such payments to be made on the same fixed date in each calendar month during the school term as determined by the county or city board of education: Provided, that the county or city board of education shall sustain any loss by reason of an overpayment to any teacher or principal. Principals shall be paid during the school term on the same date as the teachers are paid.

All of the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be subject to the requirements that if the Old Age and Survivors Insurance Program of the Federal Social Security Act is coordinated with the Teachers and State Employees Retirement System pursuant to enactments of the General Assembly of 1955, then and in that event at least fifty dollars ($50.00) or other minimum amount required by Federal Social Security Laws, of the compensation of every teacher, principal or other school employee covered by the Teachers and State Employees Retirement System or otherwise eligible for Federal Social Security coverage, shall be paid in each of the four quarters of the calendar year.

Sec. 7. Authority of superintendent to issue salary vouchers. The authority for a superintendent to issue vouchers for the salary of all school employees, whether paid from State or local funds, shall be a monthly pay roll, prepared on forms furnished by the State Board of Education and containing all information required by the controller of the State Board of Education. This monthly pay roll shall be signed by the principal of the school in city administrative units, and in county administrative units by the principal and the chairman of the local committee. If any voucher so drawn is chargeable against district funds, the amount so charged and the district to which said amount is charged shall be specified on the voucher.

and Federal vocational funds while in attendance upon community, county and State meetings called for the specific purpose of promoting the agricultural interests of North Carolina, when such attendance is approved by the superintendent of the administrative unit and the State Director of Vocational Education.

Sec. 8. Cashing vouchers and payment of sums due on death of school employees. In the event of the death of any superintendent, teacher, principal, or other school employee, before cashing any voucher which has been issued for services rendered or to whom payment is due for services rendered, when there is no administration upon the estate of such person, such voucher may be cashed by the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county in which such deceased person resided, or a voucher due for such services may be made payable to such Clerk, who will be authorized to pay out such sums in the following manner: (1) For satisfaction of widow's year's allowance, if such is claimed. (2) For funeral expense and medical and doctor's bills for the last illness of the deceased, and any taxes due the State or local government. If any surplus remains, the Clerk of the Superior Court shall appoint and pay the surplus to an administrator. The Clerk shall receive no commission for making such payment to the administrator and the administrator shall receive no commission for receiving such surplus from the Clerk.

Sec. 9. Workmen's compensation. The provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act shall be applicable to all school employees, and the State Board of Education shall make such arrangements as are necessary to carry out the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act as are applicable to such employees as are paid from State school funds. Liability of the State for compensation shall be confined to school employees paid by the State from State school funds for injuries or death caused by accident arising out of and in the course of their employment in connection with the State operated nine months' school term. The State shall be liable for said compensation on the basis of the average weekly wage of such employees as defined in the Workmen's Compensation Act, whether all of said compensation for the nine months' school term is paid from State funds or in part supplemented by local funds. The State shall also be liable for Workmen's Compensation for all school employees employed in connection with the teaching of vocational agriculture, home economics, trades and industries, and other vocational subjects, supported in part by State and Federal funds, which liability shall cover the entire period of service of such employees. The county and city administrative units shall be liable for Workmen's Compensation for school employees, including lunchroom employees, whose salaries or wages are paid by such local units from local or special funds. Such local units are authorized and empowered to provide insurance to cover such compensation liability and to include the cost of such insurance in their annual budgets.

The provisions of this Section shall not apply to any person, firm or corporation making voluntary contributions to schools for any purpose, and such person, firm or corporation shall not be liable for the payment of any sum of money under this subchapter.

SUBCHAPTER VIII. PUPILS

Census, Admissions and Attendance

Section 1. Continuous school census. The State Board of Education shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary for taking a complete census of the school population and for installing and keeping in the office of the county and city superintendent in each school administrative unit of the State a continuous census of the school population. The cost of taking and keeping the census shall be included in the budget and shall be paid out of the current expense fund. If any parent, guardian, or other person having the custody of a child, refuses to give any properly authorized census taker the necessary information to enable such person to obtain an accurate and correct census, or shall knowingly and wilfully make any false statement relative to the age or the mental or physical condition of any child, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or imprisoned not to exceed thirty days, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 2. Age requirement and time of enrollment. Children to be entitled to enrollment in the public schools for the school year 1955-1956, and each year thereafter, must have passed the sixth anniversary of their birth before October first of the year in which they enroll, and must enroll during the first month of the school year: Provided, that if a particular child has already been attending school in another state in accordance with the laws or regulations of the school authorities of such state before moving to and becoming a resident of North Carolina, such child will be eligible for enrollment in the schools of this State regardless of whether such child has passed the sixth anniversary of his birth before October first. The State Board of Education is hereby authorized and empowered, in its discretion, to change the above dates of October first. The principal of any public school shall have the authority to require the parents of any child presented for admission for the first time to such school to furnish a certified copy of the birth certificate of such child, which shall be furnished without charge by the register of deeds of the county having on file the record of the birth of such child, or other satisfactory evidence of date of birth.

Sec. 3. Pupils residing in a school district shall have the advantages of the public schools. All pupils residing in a school district or attendance area, and who have not been removed from school for cause, shall be entitled to all the privileges and advantages of the public schools of such district or attendance area in such school buildings to which they are assigned by county and city boards of education: Provided, that wherever pupils from nontax units, districts, or attendance areas, are assigned to a school in a tax unit, district, or attendance area, the assignment shall be for only the current school year, unless satisfactory agreements are reached between all units, districts, or attendance areas concerned: Provided, further, that pupils residing in one administrative unit may be assigned either with or without the payment of tuition to a school located in another administrative unit upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed in writing between the boards of education of the administrative units involved and entered upon the official records of such boards: Provided, further, that the assignment of pupils living in one administrative unit or district to a school located in another administrative unit or district, either with or without the payment of tuition, shall have no effect upon the right of the administrative unit or district to which said pupils are assigned to levy and collect any supplemental tax heretofore or hereafter voted in such administrative unit or district: Provided, further, the boards of education of adjacent administrative units may operate schools in adjacent units upon written agreements between the respective boards of education and approval by the county commissioners and the State Board of Education.

Unless otherwise assigned by the county or city board of education, the following pupils are entitled to attend the schools in the district or attendance area in which they reside:

1. All pupils of the district or attendance area who have not completed the prescribed course for graduation in the high school.

2. All pupils whose parents have recently moved into the unit, district, or attendance area for the purpose of making their legal residence in the same.

3. Any pupil or pupils living with either father, mother or guardian who has made his or her permanent home within the district.

Sec. 4. Children at orphanages permitted to attend public schools. Children living in and cared for and supported by an institution established or incorporated for the purpose of rearing and caring for orphan children shall be considered legal residents of the administrative unit in which the institution is located, and a part of all of said orphan children shall be permitted to attend the public school or schools of their administrative unit. Provided: That the provisions of this Section shall be permissive only, and shall not be mandatory.

Sec. 5. Children not entitled to attend public schools. A child afflicted by mental or physical incapacity, or by such nervous disorders as to make it either impossible for such child to profit by instruction given in the public schools or impracticable for the teacher to properly instruct the normal pupils of the school, shall not be permitted to enroll or attend the public schools of the State.

In case such child is presented for enrollment in the public schools, it shall be the duty of the principal of the school to report the case to the county superintendent of public welfare, and it shall be his duty to report all such cases to the State Board of Public Welfare. Whereupon said board shall make, or cause to be made by qualified psychologists or medical authorities, an examination to ascertain the mental and physical incapacity of said child and report the same to the county or city superintendent of schools concerned. Such examination shall determine whether said child can profit mentally by attending the public schools and whether his physical capacities are such that he can attend school without disturbing the orderly procedure of a normal classroom and the report shall so state. Upon receipt of said report the county or city superintendent of schools is hereby authorized to exclude said child from the public schools. In all such cases in which a child is excluded from schools, a complete record of the transaction shall be filed in the office of the county or city superintendent and shall be available to the parties concerned. If the parent or guardian of such a child persists in forcing his attendance after such report has determined that he should not attend the public schools, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished in the discretion of the court.

General Compulsory Attendance Law

Section 1. Parent or guardian required to keep child in school; exceptions. Every parent, guardian or other person in the State having charge or control of a child between the ages of seven and sixteen years shall cause such child to attend school continuously for a period equal to the time which the public school to which the child is assigned and in which he is enrolled shall be in session. The principal, superintendent, or teacher who is in charge of such school shall have the right to excuse a child temporarily from attendance on account of sickness, distance of residence from bus route or school, or other unavoidable cause which does not constitute truance as defined by the State Board of Education. The term "school" as used herein is defined to embrace all public schools and such private schools as have tutors or teachers and curricula that are approved by the county or city superintendent of schools or the State Board of Education.

All private schools receiving and instructing children of a compulsory school age shall be required to keep such records of attendance and render such reports of the attendance of such children and maintain such minimum curriculum standards as are required of public schools; and attendance upon such schools, if the school or tutor refuses or neglects to keep such records or to render such reports, shall not be accepted in lieu of attendance upon the public school of the district to which the child shall be assigned: Provided, that instruction in a private school or by private tutor shall not be regarded as meeting the requirements of the law unless the courses of instruction run concurrently with the term of the public school in the district and extend for at least as long a term.

Sec. 2. State Board of Education to make rules and regulations; method of enforcement. It shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to formulate such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper enforcement of the provisions of this Article. The board shall prescribe what shall constitute truancy, what causes may constitute legitimate excuses for temporary nonattendance due to physical or mental inability to attend, and under what circumstances teachers, principals, or superintendents may excuse pupils for nonattendance due to immediate demands of the farm or the home in certain seasons of the year in the several sections of the State. It shall be the duty of all school officials to carry out such instructions from the State Board of Education, and any school official failing to carry out such instructions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, that the compulsory attendance law herein prescribed shall not be in force in any city or county that has a higher compulsory attendance feature than that provided herein.

Sec. 3. Attendance officer; reports; prosecutions. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prepare such rules and procedure and furnish such blanks for teachers and other school officials as may be necessary for reporting each case of truancy or lack of attendance to the attendance officer of the respective administrative units. Such rules shall provide, among other things, for a notification in writing to the person responsible for the nonattendance of any child, that the case is to be reported to the attendance officer of the administrative unit unless the law is complied with immediately. County or city boards of education may employ special attendance officers to be paid from funds provided in the current expense fund budget of such administrative unit and such officers shall have full authority to prosecute for violations of this Article: Provided, that in any unit where a special attendance officer is employed, the duties of attendance officer or truant officer as provided by law shall, insofar as they relate to such unit, be transferred from the county superintendent of public welfare to the special attendance officer of said unit.

Sec. 4. Violation of law; penalty. Any parent, guardian, or other person violating the provisions of this Article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00), and upon failure to pay such fine, the said parent, guardian or other person shall be imprisoned not exceeding thirty days in the county jail.

Sec. 5. Investigation and prosecution by welfare superintendent or attendance officer. The county superintendent of public welfare, or school attendance officer, or truant officer provided for by law, shall investigate and prosecute all violators of the provisions of this Article. The reports of unlawful absence required to be made by teachers and principals to the attendance officer shall, in his hands, in case of any prosecution, constitute prima facie evidence of the violation of this Article and the burden of proof shall be upon the defendant to show the lawful attendance of the child or children upon an authorized school.

Sec. 6. Investigation as to indigency of child. If affidavit shall be made by the parent of a child or by any other person that any child between the ages of seven and sixteen years is not able to attend school by reason of necessity to work or labor for the support of itself or the support of the family, then the attendance officer shall diligently inquire into the matter and bring it to the attention of some court allowed by law to act as a juvenile court, and said court shall proceed to find whether as a matter of fact such parents, or persons standing in loco parentis, are unable to send said child to school for the term of compulsory attendance for the reasons given. If the court shall find, after careful investigation, that the parents have made or are making bona fide effort to comply with the compulsory attendance law, and by reason of illness, lack of earning capacity, or any other cause which the court may deem valid and sufficient, are unable to send said child to school, then the court shall find and state what help is needed for the family to enable the attendance law to be complied with. The court shall transmit its findings to the superintendent of public welfare of the county or city in which the case may arise for such welfare officer's consideration and action.

Sec. 7. Deaf and blind children to attend school; age limits; minimum attendance. Every deaf and every blind child of sound mind in North Carolina who shall be qualified for admission into a State school for the deaf or the blind shall attend a school for the deaf or the blind for a term of nine months each year between the ages of six and eighteen years. Parents, guardians, or custodians of every such blind or deaf child between the ages of six and eighteen years shall send, or cause to be sent, such child to some school for the instruction of the blind or deaf as herein provided: Provided, that the board of directors of any school for the blind or deaf may exempt any such child from attendance at any session or during any year, and may discharge from their custody any such blind or deaf child whenever such discharge seems necessary or proper. Whenever a blind or deaf child shall reach the age of eighteen years and still unable to become self-supporting because of his defects, such child shall continue in said school until he reaches the age of twenty-one, unless he becomes self-supporting sooner.

Sec. 8. Parents, etc., failing to send deaf child to school guilty of misdemeanor; provisos. The parents, guardians, or custodians of any deaf children between the ages of six and eighteen years failing to send such deaf child or children to some school for instruction, as provided herein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, at the discretion of the court, for each year said deaf child is kept out of school, between the ages herein provided: Provided, that this Section shall not apply to or be enforced against the parent, guardian, or custodian of any deaf child until such time as the superintendent of any school for the instruction of the deaf, by and with the approval of the executive committee of such institution, shall in his and their discretion serve written notice on such parent, guardian, or custodian, directing that such child be sent to the institution whereof they have charge.

Sec. 9. Parents, etc., failing to send blind child to school guilty of misdemeanor; provisos. The parents, guardians, or custodians of any blind child or children between the ages of six and eighteen years failing to send such child or children to some school for the instruction of the blind shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, at the discretion of the court, for each year that such child or children shall be kept out of school between the ages specified: Provided, (1) that this Section not be enforced against the parents, guardians, or custodians of any blind child until such time as the authorities of some school for the instruction of the blind shall serve written notice on such parents, guardians, or custodians directing that such child be sent to the school whereof they have charge; and (2) that the authorities of the State School for the Blind and the Deaf shall not be compelled to retain in their custody or under their instruction any incorrigible person or persons of confirmed immoral habits.

Sec. 10. Superintendent to report defective children. It shall be the duty of the county and city superintendents to report through proper legal channels, the names and addresses of parents, guardians, or custodians of deaf, mute, blind and feebleminded children to the principal of the institution provided for each.

SUBCHAPTER IX. SCHOOL TRANSPORTATION

School Buses

Section 1. Authority of county and city boards of education. Each county board of education, and each city board of education is hereby authorized, but is not required, to acquire, own and operate school buses for the transportation of pupils enrolled in the public schools of such county or city administrative unit and of persons employed in the operation of such schools within the limitations set forth in this subchapter. Each such board may operate such buses to and from such of the schools within the county or city administrative unit, and in such number, as the board shall from time to time find practicable and appropriate for the safe, orderly and efficient transportation of such pupils and employees to such schools.

Sec. 2. Authority and duties of the State Board of Education. 1. The State Board of Education shall have no authority over or control of the transportation of pupils and employees upon any school bus owned and operated by any county or city board of education, except as provided in this subchapter.

2. The State Board of Education shall be under no duty to supply transportation to any pupil or employee enrolled or employed in any school. Neither the State nor the State Board of Education shall in any manner be liable for the failure or refusal of any county or city board of education to furnish transportation, by school bus or otherwise, to any pupil or employee of any school, or for any neglect or action of any county or city board of education, or any employee of any such board, in the operation or maintenance of any school bus.

3. The State Board of Education shall, as soon as may be practicable, allocate and assign all school buses and service vehicles now owned by the State to respective county and city boards of education in accordance with the present need of each such board for school bus transportation. Such need shall be determined by the State Board of Education from its records showing the number of State-owned buses and service vehicles presently being operated by such county or city administrative unit. Upon such assignment and allocation of such school buses and service vehicles the State Board of Education shall cause the title to each such bus or service vehicle to be transferred to the county board of education, or to the city board of education to which such bus or service vehicle has been so assigned and allocated.

4. The State Board of Education shall from time to time adopt such rules and regulations with reference to the construction, equipment, color, and maintenance of school buses, the number of pupils who may be permitted to ride at the same time upon any bus, and the age and qualifications of drivers of school buses as it shall deem to be desirable for the purpose of promoting safety in the operation of school buses. No school bus shall be operated for the transportation of pupils unless such bus is constructed and maintained as prescribed in such regulations and is equipped with adequate heating facilities, a standard signaling device for giving due notice that the bus is about to make a turn, an alternating flashing stop light on the front of the bus, an alternating flashing stop light on the rear of the bus, and such other warning devices, fire protective equipment and first aid supplies as may be prescribed for installation upon such buses by the regulation of the State Board of Education.

5. The State Board of Education shall, when requested so to do by any county or city board of education, but not otherwise, advise such county or city board with reference to the establishment and amendment of school bus routes, the acquisition and maintenance of school buses, or any other question which may arise in connection with the organization and operation of the school bus transportation system of such county or city board.

6. The State Board of Education shall allocate to the respective county and city boards of education all funds appropriated from time to time by the General Assembly for the purpose of providing transportation to the pupils enrolled in the public schools within this State. All such funds shall be allocated by the State Board of Education in accordance with the number of pupils to be transported, the length of bus routes, road conditions and all other circumstances affecting the cost of the transportation of pupils by school bus to the end that the funds so appropriated may be allocated on a fair and equitable basis, according to the needs of the respective county and city administrative units and so as to provide the most efficient use of such funds. Such allocation shall be made by the State Board of Education at the beginning of each fiscal year, except that the State board may reserve for future allocation from time to time within such fiscal year as the need therefor shall be found to exist, a reasonable amount not to exceed ten per cent (10%) of the total funds available for transportation in such fiscal year from such appropriation.

7. Upon such allocation by the State Board of Education, all funds so appropriated by the General Assembly shall be paid over to the respective county and city boards of education in accordance with such allocation in equal monthly installments throughout the regular school year: Provided, however, that upon the request of a county or city board of education, the State Board of Education may, in its discretion, pay over to the county or city board all or any part of any or all monthly installments prior to the time when the same would otherwise be payable. The respective county and city boards shall use such funds for the purposes of replacing, maintaining, insuring, and operating public school buses and service vehicles in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter, and for no other purpose, but in the making of expenditures for such purposes shall be subject to no control by the State Board of Education.

Sec. 3. Assignment of school buses to schools. The superintendent of the schools of each county or city administrative unit which shall elect to operate a school bus transportation system, shall, prior to the commencement of each regular school year and subject to the approval of the county or city board of education, allocate and assign to the respective public schools within the jurisdiction of such county or city administrative unit the school buses which the county or city board shall own and direct to be operated during such school year. From time to time during such school year, subject to the directions of the county or city board of education, the superintendent may revise such allocation and assignment of school buses in accordance with the changing transportation needs and conditions at the respective schools of such county or city administrative unit, and may, pursuant to such revision, assign an additional bus or buses to a school or withdraw a bus or buses from a school in such county or city administrative unit.

Sec. 4. The use and operation of school buses. Public school buses may be used for the following purposes only, and it shall be the duty of the superintendent of the school of each county and city administrative unit to supervise the use of all school buses operated by such county or city administrative unit so as to assure and require compliance with this Section:

1. A school bus may be used for the transportation of pupils enrolled in and employees employed in the operation of the school to which such bus is assigned by the superintendent of the schools of the county or city administrative unit. Except as otherwise herein provided, such transportation shall be limited to transportation to and from such school for the regularly organized school day, and from and to the points designated by the principal of the school to which such bus is assigned, for the receiving and discharging of passengers. No pupil or employee shall be so transported upon any bus other than the bus to which such pupil or employee has been assigned pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter.

2. In the case of illness or injury requiring immediate medical attention of any pupil or employee while such pupil or employee is present at the school in which such pupil is enrolled or such employee is employed, the principal of such school may, in his discretion, permit such pupil or employee to be transported by a school bus to a doctor or hospital for medical treatment, and may, in his discretion, permit such other person as he may select to accompany such pupil.

3. The board of education of any county or city administrative unit may operate the school buses of such unit one day prior to the opening of the regular school term for the transportation of pupils and employees to and from the school to which such pupils are assigned or in which they are enrolled and such employees are employed, for the purposes of the registration of students, the organization of classes, the distribution of textbooks, and such other purposes as will, in the opinion of the superintendent of the schools of such unit, promote the efficient organization and operation of such public schools.

4. A county school board or the school board of a city administrative unit, which elects to operate a school bus transportation system, shall not be required to provide transportation for any employee other than the driver of the bus, nor shall such board be required to provide transportation for any pupil living within one and one-half miles of the school in which such pupil is enrolled.

5. The county or city board of education, under rules and regulations to be adopted by such board, may permit the use and operation of school buses for the transportation of pupils and teachers on necessary field trips to and from demonstration projects carried on in connection with courses in agricultural, home economics and other vocational subjects; provided that under no circumstance shall the round-trip mileage for any one trip exceed 25 miles nor on any such trip shall a county or city owned bus be taken out of the State of North Carolina. School buses will not be used in lieu of activity buses already owned by an administrative unit.

Sec. 5. Assignment of pupils to school buses. 1. The principal of a school, to which any school bus has been assigned by the superintendent of the schools of the county or city administrative unit embracing such school, shall assign to such bus or buses the pupils and employees who may be transported to and from such school upon such bus or buses. No pupil or employee shall be permitted to ride upon any school bus to which such pupil or employee has not been so assigned by the principal, except by the express direction of the principal.

2. In the event that the superintendent of the schools of any county or city administrative unit shall assign a school bus to be used in the transportation of pupils to two or more schools, the superintendent shall designate the number of pupils to be transported to and from each such school by such bus, and the principals of the respective schools shall assign pupils to such buses in accordance with such designation.

3. Any pupil enrolled in any school, or the parent or guardian of any such pupil, or the person standing in loco parentis to such pupil, may apply to the principal of such school for transportation to and from such school by school bus for the regularly organized school day. The principal thereupon shall assign such pupil to a school bus serving the bus route upon which such pupil lives, if any, and if such pupil is entitled to ride upon such bus in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter and the regulations of the State Board of Education herein provided for. Such assignment shall be made by the principal so as to provide for the orderly, safe and efficient transportation of pupils to such school and so as to promote the orderly and efficient administration of the school and the health, safety and general welfare of the pupils to be so transported. Assignments of pupils and employees to school buses may be changed by the principal of the school as he may from time to time find proper for the safe and efficient transportation of such pupils and employees.

4. The parent or guardian of any pupil enrolled in any school, or the person standing in loco parentis to any such pupil, who shall apply to the principal of such school for the transportation of such pupil to and from such school by school bus, may, if such application is denied, or if such pupil is assigned to a school bus not satisfactory to such parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis to such pupil, pursuant to rules and regulations established by the county or city board of education, apply to such board for such transportation upon a school bus designated in such application, and shall be entitled to a prompt and fair hearing by such board in accordance with the rules and regulations established by it. The majority of such board shall be a quorum for the purpose of holding such hearing and passing upon such application, and the decision of the majority of the members present at such hearing shall be the decision of the board. If, at such hearing, the board shall find that such pupil is entitled to be transported to and from such school upon the school bus designated in such application, or if the board shall find that the transportation of such pupil upon such bus to and from such school will be for the best interests of such pupil, will not interfere with the proper administration of such school, or with the safe and efficient transportation by school bus of other pupils enrolled in such school and will not endanger the health or safety of the children there enrolled, the board shall direct that such child be assigned to and transported to such school upon such bus.

5. Any person aggrieved by the final order of the county or city board of education may at any time within ten (10) days from the date of such order appeal therefrom to the Superior Court of the county in which such administrative school unit or some part thereof is located. Upon such appeal, the matter shall be heard de novo in the Superior Court before a jury in the same manner as civil actions are tried and disposed of therein. The record on appeal to the Superior Court shall consist of a true copy of the application and decision of the board, duly certified by the secretary of such board. If the decision of the court be that the order of the county or city board of education shall be set aside, then the court shall enter its order so providing and adjudging that such child is entitled to be transported to and from such school upon the school bus designated in such application, and in such case such child shall be assigned to such school bus by the county or city board of education concerned. From the judgment of the Superior Court an appeal may be taken by any interested party or by the board to the Supreme Court in the same manner as other appeals are taken from judgments of such court in civil actions.

6. No employee shall be assigned to or permitted to ride upon a school bus when to do so will result in the overcrowding of such bus or will prevent the assignment to such bus of a pupil entitled to ride thereon, or will otherwise, in the opinion of the principal, be detrimental to the comfort or safety of the pupils assigned to such bus, or to the safe, efficient and proper operation of such bus.

Sec. 6. School bus drivers: Monitors. 1. Each county or city school board, which elects to operate a school bus transportation system, shall employ the necessary drivers for such school buses. Such drivers shall possess all qualifications prescribed by the regulations of the State Board of Education herein provided for, but the selection and employment of each driver shall be made by the county or city board of education, and the driver shall be the employee of such county or city administrative unit. Each county or city board of education shall assign the bus drivers employed by it to the respective schools within the jurisdiction of such board, and the principal of each such school shall assign the drivers to the school buses to be driven by them. No school bus shall at any time be driven or operated by any person other than the bus driver assigned by such principal to such bus except by the express direction of such principal or in accordance with rules and regulations of the appropriate local board of education.

2. The driver of a school bus subject to the direction of the principal shall have complete authority over and responsibility for the operation of the bus and the maintaining of good order and conduct upon such bus, and shall report promptly to the principal any misconduct upon such bus or disregard or violation of the driver's instructions by any person riding upon such bus. The principal may take such action with reference to any such misconduct upon a school bus, or any violation of the instructions of the driver, as he might take if such misconduct or violation had occurred upon the grounds of the school.

3. The driver of any school bus shall permit no person to ride upon such bus except pupils or school employees assigned thereto or persons permitted by the express direction of the principal to ride thereon.

4. The principal of a school, to which a school bus has been assigned, may, in his discretion, appoint a monitor for any bus so assigned to such school. It shall be the duty of such monitor, subject to the direction of the driver of the bus, to preserve order upon the bus and do such other things as may be appropriate for the safety of the pupils and employees assigned to such bus while boarding such bus, alighting therefrom or being transported thereon, and to require such pupils and employees to conform to the rules and regulations established by the county or city board of education for the safety of pupils and employees upon school buses.

Sec. 7. School bus routes. 1. The principal of the school to which a school bus has been assigned shall, prior to the commencement of each regular school year, prepare and submit to the superintendent of the schools of the county or city administrative unit a plan for a definite route for each school bus assigned to such school so as to assure the most efficient use of such bus and the safety and convenience of the pupils assigned thereto. The superintendent shall examine such plan and may, in his discretion, obtain the advice of the State Board of Education with reference thereto. The superintendent shall make such changes in the proposed bus routes as he shall deem proper for the said purposes and, thereupon, shall approve the route. When so approved the buses shall be operated upon the route so established and not otherwise, except as provided in this subchapter. From time to time the principal may suggest changes in any such bus route as he shall deem proper for the said purposes, and the same shall be effective when approved by the superintendent of the county or city administrative unit.

2. Unless road or other conditions shall make it inadvisable to do so, public school buses shall be so routed on State-maintained highways that the school bus, to which such pupil is assigned, shall pass within one mile of the residence of each pupil, who lives one and one-half miles or more from the school to which such pupil is assigned.

3. All bus routes when established pursuant to this Section shall be filed in the office of the board of education of the county or city administrative unit, and all changes made therein shall be filed in the office of such board within ten days after such change shall become effective.

4. If any school bus route established or changed as hereinabove provided is unsatisfactory to the district school committee, the committee may request the board of education of the county or city administrative unit to make such change in such route as the committee desires. In that event, the board of education shall hear the request of the district school committee and shall make such change, if any, in such route as to the board shall seem advisable so as to assure the most efficient use of such bus and the safety and convenience of the pupils assigned thereto.

5. No provision of this subchapter shall be construed to place upon the State, or upon any county or city, any duty to supply any funds for the transportation of pupils, or any duty to supply funds for the transportation of pupils who live within the corporate limits of the city or town in which is located the public school in which such pupil is enrolled or to which such pupil is assigned, even though transportation to or from such school is furnished to pupils who live outside the limits of such city or town.

Sec. 8. Inspection of school buses. 1. The superintendent of schools in each county, and in each city administrative unit, shall cause each school bus owned or operated by such county or city administrative unit to be inspected at least once each 30 days during the school year for mechanical defects, or other defects which may affect the safe operation of such bus. A report of such inspection, together with the recommendations of the person making the inspection, shall be filed promptly in the office of the superintendent of the schools of such county or city administrative unit, and a copy thereof shall be forwarded to the principal of the school to which such bus is assigned.

2. It shall be the duty of the driver of each school bus to report promptly to the principal of the school, to which such bus is assigned, any mechanical defect or other defect which may affect the safe operation of the bus when such defect comes to the attention of the driver, and the principal shall thereupon report such defect to the superintendent of the schools of the county or city administrative unit. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of the schools of the county or city administrative unit to cause any and all such defects to be corrected promptly.

3. If any school bus is found by the principal of the school, to which it is assigned, or by the superintendent of the schools of the county or city administrative unit, to be so defective, that the bus may not be operated with reasonable safety, it shall be the duty of such principal or superintendent to cause the use of such bus to be discontinued until such defect is remedied, in which event the principal of the school, to which such bus is assigned, may permit the use of a different bus assigned to such school in the transportation of the pupils and employees assigned to the bus found to be defective.

Sec. 9. Purchase and maintenance of school buses, materials and supplies. 1. To the extent that the funds shall be made available to it for such purpose, a county board of education or a city board of education is authorized to purchase from time to time such additional school buses and service vehicles or replacements for school buses and service vehicles, as may be deemed by such board to be necessary for the safe and efficient transportation of pupils enrolled in the schools within such county or city administrative unit. Any school bus so purchased shall be constructed and equipped as prescribed by the provisions of this subchapter and by the regulations of the State Board of Education issued pursuant thereto.

2. The tax levying authorities of any county are hereby authorized to make provision from time to time in the capital outlay budget of the county for the purchase of such school buses or service vehicles.

3. Any funds appropriated from time to time by the General Assembly for the purchase of school buses or service vehicles shall be allocated by the State Board of Education to the respective county and city boards of education in accordance with the requirements of such boards as determined by the State Board of Education, and thereupon shall be paid over to the respective county and city boards of education in accordance with such allocation.

4. The title to any additional or replacement school bus or service vehicle purchased pursuant to the provisions of this Section, shall be taken in the name of the board of education of such county or city administrative unit, and such bus shall in all respects be maintained and operated pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter in the same manner as any other public school bus.

5. It shall be the duty of the county board of education to provide adequate buildings and equipment for the storage and maintenance of all school buses and service vehicles owned or operated by the county board of education or by the board of education of any city administrative unit in such county. It shall be the duty of the tax levying authorities of such county to provide in its capital outlay budget for the construction or acquisition of such buildings and equipment as may be required for this purpose.

6. In the event of the damage or destruction of any school bus or service vehicle by fire, collision, or otherwise, the board of education of the county or city administrative unit which shall own or operate such bus or service vehicle may apply to the State Board of Education for funds with which to replace it. If the State Board of Education finds that such bus or service vehicle has been destroyed or damaged to the extent that it cannot be made suitable for further use, and if the State Board of Education finds that the replacement of such bus or service vehicle is necessary in order to enable such county or city administrative unit to operate properly its school bus transportation system, the State Board of Education shall allot to the board of education of such county or city administrative unit from the funds now held by the State Board of Education for the replacement of school buses or service vehicles, or from funds hereafter appropriated by the General Assembly for that purpose, a sum sufficient to purchase a new school bus or service vehicle to be used as a replacement for such damaged or destroyed bus or service vehicle and upon such allocation such sum shall be paid over to or for the account of the board of education of such county or city administrative unit for such purpose.

7. All school buses or service vehicles purchased by or for the account of any county or city board of education, except school buses or service vehicles purchased by such board from another county or city board of education of this State, shall be purchased through the Division of Purchase and Contract.

Sec. 10. Aid in lieu of transportation. 1. When, by reason of road conditions or otherwise, any county or city board of education, which shall elect to operate a school bus transportation system, shall find it impracticable to furnish to a pupil transportation by school bus to the school in which such pupil is enrolled, or to which such pupil is assigned, the board may assign such pupil to such other school within such county or city administrative unit as the board shall deem advisable, unless the parent or guardian of such pupil or the person standing in loco parentis to such pupil, shall notify the principal of the school, in which such pupil is enrolled or to which such pupil is assigned, of the desire of such pupil to continue to attend such school without the benefit of transportation by school bus.

2. In the event that any county or city board of education, which shall operate a system of school bus transportation, shall find it impracticable to furnish to a pupil such transportation to the school in which such pupil is enrolled or to which such pupil is assigned, and if, as a result thereof, such pupil shall be required to obtain board and lodging at a place other than the residence of such pupil in order to attend a school, such board may, in its discretion, provide for the payment to the parent or guardian of such pupil of a sum not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per month for each school month that such pupil shall so obtain board and lodging at a place other than the residence of the pupil for the purpose of attending a school.

Sec. 11. Contracts for transportation. Any county or city board of education may, in lieu of the operation by it of public school buses, enter into a contract with any person, firm or corporation for the transportation by such person, firm or corporation of pupils enrolled in the public schools of such county or city administrative unit for the same purposes for which such county or city administrative unit is authorized by this subchapter to operate public school buses. Any vehicle used by such person, firm or corporation for the transportation of such pupils shall be constructed and equipped as provided in this subchapter and in the regulations promulgated pursuant to this subchapter by the State Board of Education, and the driver of such vehicle shall possess all of the qualifications prescribed by such rules and regulations of the State Board of Education. In the event that any county or city board of education shall enter into such a contract, the board may use for such purposes any funds which it might use for the operation of school buses owned by the board, and the tax levying authorities of the county or of the city may provide in the county or city budget such additional funds as may be necessary to carry out such contracts.

Sec. 12. Use of school buses by State Guard or National Guard. When requested to do so by the Governor, the board of education of any county or city administrative unit is authorized and directed to furnish a sufficient number of school buses to the North Carolina State Guard or the National Guard for the purpose of transporting members of the State Guard or members of the National Guard to and from authorized places of encampment, or to and from places to which members of the State Guard or members of the National Guard are ordered to proceed for the purpose of suppressing riots or insurrections, repelling invasions or dealing with any other emergency. Public school buses so furnished by any county or city administrative unit to the North Carolina State Guard or the National Guard shall be operated by members or employees of the State or National Guard, and all expense of such operation, including any repair or replacement of any bus occasioned by such operation, shall be paid by the State from the appropriations available for the use of the State Guard or the National Guard.

Sec. 13. Effective date of this subchapter. The provisions of this subchapter shall be in full force and effect from and after July 1, 1955.

Certain Injuries to School Children Compensable

Section 1. State Board of Education authorized to pay claims. The State Board of Education is hereby authorized and directed to set up in its budget for the operation of the public schools of the State a sum of money which it deems sufficient to pay the claims hereinafter authorized and provided for. The board is hereby authorized and directed to pay out of said sum provided for this purpose to the parent, guardian, executor or administrator of any pupil who may be injured or whose death results from injuries received while such pupil is boarding, riding on, or alighting from a school bus owned and operated by any county or city administrative unit, and transporting pupils to or from the public schools of the State, or sustained as a result of the operation of a school bus on the grounds of the school in which such pupil is enrolled, medical, hospital, surgical, and funeral expenses incurred on account of such injuries or death of such pupil in an amount not to exceed six hundred dollars ($600.00). This Section shall not apply to injuries sustained as a result of the operation of any activity bus as distinguished from a regular school bus.

Sec. 2. Approval of claims by State Board of Education final. The State Board of Education is hereby authorized and empowered, under such rules and regulations as it may promulgate, to approve any claim authorized herein, and when such claim is so approved, such action shall be final: Provided, that the total benefits for hospitalization, medical treatment, and funeral expenses shall in no case exceed six hundred dollars ($600.00) for any pupil so injured.

Sec. 3. Claims paid without regard to negligence of driver; amounts paid out declared lien upon civil recoveries for child. The claims authorized herein shall be paid by the said State Board of Education, regardless of whether the injury received by said pupil shall have been due to the negligence of the driver of the said school bus: Provided, that whenever there is recovery on account of said accident by the father, mother, guardian, or administrator of such pupil against any person, firm or corporation, the amount expended by the State Board of Education hereunder shall constitute a paramount lien on any judgment recovered by said parent, guardian, or administrator, and shall be discharged before any money is paid to said parent, guardian, or administrator, on account of said judgment.

Sec. 4. Disease and injuries incurred while not riding on bus not compensable. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to mean that the State shall be liable for sickness, or disease, or for personal injuries sustained otherwise than by reason of the operation of such bus.

Sec. 5. Claims must be filed within one year. The right to compensation as authorized herein shall be forever barred unless a claim filed with the State Board of Education within one year after the accident, and if death results from the accident, unless a claim be filed with the said board within one year thereafter.

Section 1. Standard course of study for each grade. Upon the recommendation of the State Superintendent, the State Board of Education shall adopt a standard course of study for each grade in the elementary school and in the high school. These courses of study shall set forth what subjects shall be taught in each grade, and outline the basal and supplementary books on each subject to be used in each grade.

The State Superintendent shall prepare a course of study for each grade of the school system which shall outline the appropriate subjects to be taught, together with directions as to the best methods of teaching them as guidance for the teachers. There shall be included in the course of study for each grade outlines and suggestions for teaching the subject of Americanism; and in one or more grades, as directed by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, outlines for the teaching of alcoholism and narcotism.

County and city boards of education shall require that all subjects in the course of study, except foreign languages, be taught in the English language, and any teacher or principal who shall refuse to conduct his recitations in the English language may be dismissed.

Sec. 2. Adult education. When in the judgment of the State Board of Education a program of adult education should be established as a part of the public school system and when appropriations have been made therefor, there shall be organized and administered under the general supervision of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, course in adult education: Provided, that county and city boards of education, in their discretion, may institute and support such programs from local funds.

Sec. 3. Instruction for handicapped persons. There shall be organized and administered under the general supervision of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction a program of special courses of instruction for handicapped, crippled, and other classes of individuals requiring special types of instruction. In carrying out the provisions of this Section, the State Superintendent may appoint such personnel as may be needed:

1. To aid county and city boards of education in the organization of classes for the handicapped.

Section 1. Textbook needs are determined by course of study. When the State Board of Education shall have adopted, upon the recommendation of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, a standard course of study for each grade in the elementary school and in the high school setting forth what subjects shall be taught in each grade and outlining the basal and supplementary books on each subject to be used in each grade, the board shall proceed to select and adopt such textbooks. Textbooks adopted in accordance with the provisions of this Article shall be used by all the public schools of the State. Such supplementary books as may be adopted shall neither displace nor be used to the exclusion of basal books.

Sec. 2. The State Board of Education to select and adopt textbooks. The board is hereby authorized to select and adopt for the exclusive use in the public schools of North Carolina, textbooks, publications, and instructional materials needed for instructional purposes, in each grade and on each subject matter in which instruction is required by law. It shall adopt for a period of not less than five years, two basal primers for the first grade, two basal readers for each of the first three grades, one basal reader for grades four to eight inclusive, and one basal book or series of books on all other subjects required to be taught in the first eight grades, and one basal book for all subjects taught in the high school: Provided, that not more than three basal books may be adopted on the subject of North Carolina history: Provided, further, the State Board of Education may enter into contract with a publisher for a period less than five years, if any advan-

Sec. 3. Appointment of Textbook Commission; members and chairman; compensation. The Governor, upon the recommendation of the State Superintendent, shall appoint a Textbook Commission of twelve members who shall hold office for four years, or until their successors are elected and qualified. The Governor shall fill all vacancies by appointment for the unexpired term. The commission shall elect a chairman, subject to the approval of the State Superintendent. The members shall be paid a per diem and expenses as approved by the board. The reenactment of this Section shall not have the effect of vacating the appointment or changing the terms of any of the commissioners heretofore appointed.

Sec. 4. Commission to evaluate books offered for adoption. The members of the commission who are teachers or principals in the elementary grades shall evaluate all textbooks offered for adoption in the elementary grades. The members who are teachers or principals in the high schools shall evaluate all books offered for adoption in the high school grades.

Each member shall examine carefully and file a written evaluation of each book offered for adoption.

Special consideration shall be given in the evaluation report as to the suitability of the book to the grade for which it is offered, the content or subject matter, and other criteria prescribed by the board.

All evaluation reports shall be signed by the member making the report and filed alphabetically with the board not later than a day certain as fixed by the board when the call for adoption is made.

Sec. 5. Selection of textbooks by board. At the next meeting of the board following the filing of the reports, the Textbook Commission shall meet with the board and jointly examine the reports. The board shall then select from the books evaluated such books which the board believes will meet the teaching requirements of the North Carolina public schools in the grade or grades for which they are offered. The board shall then request sealed bids from the publishers of all books so selected.

The board shall make all needful rules and regulations with reference to asking for bids, notifying publishers as to calls for adoption, execution and delivery of contracts, requirement of performance bonds, cancellation clauses, and such other material matters as may affect the validity of the contracts.

Sec. 6. Adoption of textbooks and contracts with publishers. The sealed bids of the publishers shall be opened at the next regular meeting of the board in the presence of the board. The board may then adopt the books required by the course of study and enter into a contract with the publisher for such adopted books. The board may refuse to adopt any of the books offered at the prices bid and call for new bids: Provided, that when bids are accepted by the board and a contract entered into, the contract may require, in the discretion of the board, that the total sales of each book in the State of North Carolina be reported annually to the board.

Sec. 7. Continuance and discontinuance of contracts with publishers; procedure for change of textbooks. At the expiration of existing or future contracts, the board may, upon approval of the publisher, continue the contract for any particular book or books indefinitely, that is, for a period not less than one nor more than five years. The superintendent may at any time recommend to the board that a given book is unsatisfactory for the schools, whereupon the board may call for a new selection and adoption.

In the event a change of any textbook is required by vote of the board, the publisher shall be given ninety (90) days' notice prior to the first day of May, at the expiration of which time the board is authorized to adopt a new book or books on said subject. The publisher desiring to terminate his contract which has been extended beyond the original contract period shall give notice to the board ninety (90) days prior to the first day of May. The board may then proceed to a new adoption.

Sec. 8. Advice of Attorney General as to form and legality of contracts. All contracts between the board and publishers of textbooks shall be subject to the approval of the Attorney General as to form and legality.

In the event that any publisher shall fail to keep his contract as to prices, distribution, adequate supply of books in the edition adopted, or in any other way violates the terms of his contract, the Attorney General shall bring suit against such publisher when requested by the board for such an amount as may be sufficient to enforce the contract or to compensate the State because of the loss sustained by failure to keep said contract.

Sec. 9. Publishers to register all agents or employees. Publishers submitting books for adoption shall register in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction all agents or other employees of any kind authorized to represent said company in the State, and this registration list shall be open to the public for inspection.

Sec. 10. Sale of books at lower price elsewhere reduces price to State. Every contract made by the board with the publisher of any school textbook on the adopted list in this State shall be deemed to have written therein a condition providing that in the event said publisher during the life of his contract with this State shall contract with another state, or with any county, city, town, or other municipality, or shall place said textbook on sale anywhere in the United States for a less price than that in his contract with the State of North Carolina, said publishers shall immediately furnish said textbooks to this State at a price not to exceed that for which the book is furnished, sold, or placed on sale in any other state, or in any other county, city, town, or municipality.

Providing Basal and Supplemental Textbooks and Instructional Materials

Section 1. Powers and duties of State Board of Education. That the children in the public schools of the State may be provided uniformly with free basal textbooks within the appropriation of the General Assembly for that purpose, and with supplementary textbooks and instructional materials at a minimum annual rental, the State Board of Education is hereby authorized and directed to administer a fund and to establish rules and regulations necessary to:

1. Acquire by contract or purchase such textbooks and instructional supplies which are or may be on the adopted list of the State of North Carolina, and to purchase materials, supplies, and equipment which the board may find necessary to meet the needs of the public school system of the State and to carry out the provisions of this Article.

2. Provide a system of distribution of said textbooks and supplies to the children in the public schools of the State, and distribute such books as are provided under the rental system without the use of any depository other than some agency of the State; to use warehouse facilities for the distribution of all the supplies, materials, and equipment authorized to be purchased in subsection one hereof.

3. Provide for the free use, including the proper care and return thereof, of elementary basal textbooks to such grades, including the eighth grade of the elementary public schools of North Carolina as may be determined by the board. The title to said books shall be vested in the State: Provided, that the board may furnish basal elementary textbooks on a rental basis in any or all elementary grades when it is deemed necessary.

4. Provide books for high school children in the public high schools of North Carolina on a rental basis. Said annual rental charge shall be collected in an amount not to exceed one-third of the cost of said textbooks: Provided, that free basal books may be furnished to high school children if sufficient funds are available and if the board finds it advisable to take such action.

5. Provide supplementary readers and other supplementary books for the elementary children in the public elementary schools of North Carolina on a rental basis. Said annual rental charge shall be collected in an amount not to exceed one-third of the cost of said textbooks: Provided, that the board shall not charge a rental fee for books, supplies, and materials used in the public schools in excess of the actual cost to the State, including the handling and administration of such rentals.

6. Provide and distribute all blanks, forms, and reports necessary to keep a careful record of all the books, including their use, state of repair and such other information as the board may require.

7. Buy and sell library books to be placed in the public schools of this State from a list to be selected by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction with the approval of the board and to be placed in such schools as may be designated by the board: Provided, that such library books shall be purchased in accordance with rules and regulations duly promulgated by the board.

8. Provide for the use of said textbooks without charge to the indigent children of the State.

9. Cause an annual audit to be made of all transactions of the board in administering said book funds, which audit shall show separately all items of cost for furnishing free basal textbooks and all other items of cost and all rentals collected on rental books.

Sec. 2. Proper care of books; right to purchase. In the operation and management of both the free basal textbook system and the rental supplementary textbook system, plans shall be carried out whereby the same books, as far as possible, are assigned to the same school from year to year to the end that all children may be taught the proper care of books and that the cost of books for every school may be the more accurately determined. Those schools which reduce the cost of books by proper care may be given the advantage in additional new books to the amount of the saving: Provided, that nothing in this Article shall be construed to prevent the purchase of textbooks needed for any child in the public schools of the State from said board by any parent, guardian, or person in loco parentis.

Sec. 3. Legal custodians of books furnished by the State. County boards of education of county administrative unit and city boards of education of city administrative unit are hereby designated the legal custodians of all books furnished by the State, either for free use or on a rental basis. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in conjunction with the State Board of Health, shall adopt rules and regulations governing the use of fumigation and disposal of textbooks from quarantined homes and for the regular disinfection of all textbooks used in the public schools of the State: Provided, that said rules shall be attached to any rules and regulations that the State Board of Education may promulgate.

Sec. 5. County and city units may withdraw from State system. Whenever any county or city administrative unit has paid over to the State Board of Education, in rentals, a sum equal to the price fixed by said board for the sale of rental textbooks, said county or city administrative unit may, at its option, with the approval of the board, withdraw from the textbook rental system set up under rules and regulations adopted by the board, and upon such withdrawal shall become the absolute owner of all such textbooks for which the purchase price has been paid in full to the said board.

Sec. 6. Rentals paid to State treasury; for use of only those paying rentals. All sums of money collected as rentals under the provisions of this Article on State owned books shall be paid monthly as collected into the State treasury, to be entered as a separate item known as the "State Textbook Rental Fund", and shall be disbursed only by order of the State Board of Education. When all advances made from the general fund of the State for setting up said textbook rental system have been paid from rentals collected, any surplus funds shall be used only to reduce the annual rentals charged and to bear the expense of operating the State textbook rental system: Provided, that, in the discretion of the board, such surplus funds and other revenues of the textbook rental system may be used only for providing additional textbooks, library books, and other instructional materials for the use of the pupils who pay the rental fees.

Sec. 7. Free book system separate from the rental system. The system of providing free basal textbooks for both elementary and high schools, when provided, shall be separate from the rental textbooks and supplementary book system, and shall depend upon appropriations from the general fund of the State for both the cost of the books and for operating and administering the system.

Sec. 8. Duties and authority of superintendents of local administrative units; withholding salary for failure to comply with Section. Sec. 9. County and city boards authorized to operate local systems. Any county or city board of education now operating a textbook rental system, or any such board that may hereafter withdraw from the State system under the provisions of Section 5 of this Article to operate its own system, shall be permitted to continue, or to operate, such local rental system without regulation from the State Board of Education except as provided in Section 10 of this Article.

County and city boards of education are hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary rules and regulations concerning the operation of local rental systems to provide the children of their administrative units with the advantages of an adequate supply of basal and supplementary textbook, library books, and appropriate instructional materials. A trade school shall be defined as follows: Any person, partnership, association of persons, or any corporation within the State of North Carolina which teaches publicly, for compensation, any or several of the subjects needed to train youth or adults in the skills, technical knowledge, related industrial information, and job judgment, necessary for success in one or more skilled trades or industrial occupations: Provided, that any person or individual who undertakes to give instruction in the above subjects to five (5) or fewer students shall not be construed as the operator of a trade school; provided further, that any school for which there is a legally existing licensing board, is exempt from the provisions of this Article.

Sec. 3. Must secure license before operating. Any party or parties mentioned in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article, residing within the State of North Carolina, desiring to establish and operate a commercial college, business school, trade school, or a branch of either such college or school for the purpose of teaching such courses as are usually taught in such colleges, business schools and trade schools, before commencing business, must secure a license from the State Board of Education of the State of North Carolina authorizing said party or parties to open and conduct such college, or school, or branches thereof.

Sec. 4. Application for license; investigation; fees. Application for a license to open and conduct such a college, or school, shall be made to the State Board of Education on blanks furnished by said board, and such application shall be properly verified and shall contain such of the following information as may apply to the particular college, or school, for which license is sought: (1) The title or name of the school or classes, together with the name and address of the ownership and of the controlling officers thereof; (2) the general field of instruction which will be offered and the purpose of such instruction; (3) the place or places where such instruction will be given; (4) a specific listing of the equipment available for instruction in each field; (5) the qualification of instructors and supervisors; (6) financial resources available to equip and to maintain the school or classes; (7) and such additional information as the board may deem necessary to enable it to determine the adequacy of the program of instruction and matters pertaining thereto.

If, after due investigation and consideration on the part of said board, it is shown to the satisfaction of said board that said applicant is both professionally and finanically qualified to conduct said college or school and that the operators thereof posses good moral character, then said board shall approve said application and issue a license to said applicant. Before such license is issued, the applicant shall pay to the State Board of Education a fee of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00); the amount of said fee shall be in the discretion of said board and the fee shall be fixed by said board to cover travel and other expense of its representatives in investigating the application and any complaint against such college or school. All such fees shall be paid when the license is issued and annually thereafter on the first day of July so long as said school shall continue to operate.

Sec. 5. Execution of bond required; filing and recording. Before the State Board of Education shall issue such permit, the person, partnership, association of persons, or corporation shall execute a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), signed by a solvent guaranty company authorized to do business in the State of North Carolina, or by two solvent sureties, payable to the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county in which such college, branch college, or school will be located and conduct its business, conditioned that the principal in said bond will carry out and comply with each and all contracts, made and entered into by said college, or branch college, or school, acting by and through its officers and agents, with any student who desires to enter such college or school and to take any courses offered therein and will pay back to such student all amounts collected for tuition and fees in case of failure on the part of the parties obtaining a license from the State Board of Education to open and conduct a commercial college, or branch college or trade school, to comply with its contracts to give the instructions contracted for, and for the full period evidenced by such contract. Such bond shall be filed with the Clerk of Superior Court of the county in which the college, or branch, or school, executing the bond is located, and recorded by such Clerk in a book provided for that purpose.

The requirement herein specified for giving the aforesaid bond of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) shall apply to all commercial colleges, business schools and correspondence schools, trade schools, and branches thereof operating in North Carolina, and the said State Board of Education shall not issue any license to any person, firm, or corporation to operate any of the aforesaid schools until said bond has been given and notice of the approval of same by the Clerk of Superior Court has been filed with said Board of Education. Operators' bonds of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) each shall be required for each branch of such commercial colleges, business schools, correspondence schools, or trade schools operated within the State by any person, partnership, or corporation.

Sec. 6. Right of action upon bond in event of breach; revocation of permit; board generally to supervise schools. In any and all cases where the party receiving the license from the State Board of Education fails to comply with any contract made and entered into with any student, or with the parents or guardian of said student, then said student, parent, or guardian entering into the contract shall have a cause of action against the sureties on the bond as herein provided for the full amount of the payments made to such person, with six per cent (6%) interest from the date of payment of said amount. For a proven violation of its contract with its students, the State Board of Education is authorized to revoke the license issued to the offending school. Through periodic reports required of licensed colleges and schools and by inspections made by members of the State Board of Education or its authorized representatives, the State Board of Education shall have general supervision over commercial and trade schools of the State, the object of said supervision being to protect the public welfare by having the licensed commercial and trade schools maintain proper school quarters, equipment, and teaching forces and to have the school carry out its advertised promises and contracts made with its students and patrons.

Sec. 7. Operating a school without license made misdemeanor. Any person, or each member of any partnership, or each member of any association of persons, or each officer of any corporation who opens and conducts a commercial college, or branch college, or business school, or trade school, as defined in this Article without first having obtained the license herein required, and without first having executed the bond required, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), and each day said college or school continues to be open and operated shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 8. Institutions exempted. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to any established university, professional, or liberal arts college, regular high school or any State institution which has heretofore adopted, or which may hereinafter adopt, one or more commercial courses, provided the tuition fees and charges, if any, made by such university, college, high school, or State institution shall be collected by their regular officers in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the board of trustees or governing body of such university, college, or high school; but the provisions of this Article shall apply to all commercial colleges, business schools, trade schools, and correspondence schools, as defined in this Article and operated within the State of North Carolina as such institutions, except schools for which there are legally existing licensing boards.

Sec. 9. Application of this Article to nonresidents, etc. All persons, partnerships, associations of persons, which are nonresidents of North Carolina or corporations organized and chartered under the laws of any other state, must comply with the provisions of this Article before such can open and conduct a commercial college, or branch college, business school, or trade school, in the State of North Carolina.

Sec. 10. Solicitors. All persons soliciting students within the State of North Carolina for any commercial, correspondence or trade schools as defined in this Article and located within or without the State of North Carolina, shall be required to secure on July first of each year an annual license from the State Board of Education, such license to cost two dollars ($2.00). When application is made for such license by a solicitor, he shall submit to said board for its approval a copy of the contract offered prospective students and used by his said school, together with advertising material and other representations made by said school to its students or prospective students. When license is issued to such a solicitor, he shall receive a license card permitting him to solicit students for his school, but such license shall be issued only on an annual basis expiring June thirtieth of each year and must be renewed to entitle such solicitor to solicit students thereafter. Every college or school employing such solicitors shall be responsible for the acts, representations and contracts made by its solicitors. Any person soliciting students for any such schools without first having secured a license from the State Board of Education shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punishable by a fine of fifty dollars ($50.00), or thirty days' imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the court.

The board shall not, in its regulation of such non-public schools, interfere with any religious instruction which may be given in any private, denominational, or parochial school, but such non-public school shall meet the State minimum standards as prescribed in the course of study, and the children therein shall be taught the branches of education which are taught to the children of corresponding age and grade in the public schools and such instruction, except courses in foreign languages, shall be given in the English language.

No person shall be employed to teach in a non-public school who has not obtained a teacher's certificate entitling such teacher to teach corresponding courses or classes in public schools.

Sec. 3. Operators of non-public schools must report certain information. The supervisory officer or teacher of all non-public schools shall report to

Likewise, such officer or teacher shall report to such superintendent the withdrawal of any pupil within two weeks of such withdrawal. The supervisory officer or teacher of non-public schools shall make such reports as may be required of him by the State Board of Education, or such additional reports as are requested by the superintendent of the administrative unit in which such school is located; and he shall furnish to any court from time to time any information and reports requested by any judge thereof relating to the attendance, conduct and standing of any pupil enrolled in such school if said pupil is at the time awaiting examination or trial by the court or is under the supervision of the court.

H. B. 1320 CHAPTER 1375

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE LICENSING OF DISTRESS SALES TO PREVENT FRAUDULENT AND SHAM SALES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. This Act shall hereafter be known as the "Distress Merchandise Sales Act."

Sec. 2. The following terms shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Distress Merchandise Sale" shall mean any offer to sell to the public, or sale to the public, of goods, wares or merchandise on the implied or direct representation that such sale is in anticipation of the termination of a business at its present location or that the sale is being held as a business emergency other than in the ordinary course of business. Without limiting the generality of the above, distress merchandise sales shall include any sale represented specifically or impliedly as a "going out of business", "creditor's", "trustee's", "liquidating", "closing out", "bankrupt", "insolvent", "mortgage", "fire", "smoke or water damage", "adjuster's", "insurance salvage", "salvage", "lost lease", "removal", "vacating", "forced", or "save us from bankruptcy" sale. However, "distress merchandise sale" shall not include any offer to sell or sale of goods, wares, and merchandise at a price reduction or concession when made in the ordinary course of business operations.

(2) "Natural-hazard distress merchandise sales" shall mean those occurring as a result of a natural hazard such as fire or windstorm or other natural forces which the applicant has experienced, or as a result of damage such as by water or smoke suffered by the applicant as a consequence of such natural hazards.

(3) "Inventory-required distress merchandise sales" shall mean all other distress merchandise sales except natural-hazard distress merchandise sales.

(4) "Person" shall mean any individual, partnership, association, firm or corporation.

(5) "Represented" or "representation" shall include any means used for conveying notice to the public, including but not limited to oral, written or pictorial announcements whether by tag, sign, newspaper, radio or television, handbill, letter, poster or otherwise.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to sales in bulk not exceeding one day's duration, to sales conducted by public officers in the discharge of their official duties, or to sales under judicial process. However, in any day-to-day sale under judicial process, the court of competent jurisdiction may in its discretion require a showing that no part of the goods, wares or merchandise to be sold were acquired for the purpose of using such sale as a sham device to dispose thereof.

Sec. 4. No person shall represent or conduct a distress merchandise sale without first having obtained a license to do so in accordance with the provisions hereof from the clerk of court of the county where the sale is to be held.

Sec. 5. Any person desiring to conduct a natural-hazard distress merchandise sale shall make a sworn, written application to the licensing official at least two days prior to the date on which said sale is to commence. Each application shall contain the following information, together with such other information as the licensing official may reasonably require to effectuate the purposes of this Act:

(1) The name and address of the owner of the goods, wares or merchandise to be included in the sale.

(2) A description of the place where the sale is to be held.

(3) The nature of the occupancy of the place where such sale is to be held, whether by lease or otherwise, and the effective date of termination of such occupancy.

(4) A full and complete statement of the facts regarding the distress merchandise sale, including the reason why such sale is being conducted, the commencement and termination date of such sale, the manner in which such sale will be conducted, the means to be employed in advertising such sale, and the content of proposed representations to the public about the nature of the sale.

Sec. 6. Any person desiring to conduct an inventory-required distress merchandise sale shall make a sworn, written application to the licensing official at least twenty (20) days prior to the date on which said sale is to commence, which application shall contain:

(1) The information required in the foregoing Section for natural hazard distress merchandise sales.

(2) A complete and detailed inventory of the goods, wares and merchandise to be sold at such sale, including any purchases which have been or will be ordered, with a legible orderly listing of each item (or lots of identical items) setting forth: (a) A description sufficient to permit ready identification; (b) the date, and from whom acquired; (c) the cost price of each item (or lots of identical items), and its retail value as shown by the price at which it was last sold or bona fide offered for sale by the applicant, and the total cost and total retail value; (d) whether any items are or have been acquired with cancellation privileges, on consignment, or for less than adequate consideration; (e) any abnormal or unusual purchases or additions to stock listed thereon or made within the preceding year; (f) and the average cost price of the inventory, computed at the end of each quarter, carried by the applicant during the preceding two years, or any shorter period he has been in business.

Sec. 7. No license shall be issued for an inventory-required distress merchandise sale unless there is filed with the licensing official a bond in an amount equal to ten per cent (10%) of the inventory retail value of all the goods, wares and merchandise to be offered at the sale with sureties thereon approved as to sufficiency by the licensing official. Said bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of all the conditions of this Statute, and shall also indemnify any purchaser who suffers any loss by reason of any misrepresentation made in connection with a sale licensed hereunder, and shall continue in effect until the expiration of one year after the last day of the sale or renewal thereof.

Sec. 8. Following receipt of the application, the licensing official shall cause an investigation to be made of all facts contained therein. No license shall be issued if he finds:

(1) That any material matter in said application is not true, or any representation proposed to be used in connection with said sale is misleading;

(2) That within five years prior to this application the applicant has been convicted of a violation of this Statute or has had revoked a license issued to him hereunder;

(3) That any required inventory contains goods, wares or merchandise previously included in any person's application for a license hereunder within eighteen (18) months prior to this application.

(4) That any required inventory contains goods, wares, or merchandise purchased by the applicant with cancellation privileges, on consignment, or for less than adequate consideration;

(5) That the inventory contains any goods, wares or merchandise purchases by the applicant or additions to his stock made for the purpose of using such sale as a sham device to dispose thereof. It shall be evidence of a sham purpose if it shall appear: (a) That in contemplation of such sale abnormal or unusual purchases or additions to applicant's stock have or will be made; (b) that the cost of the application inventory substantially exceeds the amount of the average inventory previously carried by the applicant; (c) that the applicant has not for one year prior to the application been continuously engaged in the business of selling the type of goods, wares and merchandise described in the application at the location described therein. Abnormal or unusual purchases or additions to applicant's stock made after ninety (90) days preceding the application shall be presumed to have been made in contemplation of the sale.

Sec. 9. When it appears to the licensing official that all statements in the application are true and that the proposed sale is of the character stated therein, that the application is in full compliance with the terms and conditions of this Act, and that the required application fee has been paid and any required bond filed, the licensing official shall issue a license to the applicant authorizing said applicant to represent and conduct the sale as described in the application, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The sale shall be held at the place named in the application and by the particular licensee for a period of not more than thirty (30) consecutive calendar days next following the effective date of said license.

(2) Upon commencement of said sale and for its duration, the license issued hereunder shall be prominently displayed inside the place of sale by the licensee.

(3) At an inventory-required sale, goods or wares or merchandise not described in the inventory attached to the application shall not be sold, offered for sale, displayed or commingled with inventoried merchandise.

(4) During an inventory-required sale, the licensee shall keep at the sale location suitable records which will show the sales and the balance remaining unsold of the originally inventoried merchandise. Said records and unsold merchandise shall be open for inspection by the licensing official or his duly authorized representatives.

Sec. 10. The licensing official shall revoke any license hereunder, after notice to the licensee delivered to the sale location of the time and place of hearing, when he has held a hearing and has found that the licensee has violated any condition of his license, has made a material misstatement in his application, or has made a misleading representation about the sale or merchandise to the public.

Sec. 11. If the licensee has not sold all the merchandise concerning which he originally obtained a sale license, upon his sworn renewal application the licensing official shall consider renewal of the original license for a second consecutive period of thirty (30) days. The licensing official shall issue such renewal if he finds the renewal application in all respects meets the requirements for the original license, including for inventory-required sales a revised inventory showing items remaining unsold. Upon like application, conditions and findings, the licensing official shall issue a second renewal for a third consecutive period of thirty (30) days, but shall not issue any further renewal.

Sec. 12. With an application hereunder the applicant shall pay a fee in the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00), but for inventory-required sales said sum of one-quarter of one per cent (¼ of 1%) of the inventory retail value of the goods, wares and merchandise, whichever is greater. The application fee shall include the fee for the license if issued, but no portion of the application fee shall be returnable if the license is not issued. The licensing official may expend such portion of application fees received by him as he shall deem necessary in obtaining any audit or investigation required in order to carry out his duties hereunder. The fee for renewal applications shall be fifteen dollars ($15.00).

Sec. 13. It shall be unlawful for any person to represent or conduct a sale as a distress merchandise sale without a license hereunder, to make a material misstatement in application for a license or to violate any condition of the license issued hereunder, to make a misleading representation to the public regarding the sale or the merchandise to be sold, to continue after the conclusion of a licensed sale substantially the same business under the same or a different name if such is contrary to the designation given the licensed sale in the application therefor, or to otherwise violate the provisions of this Act. Upon conviction, such person shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or be imprisoned not more than thirty (30) days, or both. Each day's violation shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 14. This Act shall apply to Mecklenburg County only.

Sec. 15. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 16. This Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 26th day of May, 1955.

H. R. 153 RESOLUTION 9

A JOINT RESOLUTION PETITIONING THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT, THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, AND OTHER APPROPRIATE FEDERAL OFFICIALS, NOT TO IMPOSE A TARIFF OR IMPORT DUTY UPON POTASH, ESSENTIAL FOR THE GROWING OF TOBACCO, NORTH CAROLINA'S BIGGEST CASH CROP.

WHEREAS, a relatively small amount of foreign potash is shipped into this country at the Atlantic ports, which forms an essential part of the fertilizers manufactured for the production of the tobacco crop of North Carolina and other Atlantic seaboard states, and

WHEREAS, such potash, like all other fertilizer materials, has been heretofore duty free, and

WHEREAS, it is now understood that the Treasury Department of the United States has decided to impose or is considering imposing a duty on potash shipped into this country from foreign countries, principally from Germany, in order to protect the domestic potash industry, which production is entirely in the western part of the United States, and

WHEREAS, freight on potash produced in the western part of the United States to the east coast is greatly in excess of the freight on foreign potash shipped to the Atlantic seaboard, and such difference in freight rates would make the cost of potash, purchased to be used for fertilizers on the seaboard, almost prohibitive, and

WHEREAS, if such tariff policy is adopted by the Federal Government, the cost of fertilizers to the farmers of North Carolina will be substantially increased and the western producers of potash given monopolistic control of this product, to the disadvantage of the farmers of the eastern seaboard:

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

Section 1. The President of the United States of America, the Treasury Department, the Congress, and all other Federal officials having responsibilities in connection with the imposition of tariffs and duties on fertilizers and fertilizer materials shipped into this country, including potash, are hereby urged and requested to continue the policy heretofore enforced in this country of admitting, free of duty, fertilizer materials, including potash, which are produced in foreign countries, and that said officials be urged to refrain from imposing any import duties on potash, the result of which would give western producers of the United States monopolistic control of such materials and greatly increase the cost to the farmers of the eastern seaboard of fertilizers containing such materials, including potash.

Sec. 2. Copies of this Resolution shall be certified by the Secretary of State and sent as promptly as possible to the President of the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and to the United States Senators from North Carolina, and members of the House of Representatives from North Carolina.

Sec. 3. This Resolution shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 4th day of February, 1955.

S. R. 127 RESOLUTION 10

A JOINT RESOLUTION PROTESTING THE TOLL CHARGES PROPOSED FOR THE BLUE RIDGE PARKWAY.

WHEREAS, the construction of a scenic highway from the Shenandoah National Park in Virginia to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park in North Carolina and Tennessee along the Appalachian Mountains was first proposed by the Federal Government in 1933 as a part of its Public Works Program; and

WHEREAS, representatives of North Carolina attending a conference called by the interested Federal agencies to examine the feasibility of this project and to discuss the terms and conditions under which the states affected would participate therein expressed strong opposition when the idea of a toll road was advanced and pointed out that North Carolina could not invest public funds in a toll road because such an investment would be contrary to expressed public policy; whereupon, because of the position of North Carolina and because of the opposition of other states and some of the interested Federal agencies, it was decided that this scenic highway would be constructed and maintained as a free public road; and

WHEREAS, thereafter an agreement was entered into between the Federal Government and the State of North Carolina which, among other things, provided that North Carolina would secure and convey to the Federal Government the fee simple title to such rights-of-way as should be required by the Federal Government for the construction of said scenic highway and to do all surveying necessary in connection with the location thereof while the Federal Government on its part would design, construct and maintain said highway; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to this agreement and in reliance thereon the State of North Carolina, through its Highway Department, began in 1934 with public funds to survey and acquire title to the right-of-way, to convey it to the Federal Government as required and otherwise fulfill its part of the agreement in connection with the construction of this highway; that the State of North Carolina in the performance of its part of this agreement has spent a sum in excess of two million three hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($2,350,000.00) on this project to date and will before it is finally completed spend in excess of three million dollars ($3,000,000.00); and

WHEREAS, the Director of the National Park Service, an official of the Department of Interior of the Federal Government, has announced that effective May 1, 1955, certain toll charges will be placed upon the use of parts of the Blue Ridge Parkway that have been completed, some of which are located in North Carolina;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

Section 1. That the General Assembly of North Carolina protests the placing of toll charges of any kind on the use of the Blue Ridge Parkway and requests the Director of the National Park Service to reconsider the imposition of the proposed schedule of toll charges

(1) For that: A toll charge was considered in the negotiations concerning the agreement under which said Parkway was constructed and was not included in the agreement partly at least because the announced public policy of North Carolina would have prevented its participation in this project with public funds.

(2) For that: Relying upon the fact that the charging of tolls had been considered and eliminated, North Carolina invested public funds in this project in the full belief that it was making an investment in a free public highway restricted only as to certain uses necessary to the maintenance of the scenic character of this highway.

(3) For that: Further in relying upon these negotiations and the fact that the eventual agreement contained no provisions for a toll charge representations were made to the property owners whose lands had to be appropriated for this use to provide right-of-way for this highway and were also made to other citizens and residents in the area immediately adjacent to this highway that except for the restrictions necessary to maintain the highway as a scenic parkway, it could be freely used by the public in the same manner as any other highway of North Carolina.

(4) For that: The charging of tolls for the use of the Blue Ridge Parkway would be a violation of the agreement entered into between the State of North Carolina and the Federal Government for the construction of this highway, an act of bad faith on the part of the Federal Government, and an abuse of the confidence with which the people of North Carolina endorsed and supported this project.

Sec. 2. That certified copies of this Resolution be mailed to the North Carolina delegation in the Congress of the United States and a certified copy placed before the Director of the National Park Service and a certified copy placed before the Secretary of the Interior, and the President of the United States.

Sec. 3. That this Resolution shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 11th day of February, 1955.

A JOINT RESOLUTION PETITIONING THE PRESIDENT AND THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES NOT TO ADOPT TARIFF POLICIES DESTRUCTIVE OF THE DOMESTIC TEXTILE INDUSTRY BY FAILURE TO RECOGNIZE DIFFERENCE IN COST OF MANUFACTURE BY FOREIGN INDUSTRY COMPARED WITH AMERICAN INDUSTRY.

WHEREAS, the present conditions of uncertainty in world affairs demand that in the interest of self preservation our Nation maintain all of its potential capacity, and which may be destructive of that part of this Nation's industrial capacity now made up of textile industries unless there is a tariff structure which acts to offset this unfair advantage, and

WHEREAS, more than one-fourth of the Nation's spindles are operated in North Carolina to process twenty-eight per cent (28%) of the Nation's cotton consumption, and

H. R. 838 RESOLUTION 29

A JOINT RESOLUTION STATING THE POLICY OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA WITH REFERENCE TO THE MIXING OF THE CHILDREN OF DIFFERENT RACES IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THE STATE, AND CREATING AN ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

WHEREAS, Governor William B. Umstead, shortly before his death, appointed a Special Advisory Committee on Education, composed of outstanding citizens of our State of both races, to study the difficult and far-reaching problems presented by the May 17, 1954, decision of the Supreme Court of the United States on the question of segregation in the public schools, and our present Governor, Honorable Luther H. Hodges, recommissioned that Committee soon after assuming the duties of Governor of North Carolina, and said Committee filed its report with the Governor on December 30, 1954, which report stated, among other things, the following:

"The mixing of the races forthwith in the public schools throughout the State cannot be accomplished and should not be attempted. The schools of our State are so intimately related to the customs and feelings of the people of each community that their effective operation is impossible except in conformity with community attitudes. The Committee feels that the compulsory mixing of the races in our schools, on a State-wide basis and without regard to local conditions and assignment factors other than race, would alienate public support of the schools to such an extent that they could not be operated successfully.", and

WHEREAS, His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina, has transmitted the report of this Special Committee to this General Assembly recommending it as the policy for this State to follow, and

WHEREAS, the Attorney General of the State of North Carolina has filed a brief with the Supreme Court of the United States in the pending segregation cases before said Court, which brief states, among other things, the following:

"The people of North Carolina know the value of the public school. They also know the value of a social structure in which two distinct races can live together as separate groups, each proud of its own contribution to that society and recognizing its dependence upon the other group. They are determined, if possible, to educate all of the children of the State. They are also determined to maintain their society as it now exists with separate and distinct racial groups in the North Carolina community.

"The people of North Carolina firmly believe that the record of North Carolina in the field of education demonstrates the practicability of education of separate races in separate schools. They also believe that the achievements of the Negro people of North Carolina demonstrate that such an educational system has not instilled in them any sense of inferiority which handicaps them in their efforts to make lasting and substantial contributions to their State."

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

Section 1. S. R. 363 RESOLUTION 48

A JOINT RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A COMMISSION OF NINE MEMBERS TO INQUIRE INTO, REPORT AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS AS TO THE ALTERATION AND MODIFICATION OF SENATORIAL DISTRICTS IN THIS STATE, AS WELL AS THE REGULATIONS IN RELATION TO APPORTIONMENT OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WHEREAS, our Constitution at the present time contains the same methods of senatorial redistricting and the same methods of reapportionment of members of the House of Representatives that were adopted by the Reconstruction Constitutional Convention of 1868; and

WHEREAS, the growing reluctance on the part of the General Assembly to change senatorial districts and to accomplish reapportionment in the House of Representatives, a feeling or concept that the method of determining representation in both Houses of the General Assembly is unrealistic, unsound and does not embody or contain a reasonable relation to the methods and objectives of representation sought to be accomplished; and

WHEREAS, the bicameral system of legislative representation should be so set up and so organized that the two Chambers of the General Assembly should have fundamentally representative bases so that each Chamber can serve as a check on the other, and it is necessary to re-examine the theory, as well as the practice of popular representation in North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to determine which House of the General Assembly shall faithfully reflect representation based on population and which House should faithfully reflect representation based on geographical units if such method is adopted, and it is further necessary to consider the ratio of population in proportion to the representative capacity of the members of each House of the General Assembly and also the actual mechanics of redistricting and reapportionment:

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate, the House concurring:

Section 1. That a special commission shall be established which shall be known as "The Commission of Legislative Representation" and shall be composed of nine members, three of whom shall be appointed by the President of the Senate and from the membership of the Senate; three shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House from the membership of the House; and three shall be appointed by the Governor of this State from those members of the public at large who have some familiarity with governmental theory and practice.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of said commission to study the whole problem of redistricting and reapportionment and re-examine the theory, practice and bases of representation in both Houses of the General Assembly. The said commission shall also study the question, problem and mechanics of representation in the General Assembly and the proper method and basis to be fixed for each House of same; the commission shall study the problem and question of geographical or district representation, as well as representation in proportion to population and the practices and methods and mechanics adaptable to each House of the General Assembly in order to carry out representative government on the basis of a bicameral system. The commission shall also consider whether or not the actual working and mechanics of reapportionment and redistricting should be placed in an authorized agency outside of the General Assembly with mandatory provisions to make and enforce redistricting and reapportionment independent of the consideration, personalities and concepts of individual members of the General Assembly; the said commission shall study the experience of other states and shall examine theories of representation totally new or unfamiliar to this State and shall gather factual information and data on the subject, and it is hereby authorized to study any and all phases of the primary subject or question of this Resolution.

Sec. 3. The said commission shall have the power and authority to examine data and records in the various offices, bureaus and institutions, as well as agencies of State government and to utilize the personnel of any such agencies or offices of the State government and to do any and all things necessary to accomplish the objectives of this Resolution.

Sec. 4. The commission shall determine its own procedure and plan of organization and elect its own chairman. The commission, the chairman and other members of the commission shall have such power and authority to administer oaths, examine persons and to exercise any and all the power and authority granted to legislative committees or commissions by the general laws of the State now in force and governing such commissions and committees appointed by the General Assembly.

Sec. 5. Members of the commission shall receive the same per diem and travel allowance as that allowed officers and employees of the State while in the performance of their duties as members of the commission.

Sec. 6. After completing its investigation and studies the commission shall file a report with the Governor of North Carolina and with the General Assembly of 1957, containing a statement of its investigations, findings and recommendations.

Sec. 7. That this Resolution shall be in full force and effect from and after its adoption.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 23rd day of May, 1955.

H. R. 846 RESOLUTION 49

A JOINT RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE GOVERNOR TO APPOINT A COMMISSION TO STUDY AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR REVISION AND RECODIFICATION OF THE REVENUE ACT AND TO REPORT ITS FINDINGS TO THE 1957 SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

WHEREAS, there has been no major revision or basic change in the tax structure of the State of North Carolina since 1932; and

WHEREAS, it is proper and desirable that the State of North Carolina and its tax structure be such as to favor the migration of individuals and business enterprises from other states to come within the bounds of North Carolina to establish their businesses and residences; and

WHEREAS, the technological and industrial advances in manufacturing, scientific and agricultural processes since 1932 have changed the nature of many industries, and many entirely new industries have been developed; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable that the tax structure of the State of North Carolina should be studied and reviewed to ascertain whether it meets the tests of stability and equity, and gives proper economic incentive to the greater productivity of the citizens and business enterprises of this State, and with a steady and adequate provision of revenue for the sound and essential purposes of government;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

Section 1. The Governor of North Carolina is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a Commission to be composed of 9 members, and to be known as the Commission for the Study of the Revenue Structure of the State. One member shall be selected from the membership of the 1955 Senate and 2 members shall be selected from the 1955 House of Representatives. The remaining members shall be selected with a view toward fairly and equitable representing the various economic interests of the State as nearly as possible.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of said Commission to make a detailed and careful study of the revenue laws of the State which now comprise the Revenue Act, together with all other laws of the State which have a bearing upon such a study of the Revenue Act, and to make recommendations to the 1957 Session of the General Assembly:

(a) To provide for such revision or recodification of such revenue laws as would provide a more easily understandable and workable system of revenue laws for the State, with separate recommendations being made of all such sources of taxation under the General Fund, as well as the Highway and the Agricultural Fund.

(b) To recommend changes in the basic tax structure of the State and in the rates of taxation, together with predicted revenue effects thereof, together with proposed alternate sources of revenue, to the end that our revenue system may be stable and equitable, and yet so fair when compared with the tax structures of other states, that business enterprises and persons would be encouraged by the economic impact of the North Carolina Revenue Laws to move themselves and their business enterprises into the State of North Carolina.

(c) To recommend study of alternate sources of revenue found in the tax structures of other states of the Union, and particularly, in the other southeastern states, and to make a report upon the economic impact of the North Carolina tax structure upon the business enterprises of various types of industry, as compared with those of other southeastern states.

(d) To make recommendations for long range revenue planning, and for future amendments of the Revenue Laws of North Carolina.

(e) To make a study of allocation formulas providing for the allocation of income for taxation purposes of corporations and other enterprises and persons doing business in North Carolina and other states, together with recommendations as to flexible adjustment procedures which may be provided, in cases of inequity of application of any allocation formulas which may be adopted or recommended.

Sec. 3. The Commission shall have power to hold public hearings, examine the records of the Revenue Department or any other agencies of the State, to receive testimony of any employees of the State or any other witnesses who may assist the Commission in its duties and to call for assistance in the performance of its duties from any employees or agencies of the State or any of its political subdivisions. The Commission may administer oaths, subpoena and compel attendance of witnesses, and do any and all things necessary to accomplish the objective and purposes of this Resolution. To this end the provisions of G. S. 105-259 shall not apply to the members of the Commission or any of its employees or staff.

Sec. 4. Upon its appointment the Commission shall organize by electing from its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman. The members of the Commission shall be paid a per diem allowance in an amount to be determined by the Governor for the days when they are engaged in the performance of the duties of the Commission, and such necessary travel expenses and subsistence and other expenses as may be incurred by them in the performance of the duties of the Commission. The Commission may adopt by majority vote such rules not inconsistent with this Article as it may deem proper with respect to any and all matters relating to the discharge of its duties under this Article.

Sec. 5. The Commission is authorized, with the approval of the Governor, to employ an executive secretary or a general counsel who shall devote his full time to the work of the Commission and supervise the research, revision and redrafting required to carry out the provisions of this Resolution. Such executive secretary or general counsel shall receive a salary to be fixed by the Commission with the approval of the Governor. He shall be authorized to hold hearings and symposiums at various points throughout the State for the purpose of promoting the work of the Commission and securing the wishes of the public regarding the duties of the Commission. The executive secretary or general counsel is authorized to employ such professional, clerical, and other assistants and services as may be deemed necessary in the performance of the Commission's duties.

Sec. 6. The Commission shall report its findings, including its recommendations for revision and recodification of the Revenue Act, together with the economic and statistical studies related thereto, to the Governor upon or before November 10, 1956, to be transmitted promptly thereafter to the members-elect of the 1957 General Assembly. Said findings and recommendations shall be published and made available to the public.

Sec. 7. There is hereby appropriated from the Contingency and Emergency Fund the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) for the expenses of the Commission which shall be expended under the direction of the Director of the Budget. The Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds shall provide suitable office space and equipment for the Commission.
